The boys all wrote to friends and relatives here, and many of the pictures will be treasured as souvenirs. The following is a letter from "Pat" Gleason to High Sheriff Henry:

MORMON CASE BRANCHING OUT

Iulioa Kamahalo vs. George Kekauoha is the title of a suit which has just been filed in the Circuit Court, asking for damages in the sum of $2,500 damages for the alienation of his wife's affections.

Kekauoha was convicted last week of adultery with a woman named Amia and is serving a four months sentence for the crime now. He is also under indictment for a similar offense with another woman, and now a third charge of like character is made in the filing of the damage suit.

Kamahalo was a witness before the Grand jury in the investigation of the "Mormon cases" recently, and his wife, named Kelelana, was one of the numerous women of the Koolau district with whom George seems to have been on intimate terms.

The Grand jury is working on the charges that the Mormon church of which all the parties are members, have been trying to shield Kekauoha in this business, and have already a number of indictments charging perjury and subornation of perjury in these matters.

THE PRINCE ARRAIGNED

(Associated Press Cable to The Star).
SAN FRANCISCO, November 22.—Prince Salmon of Tahiti was arraigned in court today on a charge of defrauding his creditors.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 16.—The threatened criminal court cloud that has been hanging over the head of Prince Aril Pola A. Salmon of Tahiti burst yesterday, when A. G. Faulkner, president of the Thomas rental company, Polk and Turk streets, obtained a warrant for his arrest from Police Judge Cabaniss on a charge of violating an ordinance relating to defrauding garages of automobile rents. Faulkner alleged that Prince Salmon hired an automobile from his company October 15 and ran up a bill amounting to $185, which he had been unable to collect. He had learned that Prince Salmon intended to leave the state, hence the warrant.

The prince has been for some time in financial straits, owing to the syndicate that backed him while he was searching for a wife with wealth refusing to supply him with funds from his inability to carry out his part of the contract. It was reported that he was engaged to Lilioakalani, ex-queen of Hawaii, but she would have nothing to do with him. Reports of other engagements to wealthy women were circulated without foundation. It is said that the prince has been living quietly for several days with his sister, Mrs. Ackermann, in Oakland.

HOW "THE BOYS" HAND IT OUT

Jess Woods who has made it possible to have the baseball team here first welcomed the visitors this morning and assured them that everybody was glad to see them. In turn each player was introduced by Manager Fisher, who seemed to be ready to play himself if it was necessary.

"Brick" Devereaux was ready with an "Aloha" and a "Wela ka Hao" for every one. He wanted to know if the local team could play ball. Woods assured him on this score that they could, and then he said the trip was not in vain.

Fisher said that the boys had been like a lot of young colts on the way down, and hoped that somebody would corral them, as he was tired out in trying to keep them quiet. They all talk in their sleep about playing baseball.

"We are going to show the people here how baseball can be played, and

I think that the people will get their money's worth watching the boys in action," said Mique.

The several players all had something to say.

Hildebrand: "Good for Hawaii we will show them how to play ball."
Devereaux: "I think we ought to win a few games, the boys are a fine bunch."

Zelder: "Can the team hit hard? If they can we will stop that."

Donahue: "If they need me I will catch, if not me for the All Stars."

Heilmuller: "How high is your back fence? If it is not too high over for me every time."

Nealon: "I am pretty tall so I think I can catch just a few balls on first."

"Slivers" Henley: "Barney can certainly go some when it comes to pitching. I may try one or two games, one can never tell."

Bliss: "I expect to make one or two runs, maybe more."

BASEBALL HOP AT THE SEASIDE

In honor of the California baseball nine that arrived on the Alameda today. Whoop it up for promotion and athletics. Remember that the Seaside is the only Tropical Hotel in Honolulu. That it does not rain at Walkiki when it does rain in town. That after the reception the California nine will be at the Seaside en masse. That the crowd at the Seaside invariably has the best personnel of any public gathering in Honolulu.

Vivas sentenced to jail for five days for contempt of court, had given ball in sum of $100 pending the return of the writ of habeas corpus granted by the Supreme Court in his favor. For several days the attorney has been ill in the hospital under guard. He will probably respond to the summons of the writ as soon as he is able to make the trip to Honolulu.

HONOLULU HAS BALL CRAZE BAD

PLAYERS FROM THE COAST ARRIVE IN SPLENDID CONDITION AND SPIRITS AND PROMISE TO TRY AND "DO THINGS" TO THE BEST TEAM HONOLULU HAS—A GREAT WELCOME TO ALL ARRIVALS—MANY GREETINGS FOR JOY.

"MIQUE" FISHER

"We are here and are glad to be so near old mother earth again. I have brought the bunch, and they are ready to show the natives how to play the game. Overall did not come because he is going to be married, and Truck Eagan had to stay behind because his wife was taken sick just before we left. I have brought Zelder and Burns instead. The boys are ready to get into action, and will warm up this afternoon."

"OUR" BARNEY

"I am glad to be home, but I want to start right in. We will win, I think; at least I hope so. Just watch some of the tricks that 'Brick' has up his sleeves. He is certainly a dandy player, and he is ready at all times with his mit to get them. These boys will surely put up a game."

Honolulu has baseball "plenty" today. Everyone is talking of ball games. The weather didn't chip in at all, and they say the Alameda only alternated between hitting the high places and seeing how far down it was from them to the low places, while on shore it alternated between raining and threatening rain, but a big crowd went to the wharf to see the "champs" from the Coast arrive, and Berger, unabashed by wind or wetness, proudly escorted them to their first resting place ashore.

Tomorrow the visitors are to play. They will just about have time to get over expecting their footing to rise up and imagining that the bleachers, and the balls and bats,—are doing seesaw stunts,—in other words to get their land legs. The crowd will be by far the biggest that has ever attended a ball game here.

"Barney" was naturally the Honolulu hero,—big Barney, whom the bleachers delighted to yell at in past days, and at whom they are going to shout some more, and who has won for Honolulu her first mainland reputation for ball playing. But for Barney's work on the Coast Mique Fisher's bunch would not have come,—it was seeing Barney twirl that first made California begin to think that these little spots on the ocean had some people who knew a bit about the game that makes Americans dippy.

Diamond Head lookout and all the telephone centrals were nearly put out of business during the early morning by inquiries about the Alameda. It got so that when one took down a telephone receiver he heard a gentle voice, not saying "Number please," but "No, she's not sighted yet." At a quarter to ten she was whistled, and that finished the pilikia.

"Oh, Joy!" "Barney!" "Joy!"
