GOOD LAW SAYS STATE DEPARTMENT

HAWAIIAN STATUTE WHICH PREVENTS JAPANESE FROM WORKING ON PUBLIC CONTRACTS.

The Department of State has reached the conclusion that the Hawaiian law prohibiting the employment of any but citizens or persons eligible to become such on public works is a valid law. A legal opinion secured by local Japanese some time ago was to the effect that the law was in violation of the Japanese treaty, and Governor Carter took the matter up. He has received the following reply from Washington on the subject:

"Department of State, Washington, July 17, 1906.

"His Excellency, the Governor of Hawaii, Honolulu.

"Sir—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 15th ult., answering the Department's telegram of March 1st, last, regarding the complaint of the Japanese Legation that the enforcement of the act of the Hawaiian Legislature, No. 37, of April 23, 1903, to regulate the employment of labor on public works in Hawaii affect prejudicially the interests of Japanese subjects in Hawaii."

"In reply, I have the honor to say that the Department, after careful consideration, is of the opinion that the law of the Territory of Hawaii in question is not in contravention of our treaty of commerce and navigation with Japan, negotiated in 1894.

"The duty of passing upon the constitutional questions involved is not confined to this Department. The Department, as at present advised, however, is of the opinion that the statute does not come within any of the inhibitions of the Federal Constitution, and has indicated this opinion to the Attorney General in transmitting the papers in the case to the Department of Justice.

"As to the questions of policy and expediency involved, this Department expresses no opinion.

"I have the honor to be, sir, your obedient servant.

(Signed) "ROBERT BACON,
Acting Secretary."

ST. PETERSBURG, August 4.—It is felt here that the country is on the verge of disorders so grave that the end can only be in the reign of the military or of the proletariat.

THE SVEABORG MUTINY. HELSINGFORS, Finland, August 4.—The casualties as a result of the fighting in the fortress of Sveaborg are unknown. There are 650 missing.

REAR ADMIRAL TRAIN DEAD. CHEFOO, August 4.—Admiral Train is dead of uremia.

Read Admiral Charles J. Train, whose last naval command was the Asiatic squadron, was a native of Massachusetts, and was appointed to the navy from that state on November 26, 1861. After leaving the Naval Academy in 1864, he passed through the various grades to that of master in 1886. He did not attain his captaincy until November, 1898, and from March until November of that year was in command of the auxiliary cruiser Prairie. He was promoted Rear Admiral September 12, 1904, and was in command of the Asiatic station when the situation arising from the boycott of Americans threatened to grow serious.

A RELIABLE REMEDY FOR DYSSENTERY AND DIARRHOEA.

As the season is at hand when diarrhoea and dysentery are prevalent, a reliable remedy should always be kept in the house for immediate use. The success of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the treatment of bowel trouble, has brought it into almost universal use and the following letter indicates it is giving satisfaction in South Africa. Mr. J. H. Morris, Chemist at George, Cape Colony says: "I have stocked Chamberlain's Remedies for some years and find them thoroughly salable, and in all cases answering the purpose for which they are intended."
