CANDIDATE SHERMAN SERIOUSLY ILL

PACIFIC QUEEN HERE AND WILL RECEIVE TODAY

T. K. K. Co's MAGNIFICENT NEW S. S. TENYO MARU, CAPTAIN GOING, ARRIVES 8 DAYS AND 5 HOURS FROM YOKOHAMA. ANNOUNCING APPROACH BY WIRELESS AND TALKING WITH THE BATTLESHIPS—OPEN FOR INSPECTION THIS AFTERNOON.

Eight days and five hours from Yokohama, on her maiden trans-Pacific trip without a stop of her turbines or without a hitch of any kind, the Toyo Kisen Kaisha's magnificent new, fifteen-thousand-ton, triple-screw, turbine steamship Tenyo Maru, Captain Philip H. Going, commander, this morning docked at the Hackfeld wharf and landed twenty-four passengers for Honolulu and started the discharge of 700 tons of general Oriental freight.

The Tenyo announced her approach by wireless last evening to the Naval station when about 120 miles out and her operator, Mr. J. M. Owada, the great vessel's radiotelegraph director, a Tokyo expert in wireless, kept sparking all night, talking with the United States Naval station here, the U. S. cruiser St. Louis, in the harbor, Barber's Point station of the Wireless Telegraph Company, the Matson Navigation S. S. Company's Lurline, in this port, and the United States battleships Maine and Alabama which left here yesterday morning for Guam and home to Hampton Roads, via Suez.

The battleships were passed by the Tenyo and the Maine ethergraphed congratulations to the Tenyo on her successful maiden trip, the Tenyo wretches back a "bon voyage." At the Kahuku station the operator in charge could hear the others talking, but himself, the station lacking power as yet, could not talk back.

As the Tenyo was gliding to the wharf this morning, where hundreds were on hand to meet her, Mr. Owada was talking with the operator on the St. Louis, exchanging news of the world and receiving compliments on the Japanese boat's passage.

The wireless system used aboard the Tenyo is that in use by the Department of Communication of the Imperial Japanese Government and her operator, as are other Japanese officers of the Tenyo, is a naval reserve man. The system used was invented by Messrs. Okuka Asano and M. Saito, engineers of the Department of Communication, I. J. G. Mr. Asano represented the Japanese Department of Communication at the International Wireless Telegraph Conference at Berlin two years ago.

The Tenyo has a system installed which will convey messages about 150 miles. It is a one-kilowatt plant.

The passengers, up to 120 miles out, sent messages ashore to Tokyo, Yokohama and other Japanese ports, receiving answers. On the next trip of the Tenyo a daily wireless paper will be published, or rather the paper printed aboard will contain wireless news of the world as long as the vessel is in touch by ether. When the long-distance station at Kahuku, this island, is complete, the Tenyo will be able to keep in touch with the world continuously.

Seventy-five cents is charged for messages of five words, each additional word being fifteen cents.

Chief Engineer Seaver of the Tenyo is indeed satisfied with the behavior of the big turbine on the way over. He was ordered from headquarters to keep her on an average of 17 knots.

During the best day's run, when 426 knots were logged in 23 hours and 25 minutes, the average for the period was about 18.62 knots per hour.

Captain Going is justly proud of his immense and magnificent charge.

Her purser is G. Lucy Goodrich, the man with the right name for the ship, who is as well known and as popular in this city as he is with the travelers across the Pacific. Freight Clerk A. S. Edwards is another much liked man, known here, and other officers are: Chief Officer H. Hinokuma, long with the company and a splendid officer; Chief Engineer A. H. Seaver, than whom it would be difficult to find a more careful or better trained man in all the oceans; Surgeon N. P. Crooks, who is also librarian, and Assistant Freight Clerk W. R. Reid.

Mrs. Kirkpatrick, formerly of the Hongkong Maru, is Chief Stewardess.

Taking the place of those disembarking here, the Tenyo Maru will take on about a score of stop-over passengers hence to San Francisco. She will therefore have 158 cabin passengers to land on the coast. For Honolulu she brought 99 Japanese, one Chinese and 14 Hindus, steerage. She found one stowaway aboard after leaving Yokohama.

This afternoon there will be a grand reception aboard the Tenyo, when the ship will be thrown open to the Honolulu public for inspection between 1 and 5 o'clock. The Hawaiian band will give a concert and Hawaiian stringed instruments will also take part. The reception given at Yokohama was a stupendous affair and for a day the vessel was alive with thousands who swarmed over her. Black hands were painted on the partitions throughout the ship, pointing out the route through the vessel that should be taken by visitors in order that they might not lose their way and to keep the crowd from running into itself.

GREETING FROM AUSTRALASIA

THE IMMIGRATION LEAGUE OF AUSTRALASIA SENDS A MESSAGE OF REJOICING AT THE COMING VISIT OF THE AMERICAN FLEET—WILL BE FIRST MEETING OF TWO PEOPLES FROM SAME GRAND OLD STOCK.

The Immigration League of Australasia, Bull's Chambers, 14 Moore street, Sydney, May 29, 1908.

Sir,—A letter published by you some time ago from this voluntary organization of citizens, who are actuated by feelings of good will and friendship towards America, has resulted in such a stream of letters expressing great sympathy with this small attempt to make Americans and Australians more known to one another, that it will take some time to answer them all, therefore, Sir, permit me to reply, in the first place, through the columns of your widely read journal.

Our previous letter was to say how glad we were to hear that our invitation for your fleet to visit us was received by you with such feelings of pleasure.

Now we have the satisfaction of knowing that your great fleet is actually coming and will arrive on our coasts in August.

It will be a great day for Australia. It will be the first meeting of two peoples sprung in the main from the same grand old stock, and representing countries where the same language is spoken, where religious toleration and liberty of speech are the right of everyone, and where all men are equal.

It seems impossible that people with so much in common, origin, birth, speech, freedom of thought in all matters, can mingle without being drawn to one another.

And in addition to all these known interests of years standing, does not the fact stand out clear cut and final that we are both bordering on that Pacific Ocean, which only a short time back was a silent lake, but is now habitable to be turned at any moment into a sea of carnage and slaughter by the sudden uprise of an oriental power. Australia has spoken strongly on this Asiatic question. She won't have them in her territory at any price.

The Pacific slopes of Canada have

There will, of course, be no such crusade here, but there will, nevertheless, be a great gathering. Kaul's Glee Club will play and there will be refreshments. Then the visitors will have an opportunity of roaming through luxurious parlors, saloons, lounging rooms, retreats, bridal and party suites, reception and smoking rooms and dining and social halls, great rooms where birdseye maple, silk, stained glass, German silver, crystal, satin, oak, Brussels and other rich materials are the furnishings, where the feet sink silent in the heaviness of the carpets and where the body longs to sample every sofa, couch, pillow, lounge and tapestry, such charm is there in the tissue and the fabric, in the color scheme and the luxury of it all.

All the esthetic elegance of Orient and Occident are blended in the artistic murals, panels and furnishings. But the public may see for itself this afternoon. To describe it all would be to upset Aladdin's lamp and set a dreamland ablaze.

She sails at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

spoken equally strongly. And we know the feelings of the great American Republic. Let the English speaking peoples bordering on the Pacific bear these things in mind, and they will see that apart from all other considerations, this great question of reserving for themselves the right to say who shall enter their territories and who shall not, must tend to draw them closer together.

Your fleet will be the most impressive array of the modern fighting machine that Australia has ever seen.

We trust that in addition to binding the peoples together, one great result of the visit will be to fill the minds of Australians with a desire to go and do likewise and have a navy of their own.

Finally, we hear that thousands of American farmers are crossing into Canada and we feel that we would like some of them to come to Australia instead. We have the finest climate in the world, where men can work and stock graze in the open all the year round. We have fertile lands awaiting the plough, we have country for dairying and fruit-growing that cannot be beaten. And Australia is the great mineral country. There is gold, silver, copper, lead and tin everywhere, and our mineral wealth has only been scratched. There are abundant opportunities both for the capitalist and the prospector.

Again, since we have gone in for high tariff, there is plenty of room for the enterprising manufacturer, and American business men should look closely to the chances for starting new industries in this continent.

Again reminding you that the Immigration League of Australasia, 14 Moore street, Sydney, will be always glad to hear from American citizens and supply more detailed information about Australia and New Zealand.

I am, etc.

VENOUR NATHAN,
Hon. Secretary.

CHAIRMEN MAY TALK

THE HOOKUP TO THE FLEET WILL BE HELD MONDAY AFTER ARRIVAL.

The executive committee and some of the chairmen of the different sub-committees met this afternoon in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce, those present being G. R. Carter, L. T. Peck, G. W. Smith, J. P. Cooke, J. F. Morgan, F. L. Waldron, J. A. McCandless, H. P. Wood, W. F. Dillingham, Alexander Young, W. C. Woodon, J. W. Jones.

The matter of allowing the chairmen of the sub-committees to become members of the executive committee was taken up and freely discussed, but no action except to extend a cordial reception to the chairmen at the daily meetings, with a vote but no vote, was taken today. J. P. Cooke, who had made the motion to admit them, withdrew his motion.

W. F. Dillingham for the committee reported that his committee was working hard to complete the work before it, and that they intended to have the hookup on the Monday after the fleet arrived.

July 16 and 24 were appointed the days for the display of fire works. The Aloha postal card was adopted, and the sum of $110 was appropriated for the printing of 20,000 of them.

The chairman was asked to interview Captain Ross relative to the
