ARE UP AGAINST IT.

Adelaide Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Wray who were formerly of the Sanford Theatrical Company, are through passengers on the S. S. Aorangi. They say that Australia is a very poor place for American theatrical companies. Only Mr. and Mrs. Sanford and Kunkel are in the organization, the remainder of the cast being made up of Australians.

WALKER FILES A REPLY.

John Walker, the contractor for the Alakea street dock, whose tender is being disputed by Lord & Belser on the ground that it was not accompanied by a proper check, has filed his answer in the injunction proceedings brought to prevent a contract being made between him, the Commissioner of Public Works and the Auditor. He denies the allegations of the petitioners in the case to the effect that his check on Davies & Co. was not an order on funds actually deposited by him and asserts that his check was perfectly good on the lines intended by the advertisements for bids for the work.
