GENERAL LEONARD WOOD COMING

Major-General Leonard Wood will arrive in Honolulu on the Mancharia from Manila, on his way to the mainland. General Wood has been given leave of absence for two months, partly owing to ill-health, and partly to go to Washington and have a talk with the powers there over the Philippine situation. General Wood began his present career as colonel of the Rough Riders, with Roosevelt as Lieut-Colonel.

THE FRED BUTLER RECITAL.

Tickets are selling well for the Butler recital Tuesday night. The churches of the city are backing this concert. It is believed that there will be but few seats left unoccupied. Everytime Mr. Butler is heard the enthusiasm grows. That can rarely be said of a singer in Honolulu.

Miss Ramus will render two violin numbers and Miss Maud Kinney, but recently returned from her studies abroad, will be heard by the general public for the first time.

When you feel that usual attack of Spring fever coming on, don't punish yourself with unpleasant medicines, just order a case of Rainier Beer and be comfortable.
