Warm, Debilitating Weather
Many people, after a long spell of oppressive heat, suffer from lassitude, loss of spirits, and a general "run down" feeling.
They need a course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, a medicine which has revived and restored to active life and health thousands of such sufferers. A lady who recently returned to England from South Africa writes concerning this "wonderful medicine":
"While in Cape Town the past summer I suffered greatly from the long-continued heat. I was completely worn out; my blood seemed to become as thin as water, and I lost all energy and interest in life. My friends recommended

There are many imitation Sarsaparillas.

NEW NAME FOR DAKOTA.
"I think it is a shame," said the chronic kicker, "that so many states in the Union should have been given those outlandish Indian names."
"Yes," replied Brightley; "like Dakota, for instance. Now, 'Leisure' would be a better name for that state."
"Leisure?"
"Yes. So many people who marry in haste repent there."—Pittsburg Leader.

OPIUM AND CHINESE STUDENTS.
In the Pekin Times appeared the following: "Chih Jung-heng, the literary chancellor of Hunan, has addressed an eloquent memorial to the throne asking that the habit of opium smoking be stopped among students. He points out that China's future depends upon a high state of efficiency, both physically and mentally, and nothing is more calculated to deteriorate both mind and body than this baneful drug. The imperial regulations with regard to schools urge the abolition of all forms of self-indulgence, and the memorialists finds that in those districts where the students indulge in this habit of opium smoking the most unsatisfactory results have attended the examinations.
"Proclamations have been issued and much personal advice given in regard to opium, but these are useless, and it has been decided that nothing will have any effect unless the students are given to understand that no degrees will be bestowed on those who smoke opium. Opium is at the root of all China's weakness and corruption, and before China can hope to rid of the evil she must check the habit among her young men.
"Chih Jung-heng therefore urges that the literary chancellors in each province be directed to enforce this rule strictly so that the holder of one degree will be debarred from a second so long as he sticks to the opium habit. The memorial is being considered."

A CURIOUS JURY.
George Holcomb, former Treasurer of Everett, Wash., was acquitted on his trial for embezzling $11,136, although he had confessed the crime. The jury based its verdict on the theory that inasmuch as a surety company had made good the shortage, the city had lost nothing by Mr. Holcomb.

WAILUKU, December 6.—John Kini, a respected Hawaiian in this district who has been road supervisor for several years past, died at his home on last Thursday evening from the effects of pneumonia. Kini took sick several weeks ago, and has been gradually sinking until the end arrived on Thursday. With the death of John Kini, Wailuku feels a great loss in a Hawaiian who was highly esteemed. John took active part in politics, he being a staunch Republican, and also assisted other associations organized for public benefit. He has been in the employ of the road department for over twenty years, and took very much interest in his duties. He was a faithful worker, and rarely grumbled. Only recently with the inauguration of county government, his salary was cut by the Supervisors, but he was faithful and appreciated the reason of their action. Mrs. Kini who is the only one of the family surviving him, has been in poor health for a long time.
