CORNER FORT AND BERETANIA STREETS

ORDERED TO MOVE OUT

CAMARINOS BUILDING DECLARED A FIRE TRAP AND A MENACE TO PUBLIC SAFETY, ERECTED IN DEFIANCE OF PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT'S REFUSAL OF A PERMIT—LINDSAY ORDERS OCCUPANTS TO MOVE AND TEAR IT DOWN.

A proceeding was begun by the attorney general this morning to oust the occupants of the Camarinos building at King and Alakea streets and compel the owners to tear the building down. Judge Lindsay issued an injunction against further occupation of the structure, on the ground that it was constructed in violation of law, and is a fire trap and menace to public safety. The suit is the culmination of a long standing controversy in which the public works department has been trying to enforce its rules with regard to buildings within the fire limits. The complaint filed by Deputy Attorney General Milverton sets forth that in 1899 the late D. G. Camarinos erected a high fence without having permission so to do, as required by law. Later the structure was occupied by A. R. Bindt, C. S. Marton and W. L. Peterson, defendants in the present suit. Bindt made an application last October for permission to make some additions and alterations and the permit was refused by Superintendent Holloway, on the ground that the building was a flimsy and dangerous one and the alterations proposed were not such as should be allowed under the law. Bindt, however, went ahead with his plans without a permit. It is set forth. The complaint says that the building is in the center of the business district and within the fire limits, and that it is a fire trap dangerous to all surrounding property and a menace to public safety. On presentation of the attorney general's petition, Judge Lindsay signed an order as asked for and it is up to the defendants to move out at once.

SICK KOREAN TRIED TO COMMIT SUICIDE

HANGED HIMSELF ON A LANAI AT WAIKIKI THIS MORNING—WAS SAVED BY A NATIVE MAN.

A despondent Korean tried to commit suicide this morning by hanging himself from the roof of the lanai of the Erdman residence at Waikiki. The Korean was discovered by Puahi in time to save his life. The Korean whose name is Ochinam had been employed at the Kapioian park. He had been ill for some time past and this condition made him despondent. This morning he took a small piece of rope and using an iron ring, tried to make a slip noose. One end he tied to the top of the porch and the other noose he placed about his neck. The man took many turns of the rope in the ring. The result was that the noose got caught without choking him to death. Blood was coming from his mouth and nose when the native man saw him. Puahi broke down the piece of beam from which the Korean was hanging and saved the man's life.

CASE WILL OUTLAST TERM

The case of Frank Godfrey, trustee for Thomas Metcalf, against Helen Rowland, is still on trial before Judge Robinson and a jury, and though it was begun a couple of weeks ago, it is likely to outlast the term and the year as well. The plaintiff only called a few witnesses, but the defense is calling a large number and the plaintiff will probably have a lot of rebuttal. Under the new law the case may proceed even though the term expires while it is pending, for it is provided that a case which is in progress may continue to a finish even though the expiration of a term finds it in process of trial.

DEAL CONSUMMATED.
The Wahiawa land deal by which the Tropic Fruit Company takes over the Kellogg property of 112 acres for $30,000, was closed today. The papers have been signed and registered. The deal was described by the Star yesterday. Apples will be put in at once. The police were notified and took the sick man to the police station.

CARTER GETS ANOTHER PROBLEM

CURFEW CONGRESS AS WELL AS DIVORCE CONGRESS IN WASHINGTON THIS MONTH.

Divorce Congresses are by no means the only things to which Governor Carter is invited to give his attention. As a natural follower of the divorce problem, a circular has been sent to him asking that he give attention to the plans and problems of the Boys' and Girls' National Curfew Association, which is to hold a convention in Washington and, just like the divorce agitators, also, in the same month, December 1905. The enforcement of the curfew system, says the invitation sent to Carter, notes the most important reform among the youths of the nation "since the foundation of our government." A book of curfew laws was sent to the governor with a request that he examine them and express his views on the subject.

JOBBER CAUGHT IN HIS OWN NET

POLICE INFORMERS NOW CHARGED WITH COMMITTING A CRIME HE HAD CHARGED ANOTHER.

The bitter stands an excellent chance of being bitten in the police court, provided the statements of Ah Chong, a Chinese who pleaded guilty of larceny in the second degree on Tuesday, are correct. Chong claims to have been the victim of a nasty job put up by a police informer named Wong Chau. Chong was arrested some days ago on a charge of entering the room of a Japanese woman on King street in Palama and stealing a quantity of clothing and other articles. When Chong whose profession is that of humble yet honest cobbling, was placed on the stand in the court to explain, he declared that he had been jobbed. Wong Chau, the police informer, had persuaded him to commit the robbery, he said. It seems that times had been hard with Chong, people who formerly used to wear shoes, went around in their bare feet, so there was not so much cobbling to be done. The result was that while the soles of the various shoes in town did not need repairing, Chong's stomach persisted in demanding its daily dose of food. He jumped at the chance to get some money. Chong claimed that he and Wong helped themselves to articles in the room. When these charges were made, quite a sensation was caused in the court room and the case was continued so that an investigation could be made. Chong pleaded guilty yesterday to larceny in the second degree and will be sentenced tomorrow. Wong Chau was arraigned this morning on a charge of larceny in the second degree and his case was set for trial tomorrow.

DORIC HAD A PLEASANT TRIP

ARRIVED THIS MORNING FROM ORIENT AND SAILS FOR SAN FRANCISCO THIS AFTERNOON.

After an uneventful passage from the Orient, the S. S. Coptic arrived this morning. She left Hongkong December 1 and Yokohama December 12. The first two days after leaving Yokohama were marked by rough weather, but the remainder of the trip was pleasant. The vessel has 468 tons of freight for this port and 211 Asiatic passengers and three cabin passengers for Honolulu. Among those who arrived for this port was J. A. M. Johnson of the cash register company. He returned from a business trip in the Orient. Captain Francis G. Irwin is an American army officer who stops here for a visit. Ambrose Buckley represents Dunnigan, a San Francisco hardware company. A number of officers are aboard the vessel as through passengers for San Francisco. Among them are Lieut. C. N. Barney, U.S.N., and Lieut. A. J. O'Leary of the marine corps. Ferdinand Poeschel is a Belgian railroad man who is connected with the Hankow road in China. K. Kojima is the New York manager of the Yokohama Specie Bank and is going to that place after a visit to Japan. Captain Carl Windmuller is a German army officer. Hon. Myles Pensonby is a British writer who has been at the front during the Japanese war. He is returning home. The Coptic is scheduled to depart for San Francisco at 3 p. m. today from the Hackfeld wharf.

MANCHURIA REMAINS OUTSIDE.

The local agents of the S. S. Manchuria announce that the big vessel is due tomorrow morning from San Francisco. She will remain outside of the harbor. Passengers for Honolulu will be landed at the old Kinau wharf while the through passengers will be landed at the boat landing by Brewer and Company's building.

THE BANKERS' DAUGHTER TONIGHT

BRONSON HOWARD'S GREATEST PLAY WILL BE GIVEN AT THE ORPHEUM.

The Bankers' Daughter which is probably the best of Bronson Howard's dramas is the Bühler Company's offering for the balance of the week at the Orpheum. The play requires fine scenery and stage settings which will be supplied in the usual Bühler style. The Bankers' Daughter deals with a story of love, intrigue, chivalry, and self sacrifice and teaches a beautiful lesson. The scenes are laid in American and Europe and the characters are of the upper strata of life. The story is interesting and like all of Howard's dramatizations holds the intense interest of the audience to the final drop of the curtain. The company is happily cast and a good performance can be looked forward to.

MAUI WILL BE REPRESENTED

INTEREST BEING SHOWN BY A MASS MEETING HAVING BEEN CALLED FOR THIS EVENING.

There will be a mass meeting of citizens on Maui tonight to consider the selection of a delegate to join the Oahu delegation in the trip to Washington. Dan Case came in this morning and states that public sentiment is much worked up over the matter and there seems to be no doubt that Maui will be represented. There is an idea that Dave Lindsay, now in San Francisco, will be selected as delegate. Following is the text of the letter sent out by Secretary W. W. Harris to the two Hilo mercantile bodies, to the Maui Improvement Association and to Sheriff Rice of Kaula. "At a meeting of the committee appointed by the joint meeting of the trustees of the Chamber of Commerce of Honolulu and the directors of the Merchants' Association of Honolulu, I was directed to communicate with you calling your attention to the cablegram received from Mr. Hatch in re, the action he suggested should be taken by all the islands in sending a delegation to Washington to assist the passage of the bill introduced in the House of Representatives by our Delegate, Honorable J. K. Kahanamoku, setting aside 75 per cent of Hawaii's Federal revenue for use in the construction of Federal public works and buildings in the Territory, and advising you that our committee will recommend the appointment of a commission of at least three from the island of Oahu to proceed as soon as possible to Washington at the expense of the Chamber of Commerce and the Merchants' Association of Honolulu. "This committee would urge upon you the importance of appointing a committee of one or more from your island in order that all the islands be represented. We shall send a wireless to you informing you of the personnel of the commission from Oahu as soon as they are selected, and the probable date of their departure and would be pleased to receive from you answer by wireless of result of your action."

SONOMA MAY ARRIVE TONIGHT.

The S. S. Sonoma may make port tonight from San Francisco. If she does not arrive tonight, she will arrive tomorrow morning. A large number of guests have been invited to the wedding of Jacob Martin Lee and Mary Kealahaluh Newnes, at the Roman Catholic church on Wednesday evening, December 20. As the bride has been a teacher at the Lahaina School for several years, an unusual feature was arranged for the happy occasion. It consisted of a nuptial song by a volunteer choir, chiefly composed of teachers. During the Christmas vacation, some of the Lahaina teachers will visit Honolulu. Three Japanese fishermen have been missing for nearly three weeks, and it is supposed that they were lost at sea. SAID HE WAS NOT DRUNK. William Hocpi was charged in the police court this morning with being intoxicated. He claimed that the charge was untrue and that he had simply been separating a Porto Rican and a Chinese who were fighting near the fish market yesterday when the police arrested him. The police witnesses swore that William was drunk and the court fined him $4 and costs.

THE WILL STANDS.

Judge Robinson this morning gave a decision denying the petition to revoke the probate of the will of the late Koahu. The revocation was asked on account of alleged fraud in the will.
