 "Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Legisla- ture of the Territory of Hawaii:
 "Whereas, the Act of Congress, ap- proved April 30, 1900, entitled 'An Act to provide a government for the Terri- tory of Hawaii,' provides in Section 64 thereof that the rules and regulations for holding elections set forth in Bal- low's Compilation of the Civil Laws of 1897 are continued in force, with certain changes and modifications made neces- sary by annexation, and therein set forth; and
 "Whereas, by reason of the premises, it is impossible for the Legislature of the Territory of Hawaii to make alter- ations or amendments in said rules and regulations; and
 "Whereas, said rules and regulations were made by authority of law under the Republic of Hawaii in the year 1891, under political conditions which no longer exist; and
 "Whereas, it is the desire of all poli- tical parties and citizens of this Terri- tory that the improvements which progress requires in the various meth- ods of protecting the ballot and insur- ing an honest vote should be adopted.
