MILITARY HONORS FOR GARFIELD

Secretary of the Interior Garfield will be received with military honors when he arrives at Honolulu on June 16, as a passenger on the battleship Maine. The arrangements will be made by Acting Governor E. A. Mott-Smith, who has cabled to Governor Frear for further information in regard to the dates on which he and the Secretary are to arrive. It is expected that Frear will get here by the Manchuria on June 15, and that Garfield will reach port the next day on the Maine.

A cablegram was received this morning from C. H. McBride, stating that Frear was at the Auditorium hotel, Chicago, and would leave for the West at 5 o'clock this afternoon. McBride expects to return on the transport sailing on June 5.

AFFINITY PROFESSOR IS OUSTED FROM UNIVERSITY.

Cincinnati Trustees Act Promptly When Bawden Does Not Resign.

CINCINNATI, May 25.—The resignation of Professor H. H. Bawden from the chair of philosophy in the University of Cincinnati not having been received, as demanded by resident Dabney, that chair has been formally declared vacant by the university trustees. In a statement issued today, the trustees explain their action was taken unanimously. They say that Professor Bawden came here on false pretenses, after being dismissed from Vassar, and they declare his "manner of life, as well as his teaching, is destructive of the family, the foundation of human society."

KEKAUOHA SUED

Mrs. Jennie Kekauoha, of Kaneohe, has entered suit for divorce against her husband George J. Kekauoha, once the leading member of the stormon settlement on the other side of the island and deputy sheriff. He is at present in jail serving a sentence of nine months for violation of the Edmunds Act. The libel recites this fact and uses it as the ground for the petition. Mrs. Kekauoha is not represented by any attorney in the libel.

GOOD FIGHT.

The rumor is around the town that President Roosevelt's opinion of the prize fight situation here has been obtained. It is said that a local man called the President asking for his opinion on the subject and received the answering question: "Was it a GOOD fight?"

A STATE FUNERAL

ACTING GOVERNOR IS CONSULTING THE WIDOWED PRINCESS KAWANAKOHA ON MATTER.

In all probability a state funeral will take place shortly after the arrival of the Manchuria which will bring back the body of Prince David Kawananakoa, who died yesterday in San Francisco. Acting-Governor Mott-Smith has the matter in hand and will call on Princess Kawananakoa this afternoon and inquire what her wishes are in this regard.

The last funeral of this kind was held on July 2, 1899, when the body of Queen Kapiolani was laid to rest. This was after the annexation, but before Hawaii was a Territory, and Mott-Smith was at that time Minister of Foreign Affairs.

THE PROVIDENT PAID AT ONCE

INSURANCE COMPANY'S LIBERAL TREATMENT OF A CLAIM INVOLVED IN TECHNICALITY.

Full payment has been made through Bishop's Insurance Agency of the life insurance policy held by the late Frank L. Hoogs, in the Provident Savings Life Assurance Society. The amount of the policy paid was $7,394.70, and this sum was duly paid over some time ago. Owing to an oversight by which a payment of premium had been deferred, the company might have made a technical defense against paying his claim and might have successfully contested it. Upon submission of the matter to headquarters, however, the Providence company ordered the full payment made without delay, and Mrs. Hoogs has received the money accordingly. The course of the company is a source of considerable satisfaction to numerous local holders of its policies.

DRIVEN BY DREAM

TO SEEK DEATH.

CHICAGO, May 25.—Visions of her father writhing in a sea of brimstone which came to Florence A. Ferran, 20 years old, a follower of the fanatical religion of Perhamites, so preyed upon her mind that she killed herself. Miss Ferran's family is prominent in the Perham cult at Zion City.

The girl believed that her father was condemned to eternal torment, according to the divine revelations that she imagined she had received. She told all this to her father and pleaded with him to abandon the life he had been leading. A violent quarrel resulted from her argument with her parent and she drank wood alcohol and then drowned herself.

Miss Ferran was a friend of Chester Gillette, who was electrocuted in New York for the murder of "Billy" Brown in New York.

WOMAN'S BOARD.

Two sessions of the Woman's Board of Missions were held yesterday at its annual meeting in Central Union Church. Mrs. W. W. Hall conducted a twenty-minute devotional service and before proceeding to business a solo by Mrs. Frank C. Atherton was enjoyed. Many satisfactory reports of the board's work at home and abroad were received and discussed. Dr. Bradley and Mr. Kilbourne, the latter a Hawaiian missionary descendant, addressed the gathering. Dr. Scudder pronounced the benediction.

ALAMEDA'S FULL LOAD

THE OCEANIC FERRYBOAT TAKES LARGE CARGO AND MANY PASSENGERS FOR COAST.

With a full cargo of sugar, rice, coffee, bananas, pineapples and miscellany, 48 cabin and 30 steerage passengers, the Oceanic steamship Alameda sailed from the Oceanic wharf at 10 o'clock this morning for San Francisco. The wharf was packed with friends of the departing and the Hawaiian band attended, playing at least two pieces that it does not play every day.

The Reverend Hiram Bingham, patriarchal missionary, translator, teacher and authority on local historical facts, was among those leaving, there being many to bid him bon voyage. I. P. Newsome, who recently arrived from Midway Island, where he was cable operator, goes to Texas to visit his mother. A. K. Virgil, accompanied by his wife, the musical physician who has been giving talks and demonstrations here, was another departure. A. G. M. Robertson and wife also left. Robertson was a string of onions, an onion lei, a thoughtful contribution from the Onion Club of which he is the distinguished president. He goes to the Republican National Convention.

C. A. Brown and wife, H. Rosenberg, C. D. Miner, Mrs. C. J. Cooper, Captain J. R. Parker, H. W. Prouty and Mr. and Mrs. R. Sharp, children and maid were others going to the coast. There were numerous Portuguese in the steerage.

THE TAMENESS OF MAGELLAN.

According to Robert Dunn, Harper's Weekly's special correspondent with the battleship fleet, the much-dreaded passage of the Straits of Magellan was not a very awe-inspiring matter, after all. Many wise heads had been shaken over the prospect of taking sixteen huge warships through the supposedly perilous and ill-famed straits. Even some naval circles imagined, says Mr. Dunn, that the vessels would run Magellan one at a time—that is, separated from each other by the tide interval (six hours), on account of what the writers have described as the "violent snow squalls which make it difficult to keep one's bearing and position, and bad currents, where two ships caught near together, and in a snow squall of any duration, might be dangerous to one another." The fleet did not pass through singly, but in exact column, at regular intervals (four hundred yards from bow to bow of each ship), as a four-ship American squadron had done before—in 1892. The top speed of about 10.25 knots an hour was not once relaxed, even in the gale and dense drizzle of the six-hour run from Astrol Rock to Pillar, the stormiest end of the pass. Mr. Dunn disclaims, he says, "any idea of throwing water on a fine achievement. Surely we did enter the channels at the finest season, and maybe with the good luck—Evans luck, Roosevelt luck—that has followed the cruise so relentlessly, perhaps so dishearteningly to some natures. Nothing

HULAS FOR FLEET

Mrs. Puuhii, the president of the pa-ridders' club, has announced that she will see that the visitors on the fleet have a chance to see all the hulas they wish. She has arranged for ten of the best hula dancers in the island to give exhibitions throughout fleet week and is to have regular practice commenced now so that the dancers may be in the best of condition.

Mrs. Puuhii states that her pa-ridders will not ride in parade on June 11, Kamehameha Day, out of respect to the recent death of Prince David Kawananakoa.

POLICE COURT.

Twelve cases besides the Breckon, Ah Sam and Willis cases, were on the calendar this morning at Police Court. Liquor cases took up the entire morning, court not adjourning until twelve o'clock. Takataharu was found guilty of selling booze without a license and was fined $100 and costs. T. Uokoa, for the same offense, was less fortunate, being fined $250 and costs. I. Saka, for the same thing, was found not guilty and discharged. Ilirooka was found guilty of assault and battery and was fined $11. En Nee Wong was sent to the Boys' Industrial School for the rest of his minority for being a confirmed truant from school.

Sam Kahi was found guilty of burglary and sentenced to one year in prison. Two drunks netted the Territory $3. The rest of the cases were either nolle prossed or continued.

fell out in the frantic way, according to book, for these parts; Cape Cross-tide should have been lined with wrecks, but wasn't; the scenery should have been 'grand and wild,' but it was trivial beside Norway, insignificant beside Alaska."

HALEIWA AND WAHAWA.

The most delightful ride in this section of the Territory is that between Honolulu and Haleiwa with a side trip to Wahiawa where the pineapples are now ripening. You can make this in an automobile without tiring and get to Haleiwa in ample time for lunch or, if you make an afternoon trip of it, in time for a splendid dinner for which Manager Bidgood is famed. There is much to see on the run and the trip is growing more popular every day. The number of public automobiles in Honolulu make the journey possible. If you are going in a party and want special dishes for your meal, telephone Mr. Bidgood before you leave town.
