WHO WILL BE CHAIRMAN OF THE SUPERVISORS

POLITICAL GOSSIP AS TO WHO WILL BE WHO IN THE NEW BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.

The next Board of Supervisors presents several interesting situations. The chairmanship is one about which most interest centers.

The new board is as follows: Frank Harvey, Supervisor-at-Large, Democrat.

Joseph J. Fern, Honolulu, Democrat. Samuel C. Dwight, Honolulu, Republican.

Charles Hustace, Jr., Honolulu, Republican.

Frank K. Archer, Ewa, Independent, elected by the aid of the Democrats, Andrew Cox, Waianae and Waiatus, Republican.

J. M. Kealoha, Koolau, Home Ruler. It is claimed by most of the Democrats that the chairmanship lies between Harvey or Fern, Democrats, Some Democrats say that they do not want the chairmanship but favor Archer, Independent.

Republicans say that Hustace is the only logical chairman.

The appointment of a Road Supervisor presents another interesting situation. It is reported that Archer does not want Johnson. If his vote is thrown that way the Democrats will be able to name the road man.

Johnson has everywhere given satisfaction as the road supervisor and he may get the reappointment.

Changes favor the appointment of Gere as the county engineer to succeed himself.

In fact the new board of supervisors affords more room for speculation than any other of the political changes wrought by the recent election.

Cox and Archer are the only members of the board who were re-elected. S. C. Dwight was appointed by the Governor to succeed E. R. Adams a short time ago.

There is much speculation as to how the chairmanships of the committees will be divided up. It will be just as difficult carrying on the finances of the county this year as last. The road committee is considered an important one, and the police committee can be made an important one if the right man is placed at the head of it.

TEASES THE EDITOR THEN SUES HIM

TRANSLATION OF THE "WRITING, WRITING" THAT MOVES DR. UCHIDA TO PROSECUTE PAPER.

The complaint of Dr. Uchida against the editor of the Japanese Daily Chronicle charging them with libel in the first degree is now ready to be acted on in court, Officer Miki having returned the summons as served and the gentlemen charged having furnished the required bonds in the amount of $250 each.

Dr. J. Uchida declares in his complaint that Y. Kimura and H. Tsurushima, on October 26, committed the crime of publishing a libel in the first degree by publishing in the Japanese language in the Hawaiian-Japanese Daily Chronicle, circulating and promulgating the same, a false, malicious and defamatory article concerning him.

ENTERPRISE TAKES SUGAR BALLAST

CARRIES EXTRA COAL FOR HER ESCORT, THE TUG FEARLESS IN CASE OF EMERGENCY.

The Matson S. S. Enterprise, Captain Youngren, sails from the railway wharf tomorrow morning direct for San Francisco, accompanied by the tug Fearless.

The Enterprise is now taking on sugar at the railway wharf and will load enough of this to do for ballast, not taking a full sugar cargo. She was moved yesterday from the channel to the railway wharf under her own steam and seemed not to suffer much inconvenience from her crippled screw from which two blades are missing.

If good weather prevails she will travel to the coast under her own steam. In the event of heavy seas she may hear from the broken screw and it would take but a little racing on the part of her propeller to leave the screw bladeless. Then the Fearless would take hold and tow the big vessel to the Golden Gate.

The Fearless came off the marine railway yesterday. She has had the accumulations of sea growths removed from her underside and is now at the foot of Fort street, piling coal in sacks on her deck, just as it has been piled on the Slocum's deck. The Enterprise carries extra coal in case the Fearless should require it during the upward trip.

CLAIM THAT CIVIC FEDS BEAT HARRIS

POLITICIANS SAY THAT HARRIS WAS TAKEN AT HIS WORD IN REGARD TO ENDORSEMENT.

One of the greatest surprises of the recent election was the defeat of W. W. Harris who was the Republican candidate for the office of Supervisor-at-Large. It is now laid at the doors of the Civic Federation. Prominent politicians who have been studying the returns claim that the latter organization took him at his word and knifed him after giving him their endorsement.

After the Civic Federation had come out with their endorsement of the different candidates, among whom was W. W. Harris, a great number of the men endorsed did not like it and said as much. Harris however was probably the one who raised the greatest row over it, and was seemingly unable to forget it. He stated time and again upon the platform that he would rather go down to defeat, than have the endorsement of the Civic Federation.

Clever politicians now state that the Federation simply took him at his word and obliged him. The loss of their vote was what is said to have defeated him.

MRS WEATHERED IS WORKING FOR HAWAII

W. C. POOLE SAYS THAT SHE IS DOING MUCH GOOD IN REGARD TO TOURIST TRAVEL HERE.

William C. Poole, representing the "Western Tours" magazine, is in this city, and is stopping at the Hawaiian Hotel.

Mr. Poole is the representative of the magazine which is to send a party of tourists here in February under the direction of Mrs. Edith Tozier Weathered. About forty persons being enrolled for the trip at present. Some of these people, according to Mr. Poole, are coming from the East and a part of them from the bay region about San Francisco.

Mr. Poole himself brought six people with him. They will remain here for three or four months while Mr. Poole himself will proceed to New Zealand, where he will take in the exposition which opens there this month and then he will proceed home by way of Europe.

Mr. Poole is enthusiastic over the prospects for the tourist travel to these islands and says that Mrs. Weathered is doing much good for Hawaii. He says further that the Educational Convention in 1908 will probably be brought here through her efforts. Prospects for that are very bright at present.

ACHI WITH HIS LITTLE LABOR PARTY

POLITICIANS SAY THAT ACHI WAS NOT NEARLY AS DEAD AS HE WAS SAID TO BE.

It was Achi with his little Labor Party.

That is the way the Republican candidates express it when they are asked in regard to the reasons for their defeat. Not only did Republicans suffer but so did H. T. Moore, the Democratic nominee for Supervisor. It was in Achi's precincts in the Fifth and in the Ninth of the Fourth where the Republicans lost out. And it is laid at Achi's door.

For twenty odd years Achi has been a close personal friend of Lauka, Harvey and Fern. When Achi was trying to get the nomination for Supervisor-at-Large Harvey went to him and told him that should he run that he would not accept a similar nomination from the Democratic party. Achi says this himself. When Achi was beaten in the primaries by the Brown men Harvey accepted the nomination from the Democrats.

Lauka has always been a friend of Achi's and naturally he was sore at the way Brown treated him. But he was too shrewd a politician, to come out openly against Brown. He is a Republican and he might, at some future date want some favor at the hands of the Republicans. So to all appearances he sat in his office and attended to his law business while the campaign was on. Not once did he make a false move for which he could be called to account by the Republican leaders. But evidently he was doing something while the Republicans fondly imagined that he was "dead and buried," as the expression went after the Republican primaries. But after the election the Republicans woke up.

The evidence continues to pile up to show that it was Achi. He was sore at Moore was defeated. He was sore on Brown. Brown was defeated. He was a close friend of Bicknell's and Bicknell went in flying, in spite of the efforts of the St. Louis College Alumni and the reputed support of John Lane. So the claim is made that Achi with his little Labor Party turned the trick.

However Achi strongly denies that he did anything. Nothing can be learned from him. He says that he never talked to any one—that he never did any electioneering. He says he only knows how he voted himself and that he has forgotten now how that was.

WILL URGE CHANGES IN LAND LAWS

LAND COMMISSIONER PRATT NOT IN FAVOR OF THE SETTLEMENT ASSOCIATION SECTION OF LAWS

"During the recent county campaign," said Land Commissioner Pratt, "there was the greatest amount of buncombe talked by the various speakers about the public lands. It was represented that the legislature would remedy alleged faults in our system. As a matter of fact such talk and promises were ridiculous. The legislature is absolutely powerless to change our land laws. Under Section 73 of the Organic Act, it is especially provided that changes in the land laws can be made only by Congress. The legislature is therefore, unable to accomplish any actual change. It can do practically nothing except by the passing of a resolution urging upon Congress the changes that may be desired.

"I will, in all probability, make a special report to the Governor recommending that our laws be changed in regard to the settlement associations. I have always regarded that part of our laws as distinctly un-American. My views on this subject are well known. According to our laws, lands which are to be opened up under the settlement part of the law are not open to the general public but when advertised the seekers for the land are limited to the particular settlement applicants. I consider that that part of the laws should be changed and I will make such recommendation.

"There are other changes of our land laws that I have in mind and will, in all likelihood, include them in recommendations that I may make to the Governor. The details of those possible recommendations I do not care to make public at this time."

BROWN DECIDES TO ASK FOR RECOUNT

There is as yet no proof of the allegation that in one precinct a considerable number of ballots favoring Brown for Sheriff were thrown out with design.

Sheriff Brown said this morning: "As soon as Judge Gear returns from Kaula we will file papers in the Supreme Court asking for a recount. Whether we will ask for a recount of all the ballots in the County election, or of just the rejected ballots, or of all or just the rejected ballots in certain precincts, I am not at this time prepared to say. That will be determined by my attorneys on the return of Judge Gear from Kaula.

"As I have before, stated, I believe that there was a large number of ballots rejected which should not have been rejected. Of course, among the rejected ballots are those favoring Lauka as well as those in favor of myself. I have recently been informed by several cases in different precincts where there seemed little or no excuse for the rejection of ballots.

"I cannot say that I believe that a recount would change the results, nor would I say that the results would not be materially changed by a recount. I know that a good many ballots favoring myself were thrown out and if my information is correct there are some 200 ballots among those thrown out which, if they were counted, would be found to be in my favor. How many of the rejected ballots, if counted, would be added to the credit of Lauka I do not know.

"We will know all about it next week. One thing is certain, we will neglect nothing that will help to bring out the facts of the matter. If there were ballots rejected which should not have been rejected they should be counted, no matter to whose benefit the recount will result."

Harry Murray, chairman of the Republican County Committee, said: "It is difficult to prove anything, but I may say that we have been busy gathering information of an interesting nature and there may be as big a surprise in store for the public when the Supreme Court has passed on the recount petition as was experienced by the various statements made by officials returns from some of the precincts are peculiar; for example, in one precinct the vote for Sheriff is about 60 less than the vote for Delegate and such inconsistencies are noticeable in the comparison of the votes cast for Senators and Representatives as well as those cast for County officers. It is difficult to interpret the proposition unless it be taken as an indication of how ballots were rejected. I would not intimate that there had anywhere been any deliberately designed rejection and, it would be foolish not to consider such a possibility in an earnest endeavor to arrive at the facts. We will have a recount, that is the main thing and the recount will tell the story. In the meanwhile we are not idle and are accumulating information."

Sheriff Brown stated during the day that there seemed a wide difference in the people on election day. The result at the polls in regard to why and how ballots were rejected. The kind of ballot that would pass inspection in one precinct should pass in all precincts and the kind of ballot rejected in one precinct, should, if rejected for cause, be rejected in any other precinct.

Among the supporters of Sheriff Brown there would appear to be a very considerable belief that a recount will proclaim him the next Sheriff. Brown himself will not say how he feels in this regard, probably because he does not know, but it is no exaggeration to say that he "has hopes."

REPORT WILL CAUSE SURPRISE

A LARGE NUMBER OF IMPROVEMENTS AT LEPER SETTLEMENT BUILT OUT OF GENERAL FUNDS

President Pinkham of the Board of Health will start on his annual report very soon. There will be a number of matters presented in the report that will cause considerable surprise. This is especially true of the work that has been done at the Leper Settlement. Despite the fact that there was no appropriation for such work secured by the Board from the last legislature, President Pinkham has, by judicious curtailment of the general leper fund, been able to proceed with the construction of a number of improvements, including new buildings, at the settlement. The material for all of these buildings, with one exception, been handed at the settlement.
