WHO WILL PAY FOR THE WINDOW?

AGENT FOR THE MENDONCA BUILDING THINKS THAT POLICE WERE NEEDLESSLY ROUGH.

There is trouble between the agent for the Mendonca building, at the corner of Hotel and Smith streets, and the sheriff's office. On Saturday evening the police raided the place and claim to have found a number of Chinese gambling in the upper rooms. The stairway to the gambling room was barred. The police in entering, it is claimed, not only burst in the front door but also descended through a sky light and, worst of all, smashed an $50 plate glass window quite unnecessarily.

An examination of the building as it is today indicates that there was no necessity for smashing the window, though, of course it may have been done in the excitement incident to the conduct of the raid.

C. Bolte, who is agent for the place, stated that the present tenant a Chinaman, only rented it the day before the police descended. He thought that the county should make good for the window.

"I told Bolte that I thought the window had been broken by officers in pursuit of their duty even though it may possibly not have been absolutely necessary to get in that way" said Sheriff Brown. "I suggested that if he had any complaint he should lodge it with the Supervisors and this he has done."

BERTELMANN CASE CRISIS

PROSECUTION AND DEFENSE CONTENDING OVER A RULING OF VITAL IMPORTANCE.

The crucial point in the Bertelman trial before Judge Dole was reached yesterday when United States Attorney Dunne called witnesses to prove other alleged efforts of Bertelman to collect money by calling himself a federal officer, aside from the one at issue in the case. Strauss objected, claiming that other transactions could not legally go in evidence, and the resulting argument lasted most of the morning, as well as much of the noon hour.

During Bertelman's trials last term, Judge Dole ruled out such evidence, but he stated this morning that he was prepared to hear further argument, and would not regard his last ruling as a precedent.
