DEPARTMENT HEADS FURNISHING BONDS

ACTING GOVERNOR ATKINSON CALLING FOR BONDS AS REQUIRED BY THE NEW LAW.

Bonds for Territorial officials are being taken by Acting Governor Atkinson, in accordance with the new law which requires such bonds. The law was passed in the last session of the legislature, and provides that the governor of the Territory shall settle the amount of the bonds, provided that no bond for a head of a department shall be for less than ten thousand dollars, and no bond shall exceed the greatest amount of money an official giving bond shall have had in his possession at one time during the year previous to the date of the bond.

Under these provisions the acting governor fixed the bonds of Surveyor Wall and Attorney General Andrews at $10,000, and each produced a bond of the Pacific Surety Company for that sum. Bond for $15,000 were furnished as asked for by President Pinkham of the Board of Health and Superintendent of Public Instruction Davis.

The bonds as furnished have been submitted by the acting governor Attorney General Andrews, for his approval of the form thereof.

The bond of Superintendent of Public Works Holloway was fixed at $25,000, but Holloway had a kick to make, on the ground that he never has more than six or seven thousand dollars of public money in his hands at once. The amount of Pratt's bond and Campbell's bond are also unsettled as yet.

The law allows the governor to require bonds of other Territorial officers and under this provision a number of subordinates in the departments are being required to furnish bonds. Those who have already filed bonds are Secretary Rodgers of the Board of Education, $5,000 and Miss Daisy Smith of the Education office, $2,000.

SETTLES MANY EJECTMENT SUITS

JUDGE LINDSAY GIVES A VERY IMPORTANT DECISION IN MAUI LAND CASE.

Judge Lindsay this morning gave a decision which if it is sustained will finally settle a number of ejectment suits. He granted a non-suit in the case of W. R. Kaleoekoi vs. the Wailuku Sugar Company, a case which has been on trial for about three weeks, before a jury. The plaintiff closed yesterday afternoon, and argument was had over a motion to direct a verdict for defendant. The motion was granted this morning. The land involved is a part of Wailuku Plantation and is worth about $50,000.

The title was claimed by plaintiff, as in a number of pending cases in Honolulu and elsewhere, through C. Kanihiki, who died in 1875, leaving no child, wife, brother, sister, father or mother. Under these circumstances it was claimed that his estate reverted to his grandparents, two of whom were living, and it is by descent from his grandparents through various families that all sorts of claims have been made. Many of them have been successful and the estates have been turned over and settled long ago, but if the decision now given is correct these awards were error.

Judge Lindsay's decision is based on the fact that the law of Hawaii, the statute of 1859, as it stood at the time of Kanihiki's death, did not make grand parents heirs in case their grand children left no nearer heirs. The laws remained in such shape until 1877, when it was changed to its present form, under which it is admitted that the Kanihiki claimants would have good cases. C. W. Ashford appeared for plaintiff and noted an appeal. Kinney, McClanahan and Cooper are attorneys for defendants.

DISMISS BOYCOTT SUIT.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 30.—J. D. Spreckels Brothers & Company yesterday dismissed their suit against the Riggers and Stevedores' Union to enjoin them against boycotting. The suit was dismissed because the Union disavowed the action of individuals and ordered them to return to work.

No Count Of Honolulu In Hawaiian Records

SEARCH OF THE RECORDS OF THE REGISTRAR'S OFFICE WHERE THOMAS BROWN WAS REGISTRAR FOR MANY, MANY YEARS, FAILS TO DISCLOSE ANY RECORD THAT WOULD THROW LIGHT ON THE STRANGE INQUIRY FROM VERONA.

The gentleman of Verona who calls himself D. Montessor and who claims to be Count of Honolulu in succession to his father "Governor General" Maccarri Montessor, has puzzled the Honolulu officials with the letter which he sent to Acting Governor Atkinson. It seems strange that for all these years there has been a "Count of Honolulu" residing in Honolulu and nobody here knew nothing about it, but such is the fact, that is, that nobody knew anything about it. Not only that, but the very name of Maccarri Montessor does not appear on any of the public records here, so far as a search through all but the police records showed this morning.

According to the communication from the present "Count of Honolulu" now in Verona, his documents bear the signature of one Thomas Brown and it is interesting to note that Thomas Brown was once registrar of conveyances in Honolulu. His signature was found attached to hundreds of records in the Registry Office and with the offer of finding a grant of any description to Maccarri Montessor, a Star representative went through the records from 1845 to 1888 to day. The name did not appear at all.

"The whole business is easily understood by any one who remembers Mo-

BROUGHT TROOPS FOR HONOLULU

TRANSPORT LOGAN ARRIVED THIS MORNING AHEAD OF TIME WITH INFANTRY COMPANIES.

There was quite a surprise this morning when the transport Logan from San Francisco, made her appearance. She was not expected until tomorrow morning and when a transport was sighted, the first thought was that the vessel was the Sherman from the Orient. The Logan left San Francisco June 29 and came down in record time, her run being in about 6 days and 17 1/2 hours. The voyage was uneventful the weather being fine throughout the entire run.

Particular interest was attached to the arrival of the vessel as she brought the new military companies to be stationed at Camp McKinley. They are Companies L and M of the Tenth Infantry and number 121 enlisted men. The officers are Major R. V. Van Vleet, Captain Rosa L. Bush, Captain J. B. Schoeffel, Lieut. James S. Young, Jr., Lieut. J. G. Hannah, Lieut. J. B. Schuman, Lieut. H. M. Cooper and Lieut. M. M. Garrett. The companies have been stationed at the Presidio, San Francisco since 1903.

Lieut. Clarence K. Lyman the first of the cadets from the Hawaiian Islands to become an officer in the United States army, arrived on a visit to his parents.

Although the vessel sailed between mail boats, she was not given the mail, as the postal authorities evidently expected the S. S. Doric due this afternoon from San Francisco, to beat the Logan to port.

As through passengers to the Phil-expired the lease went to Jesse Makainai. The latter gave permission to the men to take fish from the pond but the Chinese claims to have secured a renewal of the lease. The arrests were made so as to bring the case into court.

TO GET SETTLERS

"1st. What are the requirements of the plantations for labor, such as Italians from the north of Italy, or Portuguese from the Azores and Madeira Islands; that is, how many of those laborers could at the present time be assured employment on the plantations?"

"2nd. What inducements is your association prepared to offer such laborers in the way of a permanent home on the plantations?"

"3rd. What wages are you prepared to offer to them, and what other inducements can you offer, such as water, fuel and medical attendance?"

"It is the intention of this Board to send some suitable person to the eastern part of the United States and go to the mainland of Europe in order to make careful investigations as to the possibility of getting laborers from those sources. Such a person, under our Board of Immigration law, would be empowered to advertise extensively, the advantages of this Territory and the opportunities offered to intending emigrants. For that reason we should like to receive a definite reply to the above questions before sending any agent to Italy or to any other part of the mainland of Europe.

"We are, however, in favor of taking immediate action in regard to sending some one to the Eastern part of the United States to make a careful study of the situation there and to find out whether emigrants who reach the eastern ports would make suitable laborers for these islands, and also to ascertain whether there would be any practical method for transporting them.

"As you are aware, the Legislature has made no appropriation for the carrying out of the work of this board and we are obliged to depend on subscriptions. If you approve of our plan for sending some representative of this board to the eastern states, as suggested by Commissioner Sargent, then we would respectfully request from you a contribution sufficient to enable us to carry out that purpose.

"Yours respectfully,

"A. L. C. ATKINSON,

"Superintendent of the Board of Immigration."

The Board met at 11 o'clock in the executive chambers, and the correspondence was at once taken up. Commissioner Carden expressed doubts as to whether $2,000 was enough to accomplish anything in the way of bringing laborers here.

A motion was made by J. P. Cooke that the superintendent be authorized to ascertain whether E. E. Paxton will represent the commission in the United States and America as an agent to investigate the possibilities in the way of securing laborers or immigrants.

E. D. Tenney, in reply to Carden's remark as to the amount, stated that all that was necessary was to make an investigation and not to bring laborers back.

"Two thousand dollars is enough to send a man for a month or two," said Atkinson. "He must be free to use his judgment and investigate and the better the man the better the results we shall have."

Tenney suggested that if Paxton would consent to go a better man could not be secured. He thought Paxton would be able to do much better if he were a member of the board. "I propose to resign and would suggest that Mr. Paxton be appointed in my place," said Tenney.

Atkinson said that the Board regarded Tenney's judgment as very valuable, and Cooke remarked that he might have to resign soon and that Paxton might be named in his stead. "I may be fired and perhaps he will be Secretary of the Territory," said Atkinson. Atkinson said the discussion was out of order, and the expense discussion was resumed.

Tenney said that $2,000 ought to be enough, that the agent was "not going to buy anybody," and it was agreed amid laughter that there was no lobbying to be done. The motion authorizing Atkinson to act for the board in securing the services of Paxton if possible was unanimously adopted.

J. P. Cooke said that the Planters' committee was a live one and would get to work at once, though it might take some time to gather the information required from it.

The matter of an assistant secretary was brought up, and the name of C. R. Buckland was mentioned, but no definite action was taken.

TECHNICAL ARRESTS OVER POND LEASE

SIX PEOPLE TAKEN INTO CUSTODY SO THAT MATTER CAN BE SETTLED.

Six well known Hawaiians were taken into custody this morning by Detective David Kapas on complaint of Wong Kui who charges them with unlawfully taking fish from a pond in Kailua. All of the men were released by order of Sheriff Brown to appear in court. They were D. Kuphea, W. H. Kakuawai, Launahale, Abener Wiliki, J. Kapaoa and John Samoa. The arrest of the men was a technical affair and was done to determine the matter of a lease to the particular fish pond. The Chinese leased the pond and his lease expired last June. According to the terms of the lease, so it is claimed when his term of rental
