THE FALL OF ELIJAH DOWIE

THE "FIRST APOSTLE" ACCUSED OF PRETTY NEARLY ALL THE SINS OF THE DECALOGUE, AND IN ADDITION OF HAVING TAUGHT POLYGAMY—HOW HIS DEPOSITION WAS BROUGHT ABOUT—MEN WITH WHOM HE HAS QUARRELED.

CHICAGO, April 2.—The formal announcement of the overthrow of John Alexander Dowie was made today by Overseer John G. Speicher, who presided over a meeting of 7000 members of the church in the tabernacle at Zion City. The meeting opened with the quotation by various church dignitaries of passages from the Bible expressive of the sentiment which has grown up against the self-styled prophet.

The crowd which filled the great structure and which formerly answered "yes" and "no" when Dowie nodded or shook his head, tonight applauded when he was accused. Overseer Speicher called out the numbers of chapters and verses of the Scripture, and in response the various church officials and prominent members who occupied seats on the platform quoted the passages called for. The new dictator of Zion's fortunes, Wilbur Glenn Voliva, responding to the honor given, quoted "Thou shalt not steal."

This sentiment was greeted with vociferous applause. Mrs. Jane Dowie, wife of the "first apostle," followed. "Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor" was her response. More applause followed. The congregation then joined with applause that seemed to indicate their belief in the words, "Better days are coming."

Gladstone Dowie, son of Dr. Dowie, and Overseer John Excell then explained to the audience the new turn of affairs.

The active revolt against the leadership of Dowie was foreshadowed yesterday, when Overseer Wilbur G. Voliva, who had been placed by Dowie in charge of the church while he sought health in Jamaica and Mexico, announced that he would no longer accept the orders of Dowie, who had, he declared, grossly mismanaged the affairs of the church. The members of the church, including the wife and son of Dowie, elected to stand with Voliva.

The first movement looking to his overthrow was made early today by Overseer Voliva, who has a power of attorney from Dowie. In company with several other officers of the church, Voliva hastened to Waukegan, and filed for record a warranty deed transferring to Deacon Alexander Granger all the real estate held by Dowie in Zion City. He also executed a bill of sale to Deacon Granger putting him in possession of all the personal property of Dowie, including his horses and books, and even his bed. Later in the day Granger conveyed these to Voliva, and at nightfall the overseer appointed by Dowie had not only succeeded him as the head of the church, but was the holder of all his property as well.

The following message was sent to Dowie informing him of the change in the situation:

"Dowie, Ocotlan, Jalisco, Mexico.—Telegram received here and Chicago. Practically all, including Cnatti, reports endorse Voliva's administration. Speicher's reinstatement, Granger's retention emphatically protesting against your extravagance, hypocrisy, misrepresentations, exaggerations, tyranny and injustice. You are hereby suspended from office and membership for polygamous teaching and other grave charges. See letter. Quietly retire. Further interference will precipitate complete exposure, rebellion, legal proceedings. Your statement of stupendously magnificent financial outlook is extremely foolish in view of thousands suffering through your shameful mismanagement. Zion and creditors will be protected at all costs."

The message was signed by W. C. Voliva, general overseer; William H. Piper, overseer for Chicago; H. E. Cante, overseer for the United Kingdom; H. D. Bransfield, vice-president of Zion University; Overseer John Excell, general ecclesiastical secretary, and John B. Speicher, overseer for Zion City.

After sending the message to Dowie, Overseer Voliva discussed the proceedings of the day. He said:

"I have acted in this matter under the power of attorney which I possess. What has been done I believe to be for the good of the church in Zion City and for its creditors. Legal counsel has been retained, and everything was carried out in accordance with their advice. We shall go ahead and put the affairs of Zion City in good order. If further steps are taken it will depend on what is done by Dowie. The situation is up to him as it stands."

Regarding the polygamous teachings mentioned in the message to Dowie, Overseer Voliva said he would issue a statement regarding them later, when Dowie had been given an opportunity to reply. He said, however, that the teachings had not been public, but were of a private character.

"Will Dowie be received in Zion City if he cares to come back?" the overseer was asked.

"Never as a leader. He must behave himself if he comes back, or he will have to look out for himself."

"Will the church send him money to return?"

The overseer declined to answer.

All of the men now prominent in the management of the affairs of Zion City church, with the exception of Overseer Voliva, are men with whom Dowie has quarreled in the past. He dismissed Deacon Speicher from all of his appointments in the church and compelled him to leave Zion City.

In a long message received yesterday by Voliva, and which caused the "revolution" of today, he ordered the instant dismissal of Deacon Granger, who is now all-powerful in directing the affairs of the community at Zion City. Deacon Speicher, who first became a convert to the faith of the Zion City church, ascertained today that Dowie is a very sick man, suffering from a pulmonary trouble, paralysis and dropsy and occasional delirium.

It is generally believed by the officers of the church that the deposed leader will make a fight to recover his lost power. If this is done, they asserted today, the matter would go to the courts.

Dowie's project for the establishment of a colony in Mexico will be abandoned by the new administration of Zion.

Dowie will be given an allowance, according to a dispatch from Zion City tonight, sufficient to maintain a residence in Mexico, if he so desires, or he will be received by the new officers of the church as a common citizen, should he elect to return and take up his residence in Zion City. No action under the criminal law will be taken against him on account of the funds he is alleged to have wasted, nor will any civil action be brought to recover. If the deposed leader becomes obstreperous, however, it was said that his son, Gladstone, was prepared to make revelations that would "startle the world." No reply to the cablegram sent today from Zion City to Dowie is expected tonight, inasmuch as Dowie is an eight hours' journey from the telegraph station.

HOORAY FOR CANNON!

There was once an old doge of Venice named Dandolo and he was doge until he was 97. At the frolicsome age of 95 he led an expedition against Constantinople, and he captured that city when he was 96, being blind at that. According to the Dandolo standard Mr. Cannon has twenty-five years of great activity ahead of him and he could be president of the United States half a dozen times.—Springfield Republican.

PERHAPS.

And then again perhaps Joseph went down into Egypt merely for the purpose of eluding some impertinent process server.—Chicago Record-Herald.

Drink It But Don't Water the Garden With It

PRIMO BEER is made with the purest of water obtained from the Brewery's own well, near 900 feet deep. This water percolated through black sand, nature's infallible filter. This is worth knowing in view of the present alarm about drought. Of course you are not expected to wash with PRIMO or water the flowers with it but as a pure beverage it is certainly to be desired to impure water.
