NEW YEAR GREETING TO THE JAPANESE

Hawaii Shingo published a special New Year's edition today, with the following letter from the Acting Governor:

December 21st, 1907.
It gives me great pleasure, at the close of the old and the beginning of the new year, to take pause, and to send greetings to you, and, through your paper, to your countrymen in this Territory.
Not understanding the Japanese language, it is my misfortune that I cannot read your paper. But I am credibly informed that its influence is for good. That it strongly advises industry, stability, good order, thrift and frugality in the large number of your countrymen in Hawaii. It must be that by steady work in the chief industry of these fair islands, the more prosperous the workers will be, and the more prosperous they are, the greater will be the rewards to your merchant and professional classes.

It is with just pride that the men of "light and leading" view the repose and good order of all nationalities in Hawaii. We better ourselves that, though small, we stand as an example to the whole world.
The mild, just and beneficent laws and customs of this Territory know not nationalities nor sects.

No other country in the world spends more money per capita on the education of its youth. The rich and the poor alike contribute willingly to this fund, and they urge insist that the legislature shall appropriate sufficient money that all children shall not be handicapped at the threshold of life for want of education. In this beneficial scheme of education, the Japanese children all take advantage, and, as model pupils, I am told, are excelled by none.

The modern press, properly conducted, has wonderful power for good—no organ of society, except, perhaps the schools has more. In this country, with mixed races, sound and sane counsel and moderation should prevail in journalism.

I believe your merchants have had a fairly prosperous past year.
I hope the coming year will increase that prosperity. Our happy land stands midway between Eastern Asia and Western America, in the vast Pacific. In the vast commerce on this ocean in the near future, we stand at a point of vantage. We welcome increased trade between Japan and the mainland, because the more the friendly commerce and intercourse, the better it will be for us.

For the future let the spirit of increasing friendliness toward Hawaii, of assimilation and good understanding of its laws and customs be your care and object. Hawaii is a good place to live in.

Again, Aloha and greetings, (Signed) E. A. MOTT-SMITH, Acting Governor of Hawaii.

ager, and has been in the Territory since 1900. He offered as witnesses

The funeral of J. S. Bailey, of this city, who was killed on Hawaii early in the week, will take place Sunday afternoon. The body will be brought down on the Kinaiu. The family services will be held at the Bailey residence on Beretania avenue, Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, followed by services at the Odd Fellows hall at 3 o'clock.

Tid Lowrie vs. Baldwin et al $400,- 000 damage suit had another round in Judge Robinson's court yesterday afternoon on the motion introduced recently by some of the defendants who were omitted from the amended complaint of the plaintiff for costs in the case amounting to some $40,000 in all, principally attorney fees. After a good deal of argument this motion was set over until Monday next for argument, as well as a motion on filed for other of the defendants to require the plaintiff to make bond in sum of $15,000 for the further costs in the action.

The United States Marshal's report for the District of Hawaii for the last quarter ending December 31st, which goes by the Asia today for Washington, shows expenditures amounting to $11,419.50. The great increase in work of the local federal court may be surmised from these figures, when it is understood that heretofore the annual expenditures have barely ever exceeded $22,000. This hundred percent increase indicates the reason that the appointment of another Federal judge here is being urged upon Congress, and why the Marshal's office is likely to be given an additional deputy.

In the matter of the condemnation proceedings instituted by the Territory for the land necessary for the opening of Bishop street from King to Merchant, in accordance with requirements of the Federal government in its purchase of the Mahukia property as a Federal building site, an answer was filed yesterday by J. F. Hackfeld and Paul and Heinrich Ehlers, setting forth that they hold a mortgage on the property in question on the Emeluth leasehold, for $15,000 with $50 accrued interest, and they ask that their interest be looked after in case of the transfer of the property to the Territory.

THE ASIA'S CABINS ARE NEARLY EMPTY

LINER FROM THE ORIENT AR-RIVES THIS MORNING WITH ON-LY THREE SALOON PASSENGERS

The smallest cabin list on record characterizes the present trip of the Occidental & Oriental S. S. Asia from the Orient to San Francisco, via this port. She arrived this morning, docking at the Hackfeld wharf at 8:50 o'clock, with three passengers in her saloon, one for Honolulu, the other two going through. Menokichi Sato was the local and Miss B. Richards and H. P. Maders are bound for the Coast.

In the steerage the Asia brought 320 immigrants for Honolulu. She also brought 22 bags of mail and 440 tons of freight. She sails for San Francisco at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

"That the vessel may leave here with a clean bill of health she is in what is termed quarantine, at the Hackfeld wharf, flying the yellow flag, saloon passengers and officers are nevertheless allowed ashore and there are no restrictions against stevedores working cargo.

The Asia sailed from Hongkong on December 14; Shanghai, December 17; Nagasaki, December 19; Kobe, December 22; Yokohama, December 24.

MAY GIVE NEW YEAR SHOW AGAIN

CARNIVAL A GREAT SUCCESS AND MAY BE REPEATED ON WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY.

The baseball carnival was such a big success that there is much talk of repeating the performance, or having another one on somewhat similar lines. Public comment on the New Year's day performance has been full of enthusiastic praise, and everybody concerned is happy over the results of the efforts of the funmakers.

In view of many requests that the performance be given again, a plan is being considered to combine it with the Washington's birthday automobile exhibition. A Gartley has accepted the management of the annual parade, but owing to various difficulties there has been some talk of giving up the parade. It is possible that the auto parade scheme may be combined with a repetition of some of the features of the New Year's day show, to make the coming holiday celebration especially attractive.
