Hayashida, the Japanese accused of the murder of a fellow plantation laborer, was again brought up, his former trial having proved abortive through an error in the original indictment. His attorney, J. W. Cathcart, presented a plea in bar taking the ground that the prisoner should be released on the failure of the former indictment. This was promptly overruled by Judge Gear, upon which Cathcart moved to quash the present indictment on the ground that it was vague and insufficient. The motion was taken under advisement.

Akoon pleaded guilty to larceny in the second degree, but as he is already serving sentence on another charge, his case will be looked into and he will be sentenced tomorrow.

The cases of other prisoners who were arraigned were disposed of as follows: Nakamoto, selling liquor without a license, reserved to foot of the list. Hamada, che fa tickets in possession, plea reserved. Akama, che fa tickets in possession, Friday for plea. Chun Lo Jan, burglary first degree, one week to plead. Taktion, che fa tickets in possession, until Monday for plea. Matsuya, furious driving, Monday for plea. Nang Kow, assault and battery, Monday for plea. Joe Caspina and Kamila, burglary in the first degree, Monday for plea. Morimoto, che fa tickets in possession, Monday for plea. J. Borgias and Tom Larkin, burglary first degree, plead not guilty. Chong Lung, Ah Kim, Lum Ngai and Sam Yow, rioting at Waiiala, one week to plead.

USELESS FOR SMALL FARMERS

KAUAI LAND OF WHICH SALE WAS PROTESTED DECLARED TO BE WELL DISPOSED OF.

LIHUE, September 19.—The Garden Island has the following about the land sale recently held in Honolulu, at which Allan Herbert made a protest, on the ground that the land should have been left for settlers, or "small farmers."

"It would have been a positive unkindness to a citizen of the Territory had the Government induced him to pre-empt as a farm any of this Hamalei land. The land is profusely overgrown with lanana which will cost at least forty dollars an acre to clear away. The land is without any water supply, and it would cost barrels of money to get water on the land, even if it be possible, which we very much doubt. The land is a high plateau between the Hamalei and Kalia rivers and is thickly studded with blocks of lava rock. The Wilcoxes, who had it under lease, with two years still to run, could not afford to clear the land and plant it to buffalo grass, about the only crop it will grow, on a two year lease. By selling the land to its present owners the government unburdens itself of a piece of land absolutely unavailable for all home-stead purposes, and at the same time benefits the Territory of Hawaii and the island of Kauai by passing the land into hands which will spend forty dollars an acre in having it cleared and will then plant it to buffalo grass, upon which large herds of cattle will fatten for island markets. The taxable property of the island will thus be increased $50 per acre for all this land and large sums for the cattle which will be raised on its pasturage, besides opening the way for the employment of a large number of citizens in clearing the land and planting it to grass."

His Skin Is Republican But Heart Home Ruler

ONE OF THE RECENT CONVERTS ON KAUAI TO REPUBLICANISM BECOMES EXCITED AT A MEETING AT WAIMEA AND SPEAKS HIS MIND—SAID HIS HEART WAS STILL HOME RULE—SPEECHES BY OTHER HOME RULERS ON THE GARDEN ISLE.

When Senator Nakapahu of Waimea, Kauai, was recently converted to the ranks of Republicanism, this defection from the Home Rule ranks was heralded abroad as a great victory for the Republican workers. They had inoculated the Home Rule flesh with the virus of Republicanism and the germ had taken hold. But, according to advice brought this morning from Kauai by the steamer Mikahala, the conversion of the Senator appears to have been only skin deep. In fact his Republicanism appears to be only as transitory and frail a thing as human being. His own words are given as authority for this condition of political mind and body.

The declaration by the Senator occurred at Waimea last week. A meeting was held by Charles Notley and other Home Rule spell binders. Among those who addressed the meeting was Kahuokalani. He spoke eloquently and long in Hawaiian. He seemed to make a marked impression among his hearers. While his conclusion was not perhaps so flowery as other orations have been, it was nevertheless most eloquent and significant, for after speaking entirely in the Hawaiian language he concluded with attributing the following to Nakapahu: "My tongue speaks Republican but my heart is Home Rule."

The Garden Island, of Lihue, publishes the following communication on the subject:

Friday evening C. Notley, Senator Kahuokalani and D. H. Kahualelo of Maui held a Home Rule meeting in Waimea, by the court house in the open air. The meeting was well attended and applause was generously given the speakers. C. Notley, candidate for delegate to Congress spent most of his time running down Senator Paul Isenberg, telling how he introduced a bill into the legislature to stop all the Hawaiians from fishing. That he pretended to be a friend of the natives, but that his actions showed him to be their enemy.

Notley said he was against the Republicans, and thought the Hawaiians should consider that enough. He said he was sure of election and if elected he would show the Hawaiians that he was a true friend to them. The audience seemed much pleased with Notley's speech and cheered him lustily.

Kahualelo of the crooked mouth made a bitter speech against the holed and said the Hawaiians should get the better of the holed every time by hook or crook.

Senator Kahuokalani made the longest speech of the evening and admonishing the Hawaiians to hang together against their enemies, the holed, and the Republican party he closed in this manner: "I am sorry that our friend Senator Nakapahu is indisposed this evening and unable to be with us, but still we know him to be one of us."

"This he told he himself, saying: 'My tongue is Republican, but my heart is and will ever be Home Rule.'"

This closing speech was greeted by the crowd with loud cheers, and the meeting broke up after this decided hit by Senator Kahuokalani.

The Home Rule speakers stated that they intend to work around to Hanalei and speak at Lihue next Saturday afternoon at Nawiliwili.

Yours truly,
OBSERVER.

CANDIDATES NOT WILLING

KAUAI REPUBLICANS OF PROMINENCE DECLINE TO TAKE LEGISLATIVE NOMINATIONS.

LIHUE, September 19.—The Garden Island says: The Garden Island is able to state positively that neither Alexander McBryde nor George H. Fairchild will accept a nomination for the legislature, if tendered. McBryde may go to the coast before long to spend the winter. Fairchild says it is simply out of the question for him to think of leaving the plantation he is manager of for long service in the legislature, much as he would like to do so.

How can Kauai expect to make a showing in the legislature if the fit and efficient candidates who are spoken of for the Senate and the House one by one decline to serve on account of inconvenience or business loss? If these men wanted to take a pleasure trip no such considerations would stand for a moment in the way. They would get some competent person to take their places. Why can't that be done for the sake of a capable delegation to the legislature? Why can't the Republican party do something to make it worth while for these good men to run? This next legislature will be the most important session for many years to come. If important offices are going to be turned over by default to anybody who will take them it becomes foolish to take any pride or interest in political matters.

DEMOCRATS IN EVERY PRECINCT

ORGANIZATION OF THE PARTY HAS BEEN COMPLETED IN THE GARDEN ISLAND.

LIHUE, September 19.—W. A. Kinney returned from Kauai this morning, whither he went on business in connection with the proposed new electrical plant at Waiiala. Incidentally he distributed a large lot of Democratic literature, made speeches, helped to organize clubs and did other important work for the party. He reports that S. K. Koloa, the Democratic spell-binder, is meeting with tremendous success among the larger clubs organized are those of Hanapepe, Hanalei, Kapaa, Waimea and Lihue. Kinney feels that the Democrats have a fine chance of winning out on Kauai as a change is much desired.

On Wednesday evening September 14, about a dozen citizens met at the residence of George Mookani for the purpose of organizing a Democratic Precinct Club in Koloa. At 8 o'clock W. H. Kahiku called the meeting to order and called for the nomination of a temporary chairman. On motion of Mookani William Brown was appointed temporary chairman and J. L. K. Puhulama temporary secretary.

The following were made permanent officers: President, William Brown; vice president, Kimokeo; secretary, J. L. K. Puhulama; treasurer, William Charman. Members of the Executive Committee, V. H. Kahiku, M. K. Kalua, K. Ainaike, Buelo Lucas and S. K. Kaumahu.

It is understood that Democrats have organized in every precinct of this island. Besides those mentioned in the last issue of the Garden Island, are Kekaha, Waimea, Makawili, Hanapepe and Kilauea.

Detective McDuffie has arrested a Jap named Nemura on suspicion of stealing some silver spoons and a gold watch. The watch was sold to a Chinese at the corner of Punchbowl and King streets. The watch was lost by Police Officer Ponohu in the New Era lavatory and Noura is thought to have found the watch at that place. The Jap has been sleeping in the Capitol grounds for the last three weeks.

GOVERNMENT JOBS AND DEBTS

DE BOLT SUSTAINS THE LAW REGARDING GARNISHEE OF GOVERNMENT SALARIES.

In Judge De Bolt's view of human affairs, there is no reason why government officials should not pay their debts, even though the lofty office they hold happens to be that of policeman. That is how he ruled today, to the undoing of Ah On. Ever since June 27, 1903, Ah On has owed Ah Hing $154.35 for damages for false imprisonment and costs, judgment having been entered for that amount on October 7, 1902, and confirmed by the Supreme Court on June 4, 1903.

Ah On is a police officer employed at a salary of $60 a month, so suit was brought against him with Territorial Auditor J. H. Fisher as garnishee. The case went against the defendant who appealed on the ground that a government official's salary could not be garnished, the act being unconstitutional. Judge De Bolt gave his decision this morning as follows:

"Defendant, a government beneficiary, to wit: a police officer, admits that he owes the plaintiff the amount sued for, to wit: $145.35, with interest thereon from June 27, 1903, but he contends that the garnishment of his salary in the hands of the Auditor cannot be maintained because Act 53, Laws of 1903, is unconstitutional in that it is class legislation and contrary to public policy. In my opinion the point is not well taken. Judgment, therefore, may be entered as prayed for."

CAMPAIGN TO START.

On Monday the Republican Senators for Oahu will start over the Pali with Prince Kuhio for a campaign of this island. They will hold meetings as far as Waiiala. At Waimea the campaign will be started tonight. Prince Kuhio, John Lane, J. M. Dowsett and others will speak.

FISHING IS GOOD.

The boat boys have discovered a fine fishing bank where the haahalu can be caught in great number. The boys, for a modest compensation, will take disciples of Isaac Walton out to the banks and guarantee them good sized catches of fish.

HAS LAND IN BRAZIL

Rudolph Seyler of New York has obtained from Brazil the concession of more than 20,000 square miles of land in the State of Maranhao, extending more than one hundred miles along the ocean and back three hundred miles from the coast. There is now quite a rush of American capital to Brazil. A Western syndicate has gone down there to mine for gold, and a Chicago syndicate is locating on the river Jeguitinhauha, where there are diamonds as well as gold. Representatives of a New York syndicate are investigating the region along the river Minasgerais. A New Zealand syndicate has also recently gone into Brazil.

Meanwhile seats will be placed in the vacant lot Waikiki of the building and there the crowd will sit to see the rockets bursting in the air, to listen to the melodious notes of the flute, sackbut, harp dulcimer or whatever more modern instruments have taken their places and further to absorb slices of Republican wisdom which will be passed out by some of the party's most gifted orators.

Altogether the occasion will be most festive and the managers of the Fourth are determined that it will be one that will live in history.

A meeting of the Executive Committee of the Fourth, together with the presidents of the precinct clubs will be held this evening in order to decide upon different important details of the campaign.

NEW INDICTMENTS
