

Poor little fellow! He coughs so hard he cannot sleep. That makes him weak and sickly all the next day. His brother thinks this coughing is terrible. So do we, for we know that just a few doses of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral will stop the cough. For sixty years it has been the standard remedy with men, women, and children for colds, coughs, and all throat and lung diseases. It contains no narcotic or poison of any kind. Be sure that you get Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Accept no cheap and worthless substitutes.

JOSHES FROM THE GRANSTAND

"Talking about grand stand joshes," said a baseball enthusiast who never misses a league game. "I have been taking down some of the jollies handed out at the baseball grounds here recently. You can't put any stopper on the gab of a fan, and when he wants to hand a verbal skin-glove to a player he doesn't like, why all the player should do is look pleasant and watch the ball.

"Here are some Honolulu ones heard of late." The fan handed out a paper containing the following:

To Bushnell: "Oh you mutton head, give him some dog meat."

To Gleason: "Hallow Foxy." "You a eye?" "It's got 4 eyes, he can't hit the ball." "Hit em on the head."

En sue: "Oh you chink, San-min lo."

Aylett: "Look at the Beef Trust."

Hampton: "How's that for a balk."

"Ding, ding, toot, toot." "Oh you ham, Kill it" (the ball). "Hit em on the nose, back to the woods, strike em out."

Ed Desha: "Don't look up here."

"Why don't you wear a cap."

King: "Give em a bale of hay."

Bruns: "Hellow Kakalio."

Kia: "Oh you ice wagon."

Davis: "Oh you Davis, don't get mad."

Other remarks:

"Look at that lobster."

"Hit em on the head."

"Hit em on the nose."

"You can't hit a balloon."

"Kill it."

"In 1903," said the fan, "Barney Joy got more roasting from the fans than all the players put together at the present time.

"Wait until the San Francisco team gets here and the fans will see and hear things that will make their eyes open.

"It will do the Honolulu fans more good to have a coast team come to Honolulu and give us a few pointers in the coaching line.

"The idea of roasting is to rattle the pitcher. When there is roasting there is life in a ball game. If a player can't stand it, let him go to a drug store and buy some cotton and stuff his ears.

"The umpire stands more abuse than all the players put together. He is usually right 9 times out of 10 so says Coney Mack one of the foremost coaches in the United States."

LOOKS NOW LIKE M'KEEVER VS. ROTH

COOKE BEATEN BY M'KEEVER YESTERDAY AND LOWREY BEATS GRAY.

In the matches in the tennis tournament yesterday a number of surprises were the order of the day. McKeever by his brilliant play managed to defeat Dick Cooke in two straight sets. Cooke played a strong game in the first set, but McKeever with his back hand strokes made it very hard on Cooke and he was unable to return the ball with any sureness. Gray managed to defeat Williamson in the third set by the score of 6-2. Lowrey was able to defeat Gray in the next set by the score of 6-2 6-4. The tennis in this match was very poor and unless Lowrey takes a big brace tomorrow he will be unable to defeat McKeever.

The chances are that McKeever will meet Roth on Friday for the championship but it is very doubtful if he will take the honors back to Ewa with him, as Roth is in the very best form and will give him a very hard fight. The court has not been decided on as yet, but it is almost certain that it will be at the Pacific Club.

More entries than have ever been made before here in a tennis tournament have been made for the opening double tournament next week. Sixteen teams have entered and by the time the single championships close there ought to be a number of other entries. The entries for the coming ladies singles and mixed doubles tournament are not up to the usual standard and if there are no more entries they will not be held this year. The entries up to date in the mens' doubles are as follows:

F. E. Greenfield and A. M. McKeever, B. Kennedy and L. Scott, A. L. Castle and R. H. Cooke, R. M. Blanchard and F. E. Steere, Lieut. Shipp and Lieut. McCleary, J. P. Cooke and R. D. Mead, W. F. Dillingham and H. G. Dillingham, A. T. Brock and W. Williamson, W. Savage and P. F. Baldwin, C. G. S. Wainhouse and M. Kekahio, C. G. Bockus and H. S. Grey, Capt. Humphrey and S. H. Derby, S. A. Baldwin and C. C. Krambhaar, H. W. Rice and J. Waterhouse, D. W. Anderson and E. Horner.

SPORT NOTES.
This afternoon the regular weekly shoot will take place at the Kakaako traps and some good scores can be expected, as the members have been making improvements.

The White Rock golf tournament at Haleiwa next Sunday will not take place unless more entries are received before then. Only three men have entered and it would not be at all interesting for only three men to play. The entries close Friday at E. O. Hall & Sons and all golfers are asked to please enter at once so that the drawing can be made.

PANIC AT SEA ON THE SANTA CLARA

PASSENGERS FOUGHT FOR LIFE PRESERVERS OWING TO REPORT VESSEL WAS SINKING.

SEATTLE, July 31.—Word has been brought from Alaska that a panic occurred on the steamer Santa Clara on her trip north last week, and but for the fact that the crew beat the second-class passengers away from the obafo, they would have lowered them and put away from the ship off Cape Flattery. The Santa Clara ran into a gale off the cape and shipped a heavy sea. A second-class passenger started the report that the boat was sinking, and the passengers swarmed on deck and fought for places in the lifeboats. The entire crew had to be called to force the second-class passengers below. The incident preyed upon the mind of one passenger and he went insane.

SEND-OFF FOR THE RIFLEMEN

COLONEL SAM JOHNSON SAYS IT IS RIGHT THAT HE SHOULD STAY HOME.

The members of the rifle team which left on the Alameda today for Fort Perry, Ohio, to represent the National Guard of Hawaii in the great rifle contest of militia and regular troops, were the guests of honor at a farewell gathering of officers and soldiers of the Regiment, held last evening in the drill shed on Hotel street. There were about 300 present and the affair was a most enthusiastic one.

Capt. Gorman, as master of ceremonies, kept things moving by calling on various members for short addresses. Among these were speeches from Adjutant General Jones, Col. Sam Johnson, and Major Riley. Col. Jones reminded the men of the team that they are charged with the keeping of the honor and reputation of the Territory of Hawaii, while they are away; that the trip is not one for pleasure but for serious work, and that they must expect to be subject to close discipline all of the time. He urged them individually not to forget that their actions and work would not concern themselves personally, but would reflect an impression of the whole regiment, and of Hawaii to the minds of the nation.

Col. Johnson in his address stated that he had been impressed with the justice of the view taken by the Supervisors regarding his going with the team, and had all along been of the opinion that he should not leave, in view of the work which he would have to leave in other hands, and for the reason that so many other members of the Road Department were also of the team, and had been granted leave of absence. Besides his trip with the Shriners was one which had kept him away for several weeks only a short time ago.

Major Riley, who goes with the team as team captain, spoke his appreciation of the interest which is manifested by the men in the organization, only regretting that the best marksman in the Regiment, Col. Johnson, was unable to go with the others.

Major Rose, Major Pratt, and Lt. Col. Coyne were among other members of the guard who made short talks.

During the evening music was furnished by a quartet orchestra, and Lt. Dougherty sang a number of songs.

HONOLULU TEAM WON AT BOWLING

THE CONTEST WITH KAUI THIS MORNING DEVELOPED SOME FINE PLAYING.

In the bowling match yesterday between the Kaula and the local girls the local team was able to show that the art of the game is down to a science here. The first game the Honolulu team won by the score of 496 to 459. In the second game 482 to 429 the third 499 to 455 total 1438 winning by 124 pins. The bowling on both teams was very good.

Miss Paty and Miss Werthmuller bowled very well for the local team while the Misses Wilcox and Mrs. Arthur Rice bowled a good game for

THE DOCTOR AWAY FROM HOME WHEN MOST NEEDED.

People are often very much disappointed to find that their family physician is away from home when they most need his services. Diseases like cramp colic and diarrhoea require prompt treatment, and in many instances prove fatal before medicine can be produced or a physician summoned. The right way is to keep at hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. No physician can prescribe a better medicine for these diseases. 14 GAMBLERS ARRESTED.

Chief of Detectives Taylor, Joe Leal and other officers yesterday afternoon raided a gambling game in a Chinese store at Judd and Nuuanu streets and arrested 14 paikau players. The place was barricaded and the police had to overcome many difficulties to effect an entrance.

NATURE PROVIDES FOR SICK WOMEN

a more potent remedy in the roots and herbs of the field than was ever produced from drugs.

In the good old-fashioned days of our grandmothers few drugs were used in medicines and Lydia E. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., in her study of roots and herbs and their power over disease discovered and gave to the women of the world a remedy for their peculiar ills more potent and efficacious than any combination of drugs.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is an honest, tried and true remedy of unquestionable therapeutic value. During its record of more than thirty years, its long list of actual cures of those serious ills peculiar to women, entitles Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to the respect and confidence of every fair minded person and every thinking woman.

When women are troubled with irregular or painful functions, weakness, displacements, ulceration or inflammation, backache, flatulency, general debility, indigestion or nervous prostration, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

No other remedy in the country has such a record of cures of female ills, and thousands of women residing in every part of the United States bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable compound and what it has done for them.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. For twenty-five years she has been advising sick women free of charge. She is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and as her assistant for years before her decease advised under her immediate direction. Address, Lynn, Mass.
