Togo's Victory Ranks With Dewey's

(Associated Press Cable to The Star.)

TOKIO, May 29.—The Japanese fleet is undamaged. The following Russian ships have been sunk: Borodino, battleship. Emperor Alexander III, battleship. Admiral Oushakoff, coast defence battleship. Admiral Nakhimoff, armored cruiser. Dimitri Donskoi, armored cruiser. Vladimir Monomachi, armored cruiser. Svetlana, protected cruiser. Jamtchug, protected cruiser. Irtutsh (?), probably the Isumlud, protected cruiser. Kamtschatka, repair ship. The following have been captured by the Japanese: Orel, battleship. Nikolai I, battleship. Sissol Veliky, battleship. Admiral Serlavin, coast defence battleship. General Admiral Apraxine, coast defence battleship. The Russian Flagship was seriously damaged. Rojestvensky apparently escaped.

The pursuit by the Japanese is continuing. ST. PETERSBURG, May 29.—Nothing official has been received here. ST. PETERSBURG, May 29.—The deepest gloom prevails. It is believed that Rojestvensky sent a portion of his fleet to the other side of Japan en route to Vladivostok, reserving his effective ships for the battle.

Russia Must Put Forth Peace Proposals

LONDON, May 29.—Baron Hayashi, Japanese Ambassador, declares that Russia must propose peace to Japan. The continuance of the war means, he says, that Vladivostok will become the second Port Arthur as the Japanese forces will at once begin to attack that fortress.

GETTING READY TO GO HOME

THE HOUSE IN WHAT IS BELIEVED ITS LAST DAY OF THE EXTRA SESSION.

The House of Representatives met at 2 o'clock this afternoon presumably for the last time this session, and listened to the reading of the Governor's message notifying it of his having signed Senate bill No. 5, the Loan Bill. The second message from the Governor dealing with the salaries bill and vetoing certain items was also read. Coelho moved deferring consideration until the action of the Senate was learned. The motion carried. Waterhouse introduced a resolution to the effect that the clerk and stenographer should be allowed 30 days under pay for preparing the journal of the House for the printers. The resolution passed. A communication from citizens of Lahaina, calling on the House to appropriate a sufficient sum for the sup-

ON THE EVE OF ADJOURNMENT

GOVERNOR SIGNS THE LOAN BILL TO ENABLE THE LEGISLATURE TO ADJOURN SPEEDILY.

There were but seven Senators present when the roll was called to order this afternoon for what promised to be the last meeting of the extra session, and so, after the call to order there was a short recess to wait for a quorum, and within a few moments the absentees came in. The President rapped for order again, and announced a message from the governor.

Wilder Company To Go Out Of Existence

STOCKHOLDERS RATIFY ACTION OF DIRECTORS AND DECIDE TODAY THAT THE OLD COMPANY WILL GO OUT OF EXISTENCE—TRANSFER OF PROPERTY AND GOOD WILL WILL BE EFFECTED BY JULY 1.—TERRITORIAL TREASURER'S CONSENT NECESSARY.

The consolidation of the Wilder S. S. Company and Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company was finally effected this morning at a special meeting of the stockholders of the former concern. The action of the stockholders was unanimous there being 4,650 shares out of the total of 5,000, present and voting in favor of the measure.

According to the terms of the resolution which was passed, the Wilder Company decided to sell its property, good will and every thing to the Inter-Island Steam Navigation for $750,000 in stock of the Inter-Island Company. The action of the stockholders was in reality a ratification of the action of the directors of the company in entering into the agreement to sell to the other com-
