This older brother evidently knows how to play doctor, in real earnest. He knows about Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. His mother told him. Her mother told her, and her grandmother's mother told her mother. It's the one standard cough medicine for children.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is entirely free from narcotics or poison of any kind. It is the great remedy the world over for colds, coughs, croup, whooping-cough, influenza, la grippe, and all bronchial complaints.

Accept no substitute or cheap and worthless imitation. Be sure you get Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Put up in large and small bottles.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass., U.S.A.

Local sportdom was treated to some fine boxing last night, at the monthly boxing matches at the Fort Shafter Athletic Club. Two bouts had been arranged, a six round preliminary between Privates Murphy and Poole of Co. E, and a ten rounder between Private Richardson of Co. G, and Corporal Bird of Co. E.

The first bout was scheduled for seven thirty, but it was some time after eight before the men entered the ring with their seconds, and the master of ceremonies, who introduced two men to those present.

It was agreed that, if both men were standing at the end of the sixth round, the bout should be declared a draw, and as both men were standing it was so decided, but Murphy should have been given the decision as he out-classed Poole at every stage of the same.

Poole looked as he entered the ring that he might be able to do something with his smaller opponent, but as the fight went on any one could see that he knew nothing about the game, in fact his attempted science was about the rankest ever seen here in Honolulu.

Murphy was fresh after six rounds, but Poole was about all in.

The main event of the evening ended by the knock out route in the fifth round, Bird the winner proving that he was in a class by himself compared to Richardson.

Last night was Richardson's first appearance in the local ring, and he did not make good, although he may do better if he is ever matched again with Bird. Bird had the best of it in each round, but allowed the fight to go longer than the spectators thought he would.

A local sport referred the two matches. Among those present at the ringside were, Judge Ballou, Major Dunning, Lieuts. Shipp, Randolph, McCleary, Dr. Hodgins, Asst. U. S. District Attorney Rawlins, Dr. Humphris and Messrs. Evans, Sorenson, Roth, Dixon, Williamson, Cohen, Watson, Walker, Scott, Hertsche, King, Lord, Cooha, the representatives of the press, and many others.

The Outrigger Club will meet at one o'clock today in the rooms of the Promotion Committee.

An unofficial and unauthorized trial trip of the Hawaii was held yesterday afternoon, with a self selected party on board.

The committee expressed great surprise when they learned that the yacht was outside of the harbor, as no permission was given for the run. However she was brought back without carrying away anything, and safely anchored. She will leave tomorrow afternoon at one o'clock with a party of press representatives on board for a spin outside. It is safe to predict that she will behave herself with scribes on board.

"Play ball" tomorrow at the league grounds, and the season of 1908 will be on. The Kams and the Diamond Heads will face each other in the first game, and the Saints and Puns in the second. The odds seems to favor the Saints and the Kams, although the other teams will give them a good run for their money.

As exclusively reported in The Star on Wednesday, the golf match between Austin White, Harold Giffard and Alexander McLaren will be held in the very near future, the date not being definitely decided on.

Benson, Smith & Co., have presented to the Newspaper Baseball League a First Aid cabinet.

The Gladys under command of Captain Beecher followed the Hawaii out yesterday afternoon, but was beaten badly on the run home. This is to be expected however as the Gladys is only a sloop, while the Hawaii is a two-masted schooner.

The Transpacific yacht race of 1908 has proved to be a dream, and as the last day of sleep has passed the sleepers have awakened and found it to be "only an idle dream." The Hawaii, which is the pride of every one in Hawaii, will have to remain where she is until the South Coast Yacht Club decides that enough entries are in to warrant a race. What the fate of the Hawaii will be no one knows, but it is very likely that she will be sold to some one here in the islands who wants a pleasure yacht for island cruising. When a race is called she will probably be made ready for it, and her friends will still find her ready to win the cup for the Territory.

The Kaahumanu school team defeated the preparatory team from Punahou yesterday afternoon on Punahou field by the score of 3-2. Both teams played very good baseball all the way through.

The lovers of baseball in the neighborhood of Palace Square are talking about their annual game, and from all accounts the team representing the Judiciary should have little trouble in defeating the Executives. The game will probably not be played however until some time in the early fall.

Froelcher, who defeated Kanne at the Orpheum two weeks ago, at one time was a training partner of Hackenschmidt, and in that way learned the game of wrestling. This is not generally known about town, as he was afraid if the news came out before his match, that Kanne would be unwilling to meet him.

Lanuma and Shamrock will probably race Sunday morning at the Kapiolani track. The distance will be a quarter of a mile.

At the annual meeting of the Bereania Tennis Club held yesterday, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, A. C. Wall; vice president E. H. Waterhouse; treasurer, R. B. Booth; secretary, R. B. Kietow; captain C. G. Boekus; vice-captain W. L. Warren; auditor, A. J. Lowrey; trustees, D. P. R. Isenberg, D. W. Anderson, S. S. Peck.

A handicap tennis tournament for the Wall cup will be held on May 6. Entries close at E. O. Hall's store on May 5.

Bill Chillingworth the crack pitcher of the Diamond Heads, left last night for Kanaal and he will be unable to pitch for his team tomorrow against the Kams. A wireless was sent last night to Leslie who is also on Kanaal to come down if possible. If he does not arrive in time for the game, Ed Fernandez will probably do the twirling for the Heads.

The regular monthly meeting of the Kamehameha Alumni Association will be held tonight in the club house.

From the advance sales yesterday at the Orpheum for the wrestling match tomorrow night, the house will be too small to take care of the crowd.

The benefit concert and dance which is being given by the local Portuguese for the Hawaii will take place tomorrow night at Lusitana Hall, corner Lunailo and Alapai streets.

The benefit dance of the Kalihl A. C. will be held tomorrow night at K. P. Hall.

The next foursome golf will take place at Moanalua on Sunday, May 10, under the auspices of the Honolulu Golf Club.

NEW JAPANESE THEATER.

A large playhouse, under the title of the Asahi theater, was opened in Chinatown last night with a play based on scenes in the Russo-Japanese war. The theater is modernly equipped with stage facilities and lighting, but the audience accommodations are divided between Japanese and European style. There is room for 1500 auditors and the stage is the largest in town. A Japanese clubhouse will be attached to the theater.

ROOF GARDEN CONCERT.

There will be a public band concert this evening at 8 o'clock at the Alexander Young Hotel roof garden. Following is the program:

PART I.

March, "On Parade".....Bohn
Overture, "Andalusian".....Ellenberg
Rondo, "Lorraine".....Gillet
Selection, "The Lombardians".....Verdi

PART II.

Vocal, Hawaiian Songs, Ar. by Berger
Selection, "The Tattooed Man" Herbert
Waltz, "Lei Hima".....Freitas
March, "The Hula-hula Girl".....Katani
"The Star Spangled Banner."

PUT OUT WITH SELTZER.

Printers, engaged in overhauling summer cottages at the Hotel Rafael, worked so industriously yesterday afternoon burning old paint from the sides of the Watt cottage with gasoline blow lamps that they set fire to the place. A fire alarm was sent in and general excitement prevailed among the guests of the hotel. Before the department put in an appearance, however, Manager Charles Orphan of the hotel arrived on the scene and extinguished the flames with seltzer.—S. F. Examiner.

UNCLE GEORGE'S 91ST BIRTHDAY

Old Guard of Bohemian Club Celebrates Natal Day of Oldest Clubman.

BAD FOOT FORTY ODD YEARS.

W. Consul in China Was the Intimate Friend of Li Hung Chang.

The following account of the celebration of the ninety-first birthday of "Uncle George" Bromley, San Francisco's oldest clubman, is from the Examiner of April 15. It is interesting in itself apart from the pleasure the narrative will give to the many Honolulu acquaintances of "Uncle George."

"Come in, gentlemen. You'll excuse me a minute, will you, until I finish shaving. You see, this is my birthday, and I'm just getting ready for a little dinner party some young friends are to give me this evening at the club. Yes, I'm 91 today; but I don't feel it. Have seats, gentlemen, I'll be through in a minute."

Presently "Uncle George" Bromley followed his voice and, clean shaven, with his coat loosely thrown over his shoulders, appeared to receive the congratulations of his callers.

It wasn't necessary for "Uncle George" to specify the Bohemian Club. When he speaks of the club the Bohemian Club is meant without saying.

NINETY-ONE YEARS YOUNG.

Hale and happy as the days of—well, some years ago—the venerable wit of the Bohemians anticipated a pleasant evening with friends as though the weight of 91 years was down to soften the rarer cares of life.

"I'd feel fine if it wasn't for this bothersome foot of mine," remarked the oldest clubman in the city, as he drew up his easy chair.

"That foot has bothered me off and on for forty-odd years. No, it isn't the gout nor rheumatism. It's the result of an injury in the old Sacramento Valley railroad. That was back in 1855. You know that was the first railroad in this state. I helped to build it, was in charge of the construction and afterward helped to operate it. I was with the road nine years and in 1855 that foot was crushed by the cars.

ARRIVED HERE IN 1850.

Then "Uncle George" grew reminiscent. "There wasn't much here when I came to San Francisco in 1850 as customs officer, with T. Butler King, who was appointed collector, and J. Ross Brown, appraiser. We three came together, sailing in the Crescent City from New York to the isthmus, and then by canoes and pack animals across that neck of land, and again sailing here in the old bark Tennessee. "Just as in these days, a change of administration ousted all of us after three years, and then I went to rail-roading.

CONSUL AT TIEN TSIN.

"Some of my pleasantest recollections are of my service as United States Consul at Tien Tsin, China," continued Mr. Bromley, reflectively, with a proud accent on the "United States." "My best and most intimate friend there was Li Hung Chang, the greatest man China ever had. He was a friend of the United States, too, and my relations with him from 1884 to 1887, while I was in China, and long afterward, were very pleasant indeed.

"This foot makes me depend on that came a good deal," said he, "and I lay it aside whenever I can; people might think I'm getting old."

At the Bohemian Club last evening "Uncle George" was happy indeed. During the day he had received many messages by telephone, telegraph and by letter, all congratulating him on his ninety-first birthday. Among them was a telegram from Boston, from his old friends Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clay Barnaby.

At the club he met and broke bread with many of the Old Guard in the red room, the guests of that other Bohemian prince, Raphael Weill.

"The Old Guard are the members who belonged when the club rooms were at Sacramento and Webb streets, and I joined it in 1873, a year after it was organized," explained Mr. Bromley.

"OLD GUARD" STILL ACTIVE.

Fifteen of the "Old Guard" were present at the Bromley dinner last evening. Beneath the canopy of apple blossoms and roses and among the blossoms and ferns all about, at the table in the red room, sat these Old Guard members: "Uncle George" Bromley, Raphael Weill, Colonel Alexander G. Hawes, R. H. Bloomer, Dr. Benjamin R. Swan, John Landers, Hugh M. Burke, General Lucius H. Foote, David Bush, Senator Jeremiah Lynch, Samuel D. Mayer, Peter Robertson, Ben Clarke, George H. Malter and J. N. H. Irwin.

The other guests were: Mayor Taylor, Brig. Gen. Funston, Dr. F. W. Shields, H. Merou, Consul General of France, Louis Sloss, James G. Walker, Dr. F. K. Ainsworth, Chauncey M. St.

BIG START BY A NEW CONCERN

CONSTRUCTION AND DRAYING CO. JUST FORMED HAS IMPORTED THIRTY FINE DRAFT HORSES.

The Honolulu Construction and Draying Company, which was recently incorporated, is rapidly getting into shape where it will be able to handle the biggest work which will be done in the islands. Its plant is already as complete as that of any company in the city, but is by no means completed as yet. With a modern stable, ten new drays which will carry from six to twenty tons each, a machinery truck which can handle a forty tons load with the greatest of ease, the new company is in a position to break into the field here with a future already assured.

The stables of the Honolulu Construction and Draying Company are in Kakaako, directly behind the Honolulu Brewery and have been erected with a view to the most sanitary and economical conditions. The building is two stories in height, with the stalls for the horses on the ground floor and the warehouses on the second. The feed for the horses is kept on the second floor and fed to the animals through chutes which allow them to have all they wish. Below the rack to which these chutes lead, is a trough in which all the hay which the animals drop is caught, so that none whatever is wasted. The grain fed to the animals is also fed from above, being poured through a funnel and passing directly down to the boxes in the stalls.

The stables which have been built will accommodate the thirty fine draft horses which the company now owns and many of which have just been brought down from the Coast, weighing from 1,500 to 1,800 pounds apiece. Work will be started at once on other stables which will give room for twenty more horses. The stalls for the animals are cool, clean and well lighted, and compare very favorably with the best stables of the kind to be seen on the mainland.

John, F. W. Hall, T. S. Wilson, L. S. Sherman, Judge Ralph C. Harrison, Archibald Barnard, General S. W. Backus, Dr. L. Denis Arnold, A. J. Brittan, W. B. Metson, W. B. Hopkins, Vanderlyn Stow, Julius Sonntag, Prof. H. Morse Stephens, Dr. Louis Lissor, Abe Stern, Sig. Stern, F. Tillman Jr., Dr. T. W. Huntington, Judge Henry A. Melvin, Judge Fred W. Henshaw, A. S. Halstead, James D. Phelan, Willard E. Barton, Lewis Hanchett, Dr. Lewis Deane.

At the close of the dinner "Uncle George" and Raphael Weill sang a duet in French, and later, with Dr. Swan, the venerable clubman sang in English.

Letters of congratulation were read from President Benjamin Ide Wheeler, Judge W. W. Morrow, Mayor Taylor and others. Addresses were made by Judge Henshaw, General Funston, Dr. Shields, Professor Stephens, General Foote and others.

CHIVALRY.

And would you marry me if I were a poor girl, working for a living? asked the heiress. "Darling," responded the accepted suitor, "it wouldn't be fair. You'd be doing enough in supporting yourself."—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

VERY IMPORTANT.

It is very important that women should avoid constipation. It predisposes and aggravates every symptom of female weakness. Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills cure Constipation by strengthening the nerves and muscles of the stomach which digest the food. The result is a gentle, natural movement of the bowels. For children they have no equal. At druggists.

Professor (awakening)—"Is there anybody in this room?"
Burglar—"No, sir."
Professor—"Oh, I thought there was." (Falls asleep again.)—The Jewish Ledger.
