AYER'S Sarsaparilla

has been the source of good health to many thousands of people in all parts of the world. Their testimonials come in by every post. They all assert the great fact—'Ayer's Sarsaparilla cured me.' Weak, weary women, men who had been tired out and discouraged,—all write gratefully of the good it has done them.

There is a lesson for you in this. Why not heed it? Begin at once to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

As now made, it contains no alcohol.

There are many imitation Sarsaparillas. Be sure you get "Ayer's."

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass., U.S.A. AYER'S PILLS, the best family laxative.

CONGO ROOFING

Never Leak. It is the fruit of years of experience in roofing materials. It is something new in the same sense that the great turbine steamers are new. And as such superior to other roofings as the turbines are to the "Clamont" which Robert Fulton sent up the Hudson.

The plans for the reception of the Pacific fleet do not appear to be moving very rapidly which comes as the result of the suggestion received from the commanding officer that it would be better to wait till the return from Samoa for the public receptions. During the coming ten days that he war vessels will be here the officers will be entertained privately, for they have many friends here as the result of the stay of the Big Four last year. Still there will be many disappointments as many of the officers on the West Virginia, Maryland and Pennsylvania have been changed. Butler, Lay, Fremont, Kittinger and many others who were social favorites in this city have gone to other vessels and will not be seen here.

The committee of ladies, of which Mrs. Walter F. Frear is the head, meets at the Young Hotel on Tuesday afternoon to talk over plans. There will probably be a large number of private dinners and dances at the hotels will be, as usual, an important part of the program. The Moana, with Mrs. Church to handle matters, should draw the society people in good shape.

One of the passengers to the Coast by the Manuka last week was Charles S. Davis, the son of Judge and Mrs. George A. Davis of this city. He left for Cornell, where he will take a regular course of four years for his degree as Master of Arts and which he expects to follow by a law course. As a student at Punahou he took the four years' course in three and was admitted to the eastern college without a single condition. The many friends of the Judge and Mrs. Davis congratulate them on the progress of their son, while sympathizing with them on account of the parting which is always a sad one though it means so much for the young man.

Two deputy attorney generals returned to this city next week by the Honolulu, W. L. Whitney and E. W. Sutton. The latter brings his bride of a few weeks and Mr. Whitney is accompanied by his wife.

A. J. Blackman of this city, who has been with H. Hackfeld & Co. for some time, left yesterday on the Mongolia for the Coast. He will go direct to Berlin, where he will take up the further study of vocal music. During the past eighteen months he has studied under Prof. Rudland Bode of this city and has done so well that his teacher advised him to take a five-year course under the best German instructor. He has been seen at the amateur stage here to some extent and was in the casts of several of the productions which were put on by the Mask and Wig Club.

With the long list of patronesses chosen from the leading society women of this city to give it an air of exclusiveness and still with all who wish to aid in a most deserving charity, the concert tonight at the Opera House should attract a large audience. The larger part of the receipts will be turned over to the fund for a moving picture machine for the Molokai Settlement and it should be appreciably enlarged by the evening of pleasure.

The little skit in which Dr. and Mrs. Humphris and little Ruth Farrington take part is as clever as can be. It was written by Mrs. Wilcox and put on for the first time at the reception given for her at the Kilohana Art League. The honors of the play are carried off by the child, who makes a Cupid that one wants to take home, and even the pretty heroine of the play is almost overshadowed by the god of love. Mrs. Humphris, as dainty as ever, is charming in her part, while the doctor as her lover has less to do, but does everything that there is. Madame Blanche Arrai, in her scenes from grand opera, should be a great treat to both those who have heard her concerts and those who have been unfortunate enough not to be able to be present when she has been seen and heard in this city.

The Grill was the scene of a merry dinner last Sunday night, which was the regular monthly affair of the Grass Widowers Club. The following were present: President George King, Sandy Freest, Ed. Towse, J. A. McCandless, C. S. Crane, John Marcellino, J. Gerry, Josh Tucker and A. H. Tarleton.

At the next dinner there will be fun. Land Commissioner Pratt, Judge Robinson and J. A. McCandless must all present themselves and resign, their wives having come back to look into the gay times which have been going on in their absence. A full meeting is desired. At the meeting Sunday several were absent but sent excuses. R. J. Duchy was teaching Sunday school and could not get away and Lem Ables was compelled to stay at home on account of a chicken which had appendicitis.

A pleasant little lunch was given at the Commercial Club last Monday by Marston Campbell to Captain Rees and Engineer Paris of the Travel Station. After the menu was completed a trip was made to the Nuuanu dam where

MISS FLORA WILSON AS PUBLIC SINGER.

Miss Flora Wilson is the talented daughter of Secretary of Agriculture Wilson and will appear in grand opera this fall. She recently graduated with the highest honors at Paris in music and has a voice of splendid training and remarkable range and purity. She has studied music in the best conservatories in Paris and has given up entirely the brilliant social career open to her father's daughter through her determination to climb to the top rank in her chosen work. She is very young to have made the progress she has already accomplished, and the Parisian musical critics admit that she should take first rank with the great operatic singers of the stage.

Many Honolulu people have been visiting Maui lately. Says the Maui News:

"The present season is an ideal one for trips to Haleakala whose crater will ever be one of the grandest and most beautiful of the natural wonders of the earth. The drought has spoiled the ohelo berries but renders a journey to the summit delightful with no cold winds and drenching showers to mar the pleasure of the tourist.

"Among those visiting the extinct volcano recently were: Senator S. E. Kalama who took a large party to the top on the 18th; Judge and Mrs. S. M. Ballou who saw a magnificent sunrise on the morning of the 18th; and Mr. and Mrs. Kinney and son, Ansel, who also viewed the rising sun from the summit under perfect conditions on the morning of the 21st.

"The Kinneys have recently toured the island of Hawaii by automobile and most of the island of Maui including beautiful Ulupalakua.

"During the evening of the 21st Mr. Kinney spoke at Lahaina aiding the McCandless campaign.

"Last Saturday the 22nd, a party consisting of Mrs. D. B. Murdoch, Misses Dowdle and Sutton, D. B. Murdoch, John Guild (of Honolulu) and H. E. Savage returned from a tour of East Maui via the crater. Numbers of young quail as well as many plovers are seen on the way up the mountain.

"On Tuesday Judge and Mrs. S. B. Dole who have much enjoyed their stay at the Castle place above Olinda returned to Honolulu. It is possible that both the Doles and Ballous may purchase lots and have summer resorts of their own on Haleakala's slope. "Mrs. Gertrude Dancy and daughter of Honolulu who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cooke at Kulamau are now at Spreckelsville.

"On the 19th the finals of the annual tennis tournament mixed doubles, of the Puunene Athletic Association were played and won by Miss Woods and Mr. Turner over Mrs. Dale and Mr. F. F. Baldwin two sets all. These games are usually played on Aug. 12th but were crowded out this year.

"Governor Frear has granted the petition to establish a new voting precinct embracing Kaupakalua and Makawao between Halehaku and Wailei gulches."

Miss E. A. Ludwig of Los Angeles, is at Camp Yosemite with an enthusiastic party of visitors, most of whom are teachers from the Hawaiian Islands who have been attending the summer school at the University of California. The party consists of the following: Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Taylor, Miss Mabel Ladd, Miss Danford, Mrs. Z. Wilson, Miss M. Hornsby, Miss Mary Miller, Miss Jean Angus, Miss Dell Jewell, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Alexander, Miss Margaret Mossman, Miss Agnes Judd, Miss Grace Crockett, Miss Mary Franca, Miss Maude Woods, Miss M. Fleming, Mr. W. K. Wheeler and Geo. B. Fryer. Mr. Fryer is stopping at Camp Ahwahnee.

They arrived in the valley Tuesday. Yesterday they took passage upon the hurricane deck of the wise trail mule and sailed to the heights of Eagle Peak. Tomorrow they will leave for Wawona and the Mariposa Big Trees via Glacier point. Miss Ludwig will leave San Francisco on the 14th with a party for a trip to the Grand Canyon of Arizona.

Dr. Elliot and his daughter Miss Elliot, with their friend Miss Eaton, are stopping at the Pleasanton for about three weeks, as a rest from their trip around the world. The Elliots are from New York and Miss Eaton hails from London.

Mrs. Rees, the wife of the commandant at the Naval Station, has returned from a trip to the Volcano House and is ready to do her share toward making the stay of the Pacific fleet a pleasant one.

Mrs. Bland of Pasadena and her two daughters, who have been at the Pleasanton for the past six weeks, spent the week end at the von Holt place in the Waianae mountains. They leave for the Orient very soon, on their way around the world.

Miss M. Phillips, Mrs. E. Brown and Mrs. Haughs are spending a week at Haleiwa.

Mrs. Olson entertained at the Pleasanton several times during the week. On Tuesday night she was the hostess at an informal dinner, her guests being Mrs. and Miss Mist and Mrs. Hoerner. On Tuesday she was the hostess at a delightful tea which was attended by about twenty-five of her lady friends of the city and last night a bridge party with twenty guests occupied the evening. Supper was served in one of the private dining rooms and a pleasant evening was enjoyed by all.

W. T. Robinson of Wailuku was among the arrivals by the Mauna Kea this morning and is stopping at the Young Hotel.

The Mongolia carried away a large number of local people yesterday, among them being a good sized crowd from Kaula. Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Robinson, with their four sons and daughter, were among the passengers. Mr. Robinson's mother, Mrs. H. S. Robinson and his wife's mother, Mrs. J. S. Gray, were also in the party. Three of the sons will swell the Hawaiian delegation which is now attending Harvard.

Miss Hazel Hellbron was among the passengers to the Coast on the Alameda. She has long been considered one of the prettiest girls in Honolulu and will be greatly missed by her many friends here. She expects to be away for a year, visiting during that time with friends and relatives in California, Oregon and Washington.

Mrs. Gardner Wilder left for the Coast on the Alameda. She will meet her sister, Miss May Barnes, at San Francisco and together they will visit Yosemite and Yellowstone.

Lieut. Garret, who was married on Wednesday to Miss Edith Spalding, gave a farewell stag dinner to a number of his military comrades and friends at the Young Hotel last Saturday night. Covers were laid for six and a jolly time was had by all.

The next wedding to take place in that of John Fleming, the polo player and general favorite of the city, to Miss Adele Morgan, the charming daughter of J. P. Morgan, the president of the local Chamber of Commerce. The ceremony will take place at St. Andrew's cathedral on Wednesday evening and the many friends of the young couple will be on hand to wish the mite best of all the good things that married life can bring.

Col. Z. S. Spalding of Kaula left for the Coast on the Mongolia yesterday. He expects to return in October and will bring his daughter back with him.

Mr. Gilman will go through to New York on business, meeting Mrs. Gilman who is on the mainland at present and returning with her.

Only three weeks in Hawaii could be spared by a pleasant party of visitors who came all the way from New York and who have been at the Moana for that length of time. The members of this little traveling group consisted of Miss Bullock, Mrs. Richardson and daughter and Mrs. S. D. Freshman.

A very pleasant birthday party was given last night by Mrs. L. Bushnell for her daughter Helen, who celebrated her fifteenth birthday. The evening was spent in singing, dancing and playing games. Light refreshments were served.

Miss Nannie Winston arrived from the Orient yesterday on the Mongolia, bringing with her Miss Blinsey of Hongkong. The latter came only for the sea trip and will return on the Manchuria on Monday. Miss Winston is at the Moana again.

It is not often that Honolulu sees a military wedding and it is still less often that Honolulu sees as charming a bride to be found at the marriage of Lieut. M. M. Garrett, U. S. A., and Miss Edith Spalding, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Spalding of this city. The ceremony took place last Wednesday evening at St. Andrew's cathedral, being performed by Bishop Restarick.
