AFONG CASE DEMURRERS

DEFENDANTS HOLD THAT COMPLAINANT HAS NO RIGHT TO THE WEALTH AND THAT COURT HAS NO JURISDICTION AND THAT THE CLAIM IS NOT IN EQUITY—MRS. AFONG CLAIMS EVERY THING UNDER THE TRUST DEED.

Demurrers on behalf of seven of the defendants in the equity action of Carl B. Riggs vs. her mother Mrs. Julia H. Afong, et al., were filed in the Circuit Court this afternoon. The defendants filing demurrers were Mrs. Julia H. Afong, Alice L. Hutchinson, Helen G. Henshall, Mary Afong, Albert F. Afong, A. Henry Afong and Julia H. Johnstone. In addition to these defendants S. M. Damon, as trustee, and S. M. Damon, A. W. T. Bottomley and Alexander Garvie doing business under the name of Bishop & Company, are defendants, but none of them have filed any demurrers. Nor have the following members of the Afong family who have likewise been named as defendants: Etta P. Whiting, Martha M. Ma-

Brown On Rejected Ballots

THINKS THERE WAS INCONSISTENCY IN THE THROWING OUT OF VOTES.

"We still have the matter of a petition for a recount of the votes on the Sheriffship under consideration," said Sheriff Brown this morning. "I cannot say at this time whether or not a recount will be demanded. No, I do not believe that there was fraud committed anywhere, nor do I believe that there were any jobs put up to effect the results, nothing of the kind, and I do believe that there were quite a number of votes for both sides thrown out which should not have been rejected. I know for a fact that there was inconsistency in the rejection; for example, in one or two precincts where voters had marked their ballots twice for treasurer, voting for two treasurers, the rest of the ballot was counted, whereas when errors were noted in the markings for supervisors the whole ballot was thrown out. I do not think where a mistake has been made in marking for Supervisors, it should kill the whole ballot and I think I am right in my contention that the rest of such a ballot should be counted."

"We are now thoroughly investigating the matter in regard to the various precincts, endeavoring to ascertain just why certain ballots were rejected and the manner of their rejection." Sheriff Brown, asked if he contemplated any changes in the police department, there having been a rumor to the effect that certain men were to be let out, said that he had in mind no changes for the present. "I will leave the matter of making changes to my successor," he said.

ANTI-SALOON'S NEXT MOVE

JOHN MARTIN HAPPY—JIMMIE BOYD WILL FIGHT AGAIN—HARD-WORK MURRAY TIRED.

"I'm going to take my medicine like a little man," said Jimmie Boyd, politician, this afternoon, "and live to fight it out all over again at the next election." Jimmie can't think of retiring to private life; he is anxious to make history and keep close to the wheels of progress along political lines. Harry Murray remarked that he at present saw no necessity of indulging in conversation. He has worked hard as chairman of the Republican County Committee during the most strenuous campaign this Territory ever saw and he is at present too tired to talk. One of the happiest politicians, if he may be classed as a politician, is John Martin, the Anti-Saloon League executive agent. He unburdened some of his happiness this morning. "Well, we did the trick," said Martin, "and I can't help thinking that the work along the Anti-Saloon line had a great influence. Now that the campaign is over I think we will get in and canvass public opinion in the matter of liquor laws. There is much that is needed in the way of reform of the goon, Bessie R. Burns and Melaine R. Brewster and Tony Afong. The demurrers each contain twenty-two exceptions. It is held that the court has no jurisdiction, and further that the bill of the complainant is multifarious in that it brings in matters distinct and separate from each other. According to the demurrer of Mrs. Julia H. Afong the bill further shows that no trust had been created in favor of complainant and furthermore, that under the trust deed the absolute estate was given to Mrs. Afong and that she has full and entire right and interest in and to the surplus income as well of the trust fund from Chun Afong. J. J. Dunne appears for Mrs. Afong and W. T. Rawlinson for the other defendants who filed demurrers today.

Atkinson Is Coming Home Soon

GOVERNOR ADVISED BY CABLE THAT ATKINSON HAS DECLINED NEW YORK OFFER.

Secretary Atkinson has decided not to accept the offer made him by a New York firm and will, on the contrary, return to Honolulu. Governor Carter received advice to this effect by cable today from the Territorial Secretary who is now in New York. Atkinson cabled to the effect that he had refused the offer made him and would sail from San Francisco by the S. S. Korea. She is due here November 26.

Nearly two months ago the Secretary left Honolulu for New York on a leave of absence, to confer with a certain New York firm regarding a tentative offer that had been made to him by a member of the firm. If the offer was satisfactory Atkinson would resign as Secretary. Whatever the offer was is unknown to Governor Carter, but the offer did not apparently suit Atkinson, for he declined it and decided to return to Honolulu. Atkinson met the member of the firm who was favorably impressed with Atkinson when he was in New York in connection with the sale of the Territorial bonds. Atkinson subsequently received an offer of employment when Governor Carter was ill and had to decline, but subsequently a tentative offer of employment by the New York firm was made the Secretary and it was this offer that he has just turned down.

The total number of deaths in Honolulu for the month of October were 74. This is an increase of 5 compared with the corresponding month of 1905.

COOKE TO LEAVE BOARD.

J. P. Cooke is to tender his resignation to Governor Carter as a member of the immigration board, as Cooke is to depart for the Colonies on a vacation. His successor on the board has been placed in the Governor's hands in order to facilitate the work of the board before the return of Atkinson this month.

EVIDENCE IN KOREAN CASE PAU.

The prosecution in the Yee Man Young case concluded its rebuttal testimony this morning in Judge Lindsay's court and the instructions will be given the jury as soon as Dr. Emerson, the physician at the police station, shall have been heard regarding the physical condition of the Korean during the confinement of the defendant in the police station. Sheriff Brown, Assistant Sheriff Vida, Turnkeys Melanphy, Kupihea and Kama, and Detectives Manuel and Joe Leal gave rebuttal testimony. The arguments will probably be begun this afternoon.

ANOTHER DELAY FOR THE SHERIDAN

THE SHERIDAN BREAKS A WINDLASS AND IS UNABLE TO PROCEED—SHERIDAN WILL NOT RE-ENTER THE HARBOR—EXPECTS TO LEAVE ON NEXT SATURDAY MORNING—BUDFORD BACK IN PORT.

When the tug Slocum and the transports Buford and Sheridan were all in line off Waikiki ready for the start for San Francisco, about 10:30 o'clock this forenoon, the two former vessels preparing to tow the disabled Sheridan in tandem, the Sheridan stripped the pinion of her windlass in endeavoring to raise her anchor. The smaller cog-wheel working on the large wheel of the windlass, known as the pinion, was stripped of its teeth and the transport was unable to raise her big mud hook.

While the accident delays the three vessels here until Saturday morning, probably at the earliest, it is considered by the masters of the fleet to be most fortunate that it should have occurred this early. If such an accident had occurred at sea, when it might frequently be necessary to use the windlass in regulating the amount of chain to which the big 18-inch hawser was shackled, the matter might have been very serious. In bad weather about 45 fathoms of the chain would be out forward, but in ordinary weather the chain would be taken in to about 15 fathoms. This could not be done without the windlass, so even if the Sheridan's anchor was left here it would be impossible for her to proceed without repairing the windlass.

HOW MAHOE GOT THE VOTES

Of the twelve Representatives elected on the Island of Oahu only one was not a Republican. That one was the nominee of the Home Rule party, endorsed by the Democrats, S. K. Mahoe in the Fifth District.

The election of Mahoe was due primarily to his not doing any campaigning, being so ill that he was forced to remain at home most of the time. Had he been able to campaign he would probably have been defeated. He was nominated by the Home Rulers and then when the Democrats endorsed him he was informed by his Central Committee that he must not accept their endorsement and was further directed to speak against the Democratic party from the stump. He did not want to do this but was bound to do so by his oath of allegiance to the Home Rule party, even as was Kalaokalani, Sr.

At this point when he was about to begin his campaigning he was suddenly taken ill and was unable to stump the district. And so he was elected. He received the Home Rule vote and also the vote of the Democrats and so managed to beat the sixth Republican nominee. If he had spoken against the Democrats he would have lost their vote and gone where all the other Home Rulers went—to defeat.

The Democrats claim that they could have elected Kalaokalani, Sr., to the Senate had the Home Rulers allowed him to receive their endorsement. As it was he received a good many Democratic votes but not as many as he would otherwise have received.

WILL ASK A RECOUNT.

George A. Davis will sometime today file a petition with the Supreme Court asking for a recount on behalf of Sheriff A. M. Brown. He is working upon the petition now and will file it before evening. The law gives a person thirty days after election in which to file such a petition.
