HIGH KOREAN OFFICIAL HERE

WILL VISIT ALL OF THE ISLANDS

HIGHLY EDUCATED KOREAN FOREIGN OFFICE ATTACHE WILL INVESTIGATE LABOR CONDITIONS IN HAWAII BEFORE CONTINUING HIS JOURNEY TO MEXICO TO ATTEND TO GRIEVANCES OF HIS COUNTRYMEN THERE—WILL NOT DISCUSS THE WAR.

Yun Teh Ho, or as he puts it in English "T. H. Yun" an attache of the Foreign Office of the Korean Empire, was a passenger by the Manchuria today from the Orient and although such was not his original intention, he intends to stay here for some weeks studying labor conditions as they affect his fellow countrymen. Yun Teh Ho is a special commissioner from the Korean Government to investigate certain stories of ill-usage of Korean laborers in Mexico. Not unnaturally the word was passed round that he was also to enquire into some such condition of affairs existing here, but to this rumor he put an effectual denial when he was seen by the Star this morning. He has taken rooms at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel whither he was escorted by F. M. Swanzey, president of the Planters' Association, who was his fellow passenger on the Manchuria. He is a slightly built man, this high caste Korean, with a face of great intelligence and a thorough grasp of international affairs as well as those of his own country. He speaks English with only a slight Oriental accent.

TERRIBLE EARTHQUAKE IN CALABRIA

(Associated Press Cable to The Star).

ROME, Italy, September 8.—An earthquake of tremendous proportions is reported from the Calabria district. The disaster is a terrible one and the known dead already number 347. There are a large number of injured. Entire villages were devastated.

The province of Calabria, Italy, is the "toe" of the boot which Italy resembles. It is formed from a backbone of volcanic mountains and is separated from Sicily, on which is the active volcano of Etna, only by the narrow Strait of Messina. On the Calabria side of the Strait is the village of Scilla which takes its name from the legendary Scylla while the equally legendary Charybdis was supposed to be on the Sicilian shore. Calabria has suffered frequently from disasters by earthquakes.

Received at Honolulu 10 a. m. Sept. 8. Consul-General Saito, Honolulu.

"A section of the local martial law was declared at Tokio and its immediate vicinity on the 8th inst. This is simply a precautionary measure against any manifestation of idle, vicious and irresponsible persons, who might incite others to disturb peaceful citizens, and also against any probable disturbances among the general public, which might be caused by sensational opinions of the worse sort of newspapers. "A disorderly matter of small importance occurred last night, but owing to the vigilance of the authorities, it was of no consequence." HIOKI.

AUTOMOBILE TO CUT SUGAR CANE CROP

HONOLULU MAN INVENTS A MACHINE WHICH MAY REVOLUTIONIZE SUGAR HARVESTING.

By the next Alameda there will arrive a machine for cane cutting which, it is expected, will tend to revolutionize the harvesting of Hawaii's main product. The new cane cutter represents the work of many years on the part of Henry G. Ginnac, an employe of the Honolulu Iron Works who has now left that employ to devote himself to the development of his invention.

It was reported from Washington D. C., that he had sold half of his interest in the invention to G. P. Thielan of this city and Thielan admitted this morning that he had an interest in the concern.

"Yes, it is an invention in which I have the greatest faith," said Thielan. "It was invented by Ginnac and has been perfected in San Francisco and will be down here by the next Alameda. Until the machine comes I prefer to say nothing about it for I think it will speak for itself when it gets to work."

From other sources it was learned that the Ginnac invention is of the automobile style, electrically impelled, and that its inventor is certain that it will simply walk through a cane field cutting as it goes. If the hopes of the inventor are realized, there is no saying how far the idea may be develop-

WATERING STOCK IS NOT A FRAUD

FRANK ARGUMENT IN THE SUIT AGAINST THE HONOLULU CLAY COMPANY.

If the stock of the Honolulu Clay Company was watered, there was nothing wrong in it under the laws of Hawaii, is one of the contentions made in a brief filed this morning in support of the demurrer filed by defendants in the case of C. R. Hemenway, trustee, against stockholders of the company. Hemenway is suing as trustee in bankruptcy, to compel payments from stockholders who are alleged to have been delinquent on payments on stock, and he charges that in the organization of the concern there were gross over-valuations of its property holdings. The defendants sued are the Honolulu Clay Company, F. J. Long, Frank Hustace, F. J. Amweg, O. L. Sorenson, J. B. Rohrer, J. R. Burns, C. H. Cooke, F. C. Atherton, W. Gehring, F. D. Damon, M. L. Smith, H. L. Kerr, C. G. Ellison, F. L. Litherland, T. McCants Stewart, W. R. Castle, Jr., and A. N. Campbell. The argument in support of the demurrer likens the company, which was organized to dig for clay, to a mining corporation digging for valuable metal, and says its property is incapable of accurate valuation. "If the stock was watered," says the brief, "there is nothing wrong in it."

Townsend Says Filipinos Are Eager For Education

SCHOOLS OF THE ARCHIPELAGO NOW CROWDED TO THE CAPACITY OF THE GOVERNMENT TO MAINTAIN—AMERICAN TEACHERS HAVE FOR THE MOST PART ACCOMPLISHED EXCELLENT RESULTS—TOWNSEND ON MANCHURIA WITH STUDENTS.

Among the through passengers by the S. S. Manchuria is H. S. Townsend who was formerly at the head of Hawaii's schools, but left these islands to become a division superintendent in the Philippines. This is the first visit that he has paid to Honolulu since he left here over four years ago and he was met at the steamer by a number of former friends. He looks the picture of health and is well satisfied to remain in the Philippines. "In fact," said Townsend this morning, "I should be very disappointed if I thought that I were not going to return to the Philippines. I have been division superintendent of Samar," he continued, "but am not attached to any division now. At the present I am taking to the United States forty Filipino youths who are to be entered in various colleges. They are being educated at the expense of the Philippine government and they enter into a four-years' contract with the government. They are, as one of them expressed it, 'to study hard and not be too bad'; during their term at school. After concluding that work they will go back and serve four years in the civil government at their home. The majority of the students will enter institutions in California, but some will go east. "Affairs are quieting down in the Philippines now, with the exception of the Island of Samar. There has been more or less trouble, but it is not directed so much against the Americans. The Taft Party Honored Captain Saunders Of Manchuria

GAVE THE MASTER OF THE VESSEL, WHO HAD CONTRIBUTED TO THEIR ENJOYMENT DURING THE TRIP, THREE MAGNIFICENT PRESENTS AND ALSO GOT UP A HIGHLY COMPLIMENTARY SET OF RESOLUTIONS IN HIS HONOR.

Those people in the Taft Party are like Father O'Flynn, they have such a way with them. They know how to return courtesies and they can do it in a gratifying way with gifts that always possess particular significance both from their value as well as the sentiment attached to them. Captain W. Saunders the master of the S. S. Manchuria which took the crowd out to the Philippines, was the recipient of a very graceful tribute from the Taft party for the courtesy and attention showed the party during the trip aboard his vessel.

The trip was the most notable of the kind in the history of the United States and Captain Saunders showed himself in every way worthy to play the host on the biggest vessel of the Pacific Mail fleet. The presentation took place on August 4 the night before the vessel got into Manila.

Secretary Taft, Miss Alice Roosevelt and the entire crowd were in the music room when Captain Saunders was summoned. When he got in the skipper realized that they had something in store for him. And they had. Secretary Taft made the presentation speech on behalf of the party, three elegant gifts. There was a Satsuma ware tea set for Mrs. Saunders, a heavy solid silver cigar box for Captain Saunders and the daintiest tortoise shell jewel box for their daughter. The presents were costly and the Satsuma set being such that would make the heart of a collector of rare Japanese ware glow with enthusiasm. The set is over 100 years old. The crowd had drafted a set of highly complimentary resolutions in expression of their appreciation of the services and kindness of Captain Saunders. The resolutions were not engrossed in time to give to Captain Saunders before the vessel left Manila on the homeward run but he will get them the next trip. Captain Saunders thanked the donors for the handsome gifts.

The Taft party will return by the S. S. Korea which goes direct from Yokohama to San Francisco. A few of the party will however remain in the Philippines and return to America by way of the Suez Canal. Secretary Taft and Miss Roosevelt will return by the Korea.
