

Not Like Chalk

A little exposure to the weather washes some paints off like chalk. Modern science, however, has discovered that the addition of oxide of zinc to pure white lead and linseed-oil, in the proper proportions, gives a permanency to paint that was unknown to the ordinary lead and oil paints.

But, these ingredients must be finely and thoroughly ground and mixed.

Bear in mind, when preparing to paint that residence or barn that this is the cheapest and best.

That Tired Feeling

Which is so disheartening is often caused by poor, thin blood, resulting in deficient vitality. The blood needs to be enriched and vitalized; and for this there is no medicine in the world equal to

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

The cures it has worked, the men, women, and children it has restored to health, are countless in number. One such experience is as follows:

"I have used Ayer's Sarsaparilla in my family for years, and would not be without it. I used to suffer with boils and skin eruptions, attended with great lassitude and exhaustion. In fact, I was so ill that I could not attend to my business. Being advised to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, I did so, and I am happy to say that the medicine restored me to perfect health. I have since used Ayer's Sarsaparilla for my children, in various complaints, and it has always proved effective. I can safely recommend it to sufferers as a true blood purifier."

There are many imitations Sarsaparillas. Be sure you get "AYER'S."

SPORTS

BANQUET TO FRIENDS BY YACHTSMEN

MOST ENJOYABLE EVENING SPENT AT THE MOANA LAST EVENING.

The banquet given at the Moana Hotel last evening in honor of the friends of the visiting yachtsmen who gave the banquet, was a huge success.

The hosts for the evening were Clarence Macfarlane, Commodore Sinclair and Qwner Tuit. The guests at the banquet were: Captain Heidt, U. S. A.; Vice-Commodore Lyle, Captain Carter, U. S. N.; Prof. Ahlers, W. H. McInerney, Eben P. Low, Louis Vetter, Col. Parker, C. T. Wilder, Eugene Overton, Judge Stimson, Commodore Hobron, Dr. Cofer, Dr. Johnson, A. W. Sinclair, W. K. Freeman, of the S. S. China, and Captain Ingram, U. S. A.

The tables were arranged in the shape of the spokes of a helm and most beautifully decorated. In the center of the table was a scene of the start of the yacht race when the yachts were crossing the line. Bunches of green seaweed and coral made the scene realistic. About each of the abutting tables anchors made of maiden hair ferns were placed. A bowl of white carnations formed the centerpiece.

The menu of the banquet was:

- Martini Cocktails.
- Blue Points, Hawaii Yacht Club Style.
- "An oyster may be crossed in love."—Sheridan.
- Chicken Broth a la Sinclair.
- "From the hand to the mouth the soup is often lost, but not the cup."—Translated from the French.
- Hors d'Oeuvres Varie.
- Dry Sauterna.
- Filet of Sole, Sir Thomas Lipton.
- "This sort were well fished for."—Holmes.
- Coeur de Boeuf, a la Tuit.
- "Such dainties of yachtsmen, their health it might hurt, It's like sending them ruffles, when wanting a short."—Goldsmith.
- Pommes and Gremes Extra Sec.
- Neptune Natives "La Paloma."
- Capt.—"What's there?"
- Macfarlane—"Things from the cook sir, I know not what."—Romeo and Juliet.
- Lurline Punch.
- "Every little bit helps."—Secretary Wood.
- Breast of Chicken, New York Yacht Club Style.
- Sauce Anonome.
- Pommes Souffle.
- Asparagus.
- "There's other cups to come—I browse on that."—Cymbeline.
- Commodore Salad.

KOREANS SEND THEIR THANKS

APPRECIATE THE EFFORT OF SOCIAL SCIENCE CLUB IN BEHALF OF MURDERERS.

The following letter has been received by D. L. Withington:

Honolulu, T. H., June 25, 1906.
D. L. Withington, Esq., Honolulu, T. H.
Dear Sir:—We, a few representative Koreans, desire to address you in behalf of our fellow countrymen scattered over these islands, and to assure you of our deep, heartfelt appreciation of the kind interest you and the other members of the Social Science Club took in the case of the five men convicted of murder and sentenced to die.

We were deeply grieved at the crime with which these men were charged, and felt that they had in a measure brought all our fellow countrymen into disgrace. We can offer no excuse for such serious offences against the law and order of this fair and beautiful land, except, of course, the dense ignorance of such men and the awful temptations to drink and gamble to which they are exposed in many lonely places. The severe punishment inflicted on three of these men will, we hope and pray, be an object lesson to all others, never to be forgotten; and since it was through your kind intervention that two of these men escaped the death penalty, and were sentenced to a term imprisonment instead, we beg to thank you most cordially for their sake's as well as our own, and sincerely hope that such a crime may never again be committed by any of the people whom we represent.

We have the honor to be, Sir,

Your obedient servants,

C. H. Min, Honolulu, Oahu; Han Joon Sang, Ewa, Oahu; Cho Han Sik, Waialua and Mokuleia, Oahu; Im Chung Soo, Kahuku, Oahu; Han Sah Kyo, Lihue and Hanamaulu, Kauai; H. S. IN THE ISLE OF PINES.

HILO, June 25.—A letter was received recently by Mr. H. E. Kelsey, from Mrs. J. S. Shoemaker, who with her husband and family removed to the Isle of Pines, Cuban Republic, about two years ago. The family formerly lived at Kaiwili, and after selling their ranch there to Mr. Kelsey, lived in Kalina for a time before going to the Isle of Pines. Mrs. Shoemaker wrote that they had been engaged there in raising

SOME FINE NUMBERS AT CONCERT

DIAMOND HEAD'S MONSTER SHOW IS SURE TO PROVE A HUGE SUCCESS.

The benefit performance for the Diamond Heads Athletic Club billed for the night of July 4th, is an entertainment where nothing but the best of local talent has been secured. There will appear besides the several acrobatic stunts such as tumbling mat work, horizontal bar and trapeze work, some musical novelties. Miss Ritchie Umanua, a child of eight years, plays her little harp-sither with wonderful skill, swinging it as it were in the air, producing sounds difficult to find in any other instrument. Ernest Grane will perform on the xylophone, accompanied by a mandolin club. Madame Alapai the Hawaiian prima donna will also sing in her usual pleasing and captivating manner. Her voice has steadily improved since the departure of the band, as she has not been singing in the open air as she did for six years. Guy Livingston, well known as a comedian will entertain with some of his witty and original remarks, and his number is looked forward to by his many admirers for those that love to hear political parodies and other witty speeches there is no better place to hear him than at the Hawaiian Opera House on July 4.

WILL CELEBRATE THE FOURTH

Tomorrow evening the Sons of the American Revolution will celebrate the day at the roof garden of the Young Hotel. P. C. Jones will preside and Rev. Dr. Sylvester of Central Union Church will deliver the address of the evening. Miss Ray Bell will read a patriotic poem. The Declaration of Independence will also be read. The music will be furnished by Ernest Kaul's glee club and by Madame Alapai. At the close of the literary program fire works will be in order. After the fire works dance will be held in the roof garden.

"These trifles will lead to serious mischief."—Horse.

San Pedro Ice Cream.

"The good Gods preserve you."—Pericles.

Dessert and Coffee.

"The cups that cheer, but do not inebriate."—Cowper.

Liqueurs, Cigars.

Music by a Hawaiian quintette club furnished the music during the evening. After the dinner a public reception was held and dancing was enjoyed until a late hour. All report a very pleasant evening.

BONINE IS GETTING SOME GOOD PICTURES

IN A LETTER TO SECRETARY WOOD STATES THAT HE IS GETTING SOME GOOD PICTURES.

The following letter was recently received by Secretary Wood of the Promotion Committee from R. K. Bonine who is taking moving pictures of scenes on the other islands. He seems to be having very good success.

Laupahoehoe, June 25, 1906.

Mr. H. P. Wood, Honolulu T. H.

My Dear Mr. Wood: I presume by this time you have become somewhat concerned as to my whereabouts and progress. I can assure you of success. Everything seems to have come "my way" at Mahukona on arrival there on the 10th inst I secured an excellent picture of the landing of the Kinau passengers and another at Kohala of the arrival of the Manukona express showing the arrival of the train and passengers dismounting and after the ceremonies at the Kohala ditch I secured several interesting pictures of the crowds leaving, and at the Kohala Mill a scene of ox carts hauling cane to the mill. Up at Humuula Sheep Ranch some of the greatest sheep scenes you could imagine also cattle loading at Kawahae and the Kinau landing here at Laupahoehoe and several fine surf scenes of the waves breaking over the rocks.

I am leaving for Hilo tomorrow to be there for the races and games of July 4th and 5th and many others interesting scenes about Hilo. Have also secured many fine plates for optical slides. Any mail sent in care of Mr. A. James will reach me.

Very truly yours,

R. K. BONINE.
