CHINESE JILTS JAPANESE WIDOW

MRS. KIM ASKS $20,000 BALM FOR WOUNDED HEART.

NEW YORK, March 28.—Mrs. Ruth Kim, a young, petite, rosy checked Japanese widow, has brought suit against Jim Fook, proprietor of a Chinese restaurant for breach of promise. Her lawyer, places the heart damage at $20,000. Papers have been served on Fook, but the date trial is not yet set.

"Fook asked my brother-in-law, Wallie Wong, an interpreter, to introduce him. He took me to the theatre frequently. We were to be married Thanksgiving Day."

"On Nov. 12, when I returned from a visit to relatives in Boston, are both blondes, and have that charming manner which the Southern girls are noted for.

Dr. and Mrs. Harvey Murray have decided to remain at their town residence, instead of moving out to Wai-kiki.

Judge and Mrs. Selden B. Kingsbury entertained at tea on Wednesday afternoon for a number of their old friends in Idaho who are here now in Honolulu. Those present during the afternoon were Judge and Mrs. R. P. Quarles, and Judge and Mrs. James H. Beatty.

Miss Sargent of New York, who will visit Princess Kawananakoa during the summer, will arrive here the later part of May or the first part of June. It is safe to predict that she will be very much admired here as she is very popular with the younger set in New York.

Mrs. Campbell-Parker and Colonel Sam Parker will leave in the Siberia for the coast on May 9. The Misses Muriel and Beatrice Campbell will meet them in San Francisco and will spend their vacation with them, returning to their school in the East late in the summer.

Richard M. Isenberg and Mrs. Isenberg entertained a number of their relatives and friends at dinner Wednesday night at the Young Hotel.

he insisted that I act as cashier and waitress of his restaurant and that I move my furniture to rooms over his place. Then Jim grew cold and kept putting off the wedding day. The reason for his change was a mystery until Dec. 12. I found him smoking cigarettes with an old sweetheart, an American girl. Then he told me he wouldn't marry me and to pack my things and go. He has broken my heart."

Jim Fook, at his restaurant, near Twenty-second street said:

"Me no promise to marry her. Me only hire her waitress for $7 week. She only want make trouble."

ed on the Seaside Hotel courts on Kalaheua avenue between George Fairchild and Mrs. Harry Macfarlane, and Dr. Smith and Alice Macfarlane. The result of the match is unknown, but judging from the play it must have been very closely contested.

Miss Marlon Roth, who was one of the choruses in "Ma Cherie" on Thursday night, looked very chic and pretty, and it is to be hoped that she will be seen more in amateur plays, as she has more than the ordinary amount of experience necessary to make a success on the stage.

It is quite possible that she will study in the East, and some day may be seen before the footlights, as she has a voice that is very well adapted to the stage.

Society in its best bib and tucker were on hand Tuesday night at the Young Hotel to hear Mrs. Mackall and those that helped with her, at one of the most successful recitals that has been given by her in Honolulu. Everyone who took part deserves the greatest credit for the way they performed and it was the unanimous opinion of everyone present that the Mackall recitals should be given more frequently.

Among those that I saw during the evening were Princess Kawananakoa, Mrs. Campbell-Parker, Mrs. Judge Kingsbury and the Judge, the Castles, Cookes, Lowreys, Athertons and many others.

Major and Mrs. W. W. Haan have moved out from the Seaside to quarters at Fort Shafter.

Miss Ethel Amweg, who is well known here, was one of Governor Gillett's party which met the Atlantic battleship fleet at San Diego.

It is quite possible that Mrs. Alfred Vanderbilt and Mrs. Phillip Lydig will visit here shortly, as they are contemplating a trip to the Orient. Capt. Lydig will probably be in the party. He is very well known here, having visited here several times.

At the dinner given on Monday night at the Young Hotel by Richard M. Isenberg in honor of the employees of Hackfeld & Co., the following were present: W. Lanz, Geo. Rodiek, Wm. Frotzenhauer, R. Gussfeld, B. von Damm, A. J. Blackman, F. J. Linderman, P. C. Cleghorn, E. G. Dulsberg, H. J. Holmes, C. Kaaten, J. Bayer, P. Bartels, G. B. Isenberg, A. Humburg, H. Lemke, F. C. Lyser, O. Buchholtz, C. Bayer, H. Hagens, C. S. Weight, C. Dunkhase, C. Reinecke, A. C. Spohler, A. Constabel, H. Schmitz, H. Hugo, C. du Roi, C. J. Bomke, F. Baering, P. Heise and H. Rose.

Touring the island a la motor, is becoming quite the rage these days, and hardly a day passes that some member of the smart set does not take advantage of the fine weather, to enjoy Oahu in all its variety of colors and gorgeous scenery. Among those that have gone around this week have been Gen. and Mrs. Pratt, S. A. Duke and Miss Marguerite Duke, W. M. Giffard and party, Dr. Brinckhoff, Harold Castle and quite a number of the lovers of the motor.

The roof garden of the Young Hotel last night looked like it used to look a few years ago, as a large gathering of the smart set was on hand to hear the Hawaiian band in a special concert.

Captain Andrew J. Dougherty, U. S. A., who married Miss Martha Atong, has been appointed Governor of Santiago province in Cuba.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton J. Hutchins left last night by the Nevada for San Francisco, where they will reside in the future.

The Walkers moved into their Nuanu home last week, after several months stay at the Bishop home at Wai-kiki.

Quite a large number of local society, as well as a large number of the Army and Navy, were present at the two dances given at the Seaside this past week, in honor of the officers and ladies on board the Crook. The Seaside has not been as popular of late as it was in Fred Church's time, but it will probably be one of the places when the fleet arrives.

The Walter Macfarlanes and their children are uncertain as to their departure for the coast, but they will probably leave shortly, touring California in their "50" Studebaker.

Miss Lorna Iaukea, one of the most popular girls in the younger set, has improved very much in her golf of late, and when the ladies' tournament at the Country Club is held she will probably have little trouble in winning.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rodiek gave a small dinner party at their beautiful Nuanu home Thursday night, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Isenberg.

Quite a number of luncheon and bridge parties have been given this week for Mrs. Widdfield by her old friends in Honolulu.

Mrs. E. D. Tenney entertained informally a few of her friends at luncheon on Wednesday, in honor of Mrs. Mary Widdfield. As Mrs. Tenney is still in mourning for Mrs. Spalding, her sister, the lunch was only for her most intimate friends.

Miss Dixie and Miss Helen Quarles, the charming daughters of Judge Quarles, are becoming very popular with the younger set in town. They CONCERT AND DANCE TONIGHT.

The concert and dance to be given by the Kallhi Athletic Club this evening at K. of P. hall will be a swell affair. A number of local talents has kindly given their services to the Club for the sake of sports. Miss Alice Nahaolelua, who had just returned from the Coast where she had been attending school, will give a piano solo. This is the first time this young lady has ever appeared before the Honolulu public, and it would be worth the price of admission to hear her play. Every lover of sports should not miss this opportunity of helping this club along.

Will Sailor Roberts be able to defeat Mitsuka at the Orpheum tonight? That is the question of the hour. Roberts returned with the U. S. S. Froquois last night feeling in perfect fettle. He trained hard while at sea and took the best of care of himself. He will go on the mat weighing 180 pounds.

Mitsuka wound up his training at the Orpheum last night. Isorashi and Mashikiyama, two of the best Japanese wrestlers in Honolulu, worked with the champion and they went at it in grim earnest.

Mitsuka appeared to toy with his men and half an hour's hard work did not appear to distress him in the slightest degree. He will weigh about 195 pounds tonight.

Mitsuka is a wonderfully strong man and some time ago for a wager carried a sack of sugar in one hand from the Railway wharf to River street. His training has been of a strenuous nature and every day he has skipped the rope 1000 times in the morning and 500 times in the afternoon.

Favoritism is evenly divided between the two men. Both are strong and willing and may be relied upon to fight to a finish. Mitsuka's great strength will be about evenly offset by Robert's cleverness. It is an exceedingly hard match to pick the winner of. It is not improbable that the men will tug and pull for an hour before a fall is obtained.

Mitsuka has reduced a few pounds in weight, thanks to the road work he has been doing. Also his wind has improved greatly. His trainers have been particularly careful in this respect, for they realize that the bout may be a long drawn out one in which condition will be an absolute essential toward winning.

The Japanese will be out in force tonight to cheer their man with loud banzais and if he wins there will be unlimited joy in Japanese town.

It is expected that there will be a big war flashed at the theatre tonight which will say that Mitsuka wins.

Should Mitsuka win tonight a cable will be sent to Froelcher in San Francisco asking him to return to wrestle Mitsuka.

There are few instances on record where a white man has been pitted against a Japanese in a wrestling bout and in the contests which have taken place between these two nationalities, the white man has almost invariably won.

The first number on the program will be a wrestling bout between Isorashi and Ishimoto, best two falls out of three. Then Mashikiyama and Akiraka will try conclusions under the same conditions.

A four-round boxing exhibition between Young Scott and Al Heine will come next and as both boys are keen on the game and anxious to make a good showing, the four rounds should be full of go and interest.

After the boxing the winners of the two preliminary wrestling bouts will meet for the wrestling championship of the Territory, Japanese rules, with Mitsuka barred. Isorashi is strongly fancied to win the money and title.

The main event will follow and in it fifteen minutes rest will be allowed between falls.

Harry Cobb will referee and H. M. Ayres will act as master of ceremonies.

be seen again this year with a Punahou uniform on, and from accounts he is even better than he was last year.

The line up of the Saints this afternoon will be nearly the same as the old H. A. C. team of 1906.

A new interscholastic baseball league with Aloalo College, Punahou, High School and Kaahumanu schools as entrants is being talked of.

Charlie George, who is chairman of the foot-ball committee, is an old college player of some note, and will probably don the moleskins when the fleet is here.

The "Hawaii," with the transpacific yacht committee, her amateur crew, and the representatives of the press on board, will slip her moorings promptly at one o'clock this afternoon, and will take a trial spin outside of the harbor, to see that everything is in working order, in the event of her being sent up to San Pedro to bring back the coveted cup for Hawaii.

From all reports she works very well, her special forte being her ability to work up to windward, being able to point up higher than it was expected she would.

The opening games of the big league will take place this afternoon on the league grounds commencing at two o'clock, the first game being played between the Kams and the Diamond Heads. Fernandez and Reuter will do the twirling for their teams, while Hampton, Joy and Williams will do the same for the Puns and the Saints.

The grounds have been put in first class condition, and when Bert Bowers calls "Play ball," the seating capacity will no doubt be taxed to its utmost capacity.

The annual field day under the auspices of the Boys' Club on the Boys' Field this afternoon promises to be one of the most interesting events of its kind held this year. The entries are about double those last year, and it is to be hoped that some of the track records will at least be equaled.

The first event will start promptly at two thirty. The following officials have been chosen to act at the meet.

Referee—Paul Super. Clerk of Course—R. V. Mitchell, J. F. O'Brien.

Scorer—E. B. Blanchard. Timekeepers—J. Nott, H. W. Chamberlain.

Judges—Track: Ed Towse, G. Waterhouse, D. Voeller. Field: Theo. Richards, J. C. Davis, P. J. Thompson. Announcer—R. W. Greene. Starter—E. H. Hand. Marshal—L. B. Reeves.

Eddie Tait is very anxious to fight Bird at Fort Shafter for a substantial purse, either in a ten round bout or a finish fight.

One week from tomorrow the Newspaper baseball league will open its season on the league grounds, and it is safe to say that there will be some good fast games before the championship is decided. The first game will be between the Advertiser and Star teams, and the second between the Bulletin and the Mercantiles.

The local cricketers are looking forward to a very successful season as they are very much elated over their victory against the Aorangi team.

When the fleet is here they also expect to add more laurels, but they will have to play some, as there are some good cricketers on board the battleships.

GANS WANTS TO FIGHT NELSON.

Ben Selig, manager for Joe Gans, uttered a belated ultimatum last night that the dark skinned mitt artist would be willing to meet Nelson in either a 20 or a 45 round mill and that the purse must be divided 75 per cent to the winner and 25 per cent to the loser. In the event of a 45 round contest, Selig says he will insist on a $5,000 side bet, the cash to be deposited with John T. Clark.

Tom McCarey, the Los Angeles fight promoter, is giving the telegraph wires from the south an awful play in an endeavor to induce Battling Nelson to make the trip to the orange belt for the purpose of meeting Phil Brock, the lightweight who recently slipped one over on George Menzies. Nelson, however, is not overanxious to fight for McCarey and, after reading over a bunch of the southern magnate's telegrams last night, he wired Mac that he would take a flier at Brock provided he is guaranteed $5,000 for his bit, win, lose or draw.

Such purses as these are not usually hung up in the trees of the southern village, so it is a foregone conclusion that McCarey will be ready to throw 40 fits before he consents to come through so freely to the Battler. Unless he gets his price Nelson will not waste any time in going to Los Angeles. He has too many good matches in prospect around here at the present time and he can afford to pass Los Angeles up.—San Francisco Call, April 25.

SHORTRIDGE FINED $500.

SAN JOSE, April 24.—Judge Welch of the superior court this morning fined ex-Senate Senator Charles M. Shortridge, editor of the San Jose Times, $500 for having libeled Congressman E. A. Hayes. As the court inflicted no jail alternative, there is no way of enforcing the payment of the fine should Shortridge choose to ignore the sentence.

Bill Hampton, who so successfully captained the All Hawaii team against the Fisher All Star team last year, will
