FINANCING A DITCH

BIG MORTGAGE BY COL. SAM PARKER TO SECURE PAYMENT OF MONEY FOR THE DITCH.

The final financing of the Kohala Ditch proposition has been completed by a mortgage now on file in the Registrar's office in this city from Col. Samuel Parker, by his trustee Fred Wundenberg, and himself to his wife Mrs. Abigail K. Campbell-Parker. The mortgage covers practically the entire property of Col. Parker.

The document specifies that it is given for the purpose of guaranteeing payment by the Kohala Ditch Company to the Anglo-California Bank, Ltd., a sum not to exceed $300,000, and also to secure payment of a note for $37,500 payable to the Ban Kof Hawaii, made by Col. Parker himself. Interest is at 6 per cent.

The schedule of lands, leases and other properties, real and personal, which are attached to the mortgage make it one of the longest documents recorded for some time past. It covers all property of Colonel Parker's in Hawaii, Maui and Oahu, freeholds, leases and live stock, excepting the live stock on the Humuula ranch.

There is no specified date for the discharge of the mortgage, the money being advanced at irregular intervals, as needed.

It has been practically settled that Sam Johnson will be made county road supervisor. The supervisors will be able to secure his services for $50 a month so he will attend to county work in addition to his duties as Territorial road supervisor. There is a great deal of complaining among the party men over this action, for charges are made that Johnson was not loyal to the ticket in the county election.

The stories which were awarded prizes in the Kiloana Art League contest were read at a meeting of the League yesterday afternoon. The reader was Philip H. Dodge. The story awarded the first prize was written by Miss Rhoda Green and was entitled "Caroline." The second was by Miss Vancouver, entitled "As the Day Follows the Night."

CHASING THE DOLLAR

is a possibility that subpoenas may be issued by the wholesale for Japanese laborers who are alleged to have been induced by the defendants or their runners to go to the mainland. In case several hundred people should be summoned that would make quite a material reduction in the number of people aboard the vessel, and a delay in her departure might ensue.

The tax office is also after the Japanese and Koreans departing by the steamer. Today when the crowd began to go aboard the vessel they found two representatives from the tax office at the foot of the gangway. Every person was met with a demand for his personal tax receipt. Some of the people had them and others did not. Those who could produce the necessary receipt were permitted to go aboard, but those who could not had to pay $5.50 personal tax each before being permitted to go aboard the vessel. Some of the Japanese borrowed tax receipts from other Japs and changed the names. This trick did not work, however, and threats of arrest caused them to desist.

Collector Stackable was at the vessel today to inspect her life saving appliances. A number of new life preservers were shipped down here for the vessel some weeks ago. She carries four boats under ordinary circumstances and had six extra boats, some of them from the S. S. Centennial. Two of the extra boats are not thought to be in proper condition, but the Collector was assured that repairs would be made to them. There are no davits for six of the life boats. More boats may be purchased. The vessel carries only two life rafts.

Although the vessel arrived yesterday afternoon she had not entered at the custom house up to noon today, so the Collector did not at that time know anything official regarding the destination or time of departure of the vessel. However the matter will not doubt be settled this afternoon or tomorrow. She is scheduled to sail at 3 p. m. tomorrow from the Channel wharf for Victoria and Vancouver.

ATTEMPTED ARSON CHARGED.

"ALABAMA" TOMORROW NIGHT

THE OPERA HOUSE WILL PRESENT A SCENE OF GAITY—EVERYTHING IN READINESS.

These are busy days indeed for the young ladies of the Kunalu Rowing club for every member is doing all in her power to make the performance of "Alabama" at the Opera House tomorrow night an unqualified success.

The entertainment imports much for the club for two full houses will mean that the fund for building a new boat-house will be large enough for the architects to go immediately to work.

The young ladies of the club will officiate as ushers and very charming they will look, clad in white and wearing natty headgear caught up with miniature oars and trimmed with club colors.

Certain of the club members will have charge of the disposal of programs and it is anticipated that there will be a record demand for these souvenirs of what will be an unique event in the theatrical history of the islands.

In view of the great aquatic contests of next week the presence of the members of the Healan and Myrtle boat clubs in boxes will be noteworthy. Whichever triumphs at Pearl Harbor on Tuesday the Crimson and Blue will be fold in fold tomorrow night.

Rehearsals are proceeding as satisfactorily as could possibly be wished and there is no doubt that the talented cast will produce "Alabama" in a thoroughly finished manner.

Tickets may be exchanged at Wall, Nichols Co., and are obtainable of patronesses, and members of the Kunalu Rowing Club.

IMMIGRATION BOARD STARTS

WILL HOLD A MEETING THIS AFTERNOON WITH U. S. COMMISSIONER SARGENT.

The Territorial Board of Immigration of which Acting Governor Atkinson is the chairman, is to hold a meeting this afternoon at four o'clock, with United States Immigration Commissioner Sargent. It will be the first meeting yet held with Atkinson, who is chairman, and will be devoted to a discussion of plans for work. As a result of his investigation and discussions in Washington, Atkinson will have some suggestions to make, and Sargent will give the board some advice.

The meeting is the inauguration of the practical work of the Immigration board, and may lead to results of vast importance, as the board will take up the matter of how to encourage immigration to Hawaii and what class of immigrants to seek.

FOR THE GLORIOUS FOURTH.

The committee which arranged last year's Fourth of July celebration will be in session this afternoon at the capitol with Col. Jones in the chair. It is expected that the form of the day's proceedings will follow closely along the lines of last year as there will be no very large sum available for the purpose of an elaborate celebration. There will probably be a parade and literary exercises in the capitol grounds.

THE GOVERNOR RECONSIDERING

CARTER SAYS HE IS NOT SURE ABOUT WHAT COURSE HE WILL TAKE.

The following interview with Governor Carter appeared in this morning's Advertiser.

"I am not sure what I will do. I am undecided. If, as my friends say, I am not myself, if I am not well it may be that after I have had a rest I may see things differently—and then, again, it may be that I will not. At present, it still clings to me that I have taken the proper course. Certainly, if it should come to a question of holding the backing of the President of the United States as against approval here, I would strive to stand with the President.

"But I must admit that the course and the arguments of the people here have swept some of my props from under me. They have shaken me. They have made me come to see that perhaps things I had taken for lines of cleavage between myself and the people need not of necessity develop into chasms.

"But I do not know. I do not know where I am at."

The expression "I do not know where I am at," is a paraphrase of a famous Congressional saying. The governor used it in reply to a direct question as to whether he would remain in office if asked by the President to do so.
