WORK OF THE MAUI GRAND JURY

A NUMBER OF INDICTMENTS ARE RETURNED—GAMBLING, AND MOLOKAI POLICE MATTERS.

(Special to the Hawaiian Star).
WAILUKU, Maui, March 19.—The Grand Jury on last Saturday afternoon filed its final report and were discharged for the term.

In the case of the Territory vs. Paek Seong Sick, indicted for assault with intent to commit rape, pleaded guilty to the indictment and was sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and to be imprisoned at hard labor for four years.

The case set for trial today is Territory vs. Ramon Rigo, charged with assault with a deadly weapon. Trial had found guilty. Sentence tomorrow.

The Grand Jury report is as follows:

(1). It has come to the attention of this Grand Jury that the police department on the Island of Molokai is not disciplined as it should be. It is reported that members of the police force on the Island of Molokai are often in a state of intoxication while engaged in the performance of their duties, and that, by reason of such intoxication, serious mistakes are made and innocent people are put to inconvenience, discomfort and unnecessary hardship; that arrests are made without proper investigation by the police officials and in many cases innocent persons are detained in the jails when efficiency and strict attention to duty on the part of the officers would have prevented such mistakes. This Grand Jury desires to call this matter to the attention of the Sheriff of the County of Maui, with a recommendation that he make a careful investigation of the conduct of the officers of his department on the Island of Molokai; and that he remove from the service such officers as are unfit for the trust reposed in them.

(2) This Grand Jury recommends that an investigation be made by the police department of this County with reference to violations of the liquor laws by retail liquor dealers. It has come to the attention of this Grand Jury that certain retail dealers are in the habit of selling in larger quantities than is permitted by their licenses. That certain dealers, while holding retail licenses only, are engaged in the wholesale liquor trade. These violations of the law are not committed openly, and while no evidence sufficient to support indictments, has been secured by this Grand Jury, yet this Grand Jury has information sufficient to state that a careful investigation by the police authorities of this County will develop that such violations are of frequent occurrence. The retail liquor dealers should be required to keep strictly within the limits of their licenses, so that those who are engaged in the wholesale liquor trade shall receive the protection intended by the liquor laws.

(3). This Grand Jury also desires to call the attention of the Sheriff of the County of Maui to complaints that are made by plantation officials in regard to the presence and operations of professional gamblers in the plantation camps. It is reported to this Grand Jury that the plantation camps are visited on gay-days by Japanese professional gamblers, who bring intoxicating liquor with them into the camps; that they supply the laborers with liquor without charge, and when the laborers are in an intoxicated condition, fleece them of their hard earned wages. These conditions tend to create unrest and disorder among the laborers; the good order and well-being of the labor conditions are menaced and the plantation officials are put to great annoyance and inconvenience in their attempt to maintain order in the plantation camps. The members of this Grand Jury believe that if frequent raids were made by the police officials on these professional gamblers, the evil could be done away with.

(4). It has been reported by members of this Grand Jury that certain flymen and hackmen in Wailuku district are working horses under such conditions as would constitute cruelty to animals. We believe that, by the exercise of diligence on the part of the hack inspector and the police authorities, this evil could be abated without the necessity of criminal prosecutions. This Grand Jury has not thought fit to indict persons for this offence as the evil can be more easily dealt with, if prosecutions are necessary, by criminal proceedings in the District courts.

(5) We recommend to the Board of Supervisors of the County of Maui that the Kalia road, which runs from the makai end of Main street towards Wailuku in the District of Wailuku be improved by the removal of the trees and shrubs which have encroached on the road-bed, and by the widening and grading of the same. As the Wailuku Plantation railway runs parallel with this road and as teams are often frightened by passing locomotives, the danger of serious accidents would be lessened by the improvements we have suggested.

(6). This Grand Jury begs leave to report that it has investigated such criminal cases as have been brought before it by the Deputy Attorney General, in attendance, and that true bills have been found and indictments returned and filed with the court in the following cases:

1. Territory of Hawaii vs. Louis Rosario, assault being armed with a dangerous weapon with intent to commit murder.
2. Territory of Hawaii vs. Ramon Rigo, assault being armed with a dangerous weapon with intent to commit murder.
3. Territory of Hawaii vs. Cecilia Rodrigues, assault and battery with a weapon obviously and imminently dangerous to life.
4. Territory of Hawaii vs. Thomas Planica, child stealing.
5. Territory of Hawaii vs. Paek Yeong Sick, assault with intent to commit rape.
6. Territory of Hawaii vs. Ah Kul, burglary in the first degree.
7. Territory of Hawaii vs. In Tal, adultery.
8. Territory of Hawaii vs. Oanaewa Amama, adultery.
9. Territory of Hawaii vs. Peter Hallemano, felonious branding.

WEEKLY CROP BULLETIN

For the Week Ending March 17, 1906.
Local Office, U. S. Weather Bureau.
Honolulu, T. H., March 19, 1906.

GENERAL SUMMARY.

The week was marked by partly cloudy weather and a continuation of temperatures somewhat below the normal, the night during the latter portion of the week being especially cool. Light variable winds and fair weather early in the week were followed on the 15th and 16th by strong southerly to westerly winds attended by showery and unsettled weather in practically all sections of the group. Light thunderstorms accompanied the rain in many localities.

In the northern portion of the Hilo district of Hawaii, the rainfall was quite heavy, but in other sections of the big island the showers were rather light. In Maui, heavy local rains occurred in the vicinity of Nahiku, but the week was quite dry in all other sections. Fairly heavy showers fell in both leeward and windward Oahu, and in eastern and northern Kauai. Snow fell on the summit of Haleakala mountain, in Maui, on the 13th.

ENGINEERS MEET.

About forty members of the Honolulu Engineering Association were present at the regular meeting. New officers were elected as follows: Chairman, Edward C. Brown; vice chairman, C. G. Ballentyne; treasurer, T. A. Petrie; secretary, E. G. Keen; directors, Charles Muegrave, W. E. Wall, W. Weinrich. T. Clive Davies and L. E. Pinkham were admitted to membership. The association changed its meeting night from the third Monday to the second Thursday of each month. Edward Cannon of Portland, Oregon, addressed the association on subject of electrical power in the Hawaiian Islands.
