

The Oahu Nominees Of The Democrats

The Democratic delegates from the Fourth District met in caucus last night at Waverley Hall. There was a large attendance. The meeting was an executive session. Probably anticipating that the deliberations might be characterized by the usual Democratic assemblages where discordant souls rage and disgruntled elements gather, the delegates decided not to allow any of the details of the meeting to be announced. The meeting lasted several hours. Strange to relate, however, there does not appear from the little that could be learned of the proceedings, to have been any very acrimonious debates.

It was thought that there would be a fight over the proposition to endorse Cecil Brown, the standard-bearer of the Brown Republicans who still insists that he has not left the party. But from the statements of those who were present at the caucus, Brown was among the also rans, or rather, he did not start. Nobody tried to have him endorsed nor do there appear to have been any attempts to nominate him.

The senatorial situation was discussed and it was finally decided, it was understood, to nominate only two senators, leaving the third place vacant. The following were nominated: Frank Harvey and Col. E. H. F. Wolters. These appear to have been the only names presented, at least so far as could be learned, and the friends of the two men state that the nominations were unanimous. Harvey is from the Fifth District and Wolters from the Fourth.

The representative ticket is understood to have been selected as follows: C. J. Campbell, Clinton J. Hutchins, Joseph Aea, William Jarrett, I. Nauha and L. R. Medeiros. Whether there was a fight over any of these candidates or any others that were mentioned is not known. Several names are reported to have been selected but the majority of the delegates interviewed agreed upon the above list as the ones who received the endorsement at the caucus. Medeiros is a Portuguese, Hutchins and Campbell are white men, Nauha and Aea are natives, and Jarret is three-quarter white. The delegates claimed that there was harmony throughout the caucus and that the tickets as given will be supported in the convention next Saturday.

The Fifth District delegates held a meeting several nights ago but did not come to any definite conclusion. Some of the delegates seemed to favor endorsing Brown while others did not. Wolters and Harvey will undoubtedly receive the support from the Fifth, but whether the example of the Fourth District caucus to leave the third nomination vacant will be followed is uncertain. The following are said to be the most probable names to be put in nomination by the Fifth: R. H. Trent, Dr. W. S. Noblitt, John Emmeluth, Jesse Makainai, Naukana and David Kupihea. The first three mentioned are white men. The others were Home Rulers but have affiliated with the Democratic party. The Fifth is to caucus, it is understood, tonight.

NOMURA HAD MISS HERRICK'S SPOONS

SO THE POLICE CLAIM—SAY THAT THE JAP COMMITTED TWO BURGLARIES LAST SATURDAY.

Trace of two more robberies was secured today by Detective McDuffie. To the door of Nomura is laid the guilt. Nomura was caught yesterday trying to sell silver knives, forks and spoons. The Jap was placed under arrest. McDuffie questioned him and learned that the fellow had entered the residence of Miss Herrick on School street last Saturday and taken some spoons, and then entered the house of Mrs. Hughes next door, and taken the knives and forks. Hughes is the man who won the second prize in the recent Examiner Weekly drawing, getting his weight in silver. The watch which the Jap was trying to sell, was taken from the residence of a police officer.

NO MORE USE OF RUBBER STAMPS

BALLOT-MARKING BY PENCILS TO BE THE RULE IN THE COMING ELECTION.

"Do not use rubber stamp" was the seemingly oracular message received by Chief Clerk Buckland from Secretary Atkinson by wireless this afternoon. This means when expanded that the rubber stamps for marking the "X" on the ballot papers which were used at the last elections will be discarded, and the return will be made to the more primitive lead pencil. Many complaints were made over the use of the stamps the principal one being that in folding the ballots the ink was very apt to smudge and either render it doubtful or unintelligible.

JUDGMENT FOR KALANIANOUE.

In the case of Middleditch, trustee for the C. F. Herrick Carriage Company against J. OUT OF THE RACE?

INTER-ISLAND OFFICIALS DECLINE TO CONSENT TO HARVEY RUNNING FOR SENATOR WHILE ANOTHER EMPLOYEE OF THAT CONCERN IS RUNNING ON GROUNDS THAT THEY DO NOT WANT TWO OF THEIR EMPLOYEES TO RUN IN OPPOSITION TO EACH OTHER.

A peculiar complication in Democratic politics arose this afternoon. The Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company in which Frank Harvey holds a position of importance, declined to consent to his running as a candidate for the Senate. A conference on this subject was held between General Manager J. A. Kennedy of the company and several directors of the company with a representative of the Democratic party, as Harvey has been unanimously selected by Democratic caucuses.

The consent of the company to allow him to serve in the Senate if elected and to retain his position in the service of the concern, was necessary. The Inter-Island people stated that as John Lane, one of their employes was now running for the Senate on the Republican ticket, they did not consider that the public interests demanded that a second employe should run in opposition to the first employe. It was suggested that they were willing to have Harvey run for the House.

Harvey has the matter under consideration. He will make his answer to the Fifth District caucus tonight.

In case he would prefer to remain with the Inter-Island company instead of going into politics, he will not consent to allow himself to be nominated at the coming convention Saturday. If Harvey withdraws the Democratic legislative ticket will have sustained a very vital blow. He is the strongest man they have mentioned and according to the present indications, there is little prospect of securing any more men to take his place on the ticket.

OLD MARKET GIVEN UP

JAPANESE PLAN TO RUN THE OLD FISHMARKET NOT A SUCCESS—THE CHINESE STALL KEEPERS IN THE NEW MARKETS RETAIN THE RETAIL BUSINESS WHILE JAPS GIVE UP STALLS AND SELL TO CHINESE AT WHOLESALE.

The recent attempt of the Japanese fish takers to start a fish trust of their own has come to an end. They refused to sell to the Chinese dealers at the new King street market and formed a combination going to the old government market on Alakea street. It was supposed that the Alakea street combination would control everything. The attempt appears to have been a failure and the Japs have begun to surrender their government market stalls and to go back to the Chinese dealers at the new market.

The old government market is again practically closed and Chinese are doing all the retail business.

WOULD BOOM THEATRICALS

PLAN TO ORGANIZE AN AMATEUR DRAMATIC SOCIETY AMONG LOCAL PEOPLE WHO HAVE SHOWN TALENT ON THE STAGE—SYMPHONY CLUB MAY FORM THE NUCLEUS OF A MUCH LARGER MUSICAL AND DRAMATIC ASSOCIATION.

A plan to organize another dramatic and musical society is being discussed among members of the Honolulu Symphony Club and those who are interested in the "Said Pasha" and "Charley's Aunt" productions. In a long series of amateur performances, of opera and comedy, it has been shown that Honolulu has much excellent stage talent, and it is thought by the projectors of the plan that an amateur dramatic society would have large membership and would prosper.

The plan is partly a result of the Symphony Club plan to have Leader Stockton of the cruiser New York band come here as leader of the club. Stockton is also a dramatic instructor, and it is proposed if he comes to form a choral society in connection with the instrumental society now existing, as well as a dramatic section, or an independent dramatic society.

Honolulu has so few visits from outside stage attractions that it is believed that a local society would get liberal patronage for many more productions than are given here yearly at present. The town would "stand for" such a show quite frequently, as far as financial matters are concerned, in the opinion of many, and it is proposed to get the leaders in such matters together and form an organization.

Arraignments On New Indictments

JUDGE GEAR DISPOSES OF SOME OF THE CASES BROUGHT BY THE PRESENT GRAND JURY—A JAPANESE BURGLAR MAKES A POLITE PLEA FOR CLEMENCY—THE GENEAU MURDER CASE SET FOR PLEA.

This was a dull day in Judge Gear's court, for the whole morning was taken up in the arraignment of prisoners who had been indicted by the grand jury. As in nearly every case the services of an interpreter were required, the length of time ordinarily necessary was doubled or tripled and once more the trial jury was in attendance with nothing to do.

Fujimoto, accused of breaking into the store of another Japanese, pleaded guilty to a charge of burglary in the first degree. In answer to the judge's interpreted question as to whether he had anything to say, Fujimoto smiled and replied that he was a married man with a family and was very happy, he was sorry that he had stolen the goods and therefore he hoped the honorable judge would deal with him as lightly as possible.

Assistant Attorney General Fleming, who was taking the cases for his confrere Prosser today, said he would look into the case and see what the man's record was, so the judge deferred sentence until tomorrow.

E. Geneau, the U. S. sailor from the Wheeling charged with having murdered the negro prize fighter U. S. Harris, was represented by Attorney E.
