COREYS SECLUDED AND THEIR VOYAGE

REACH CHERBOURG AND GO IM-MEDIATELY TO FRENCH CHA-TEAU—PRIVACY COST $2,000.

CHERBOURG, (France), May 20.— William Ellis Corey, president of the Steel Trust and his bride, who was Villegent, which was occupied by Mrs.

Corey prior to her wedding. During their entire trip the Coreys remained in the seclusion of the Captain's suite.
Corey once or twice descended to the promenade deck, but his bride did not appear during the entire time. The passengers aboard called the couple the "Pittsburg prisoners."

If such was his object Mr. Corey obtained his $2,000 worth of privacy, because the stairs leading to the boudoir where the bridal cabin is situated were roped off so that the officers when going to the bridge for duty were stairway during meals never fails to interest the passengers. Corey (rough-out the voyage maintained a dignified silence. When walking on deck he kept entirely aloof from the rest of the passengers and neglected to speak to many whom he knew by sight. He walked with bowed head and seemed to avoid recognition.

The passengers on the tender stared at the couple as they pushed down the gangway. The bride sought refuge under the bridge. Corey pretended to look debonair, and the bride looked nervous. When the tender left the side of the steamship Corey acknowledged the farewell salute of the captain, but ignored the cheers of the passengers.

When a correspondent spoke to Corey and informed him about the troubles the Rev. John L. Clark was having, Mr. Corey beatily said:

"You cannot tell me anything that will interest me. I don't want to hear anything. I've not talked to anybody."

When informed that it was reported he would resign the presidency of the United States Steel Corporation, Corey snappishly said:

"I have nothing to say. Some persons seem to know everything. I am a private citizen and I want to be left alone."

"Oh, do say something," the bride interrupted.

"No," Corey exclaimed. "I have nothing to say about my marriage or the steel company. That is my business only."

When a reporter asked his future plans, Corey related and said:

"We're staying in Europe until the middle of July. We are going first to Paris. Our movements thereafter are not settled. That is all I have to say."

the heart is almost sure to be left in a Miss Mabelle Gilman whose marriage to William E. Corey, president of the United States Steel Corporation, is creating intense interest throughout the country, has been photographed nearly as often as Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, yet few of the pictures show her in stage costume. In the cut presented herewith she is depicted in a part in which she appeared before going to Paris, where she was wooed and won by the man who divorced his wife to marry the actress.

ternoon on the Kaiser Wilhelm II from

Be Not Deceived

There is only one cleanable Refrigerator and therefore GERM PROOF, and that is the Gurney Refrigerator handled by us.

No other make has ever stood the test and by means of the removable ice chamber as well as removable shelves, drain pipes, traps, etc., we have solved the problem.

Assail us where you will you cannot help but admit our claim. All other makes fail when it comes to keeping the ice chamber pure, sweet, clean and germ proof, but

THE GURNEY

Listen not to idle talk and arguments put forth in favor of cleanable provision compartment. All refrigerators have this feature. You cannot deny that unless ALL COMPARTMENTS can be kept absolutely pure and wholesome that a refrigerator is germ-proof. Go from the provision chamber to the receptacle for the ice and it is here where all other makes fail. There's the weakness that cannot be overcome by them.

The Gurney with its removal Ice Chamber feature has supplied the great want and therefore
