With the places of two deputy sheriffs vacant as yet, the foregoing is the Democratic ticket for the City and County of Honolulu. What happened at the convention yesterday after the report closed for the second edition of the Star appears below.

AFTERNOON CONTINUED.
On motion of Mr. McCarthy that the report on rules be adopted, Mr. Emmeluth proposed a change in method of balloting. It was to vote by precincts, the chairmen thereof to announce results. Mr. Ingham seconded the amendment.

Mr. Ashford said the difference was that between a secret and an open ballot. He supported the plan recommended by the committee.

Mr. Emmeluth said the amendment made the voting as secret as need be. It facilitated business and was more democratic than the other way. Those who sent them there would know how their wishes were respected. Their delegates to Denver had their hands tied, as had delegates there from other parts of the union.

Mr. McCarthy said the section was copied from the report of another committee and adopted with the view that it would expedite business. Taking votes by precincts would cause a bunching of supporters of various candidates. Some groups would act quickly, others would hold back and they would still be there tomorrow. His remarks were applauded.

The main motion carried only three or four delegates rising for the amendment.

The report as a whole was adopted. Charles L. Rhodes on taking the chair was received with applause. In thanking the convention for the honor done him he stated that he was one of those who organized the Democratic party in Hawaii. He would endeavor to conduct the business expeditiously and fairly.

William S. Wond, the vice chairman, made a speech in English, following with remarks in Hawaiian, his mother tongue. He was cordially received.

Secretary Hopkins was not present, but came in later.

Assistant Secretary Hanapi took his place at the desk.
Mr. Harvey took the privilege at this stage of making a speech to urge that E. M. Watson be nominated for the Senate. In conclusion he announced himself as standing for nomination to the Senate. He was moderately applauded.

Mr. Ingham presented the report of the Committee on Platform and Resolutions. (The platform was published in The Star's second edition yesterday.)

Mr. Ingham moved, Mr. Juen seconded, the adoption of the report. Carried unanimously.

NOMINATIONS.
Mr. Trent nominated Joseph J. Fern for Mayor. There being no other nominations Mr. Palau moved that the secretary cast the ballot of the convention for Mr. Fern. An amendment moved by Mr. Turrill prevailed, that Mr. Fern be nominated by a rising vote.

The convention rose to its feet and cheered vigorously for Mr. Fern. Mr. Fern, speaking in English said if elected he would do his best to fill the office faithfully. He would seek the advice of his friends to aid him and always be ready to receive the people and discuss their interests with them. Mr. Fern also spoke in Hawaiian. He was loudly applauded.

Nominations for Supervisors from the Fourth were called for by the chair. Mr. Moore nominated Edward Ingham.

Mr. Palau nominated Jesse Ululhi. Mr. Antone nominated W. O'Brien, who at once declined.

Mr. Kawaihoa nominated A. V. Peters. Mr. Juen nominated J. W. Young. J. W. Iona, M. E. Silva, Henry C. Vida and W. H. McClellan were also nominated.

Mr. Harvey was nominated, when Mr. Ashford objected that Mr. Harvey had vetoed his name for Supervisor by choosing the Senate. Speaking of the importance of a good slate for Supervisors, he nominated H. T. Moore.

Mr. Ingham made a statement of privilege, to the effect that has acceptance of the nomination for Supervisor would prevent him, if not nominated for that office, from accepting a nomination for any other office.

Mr. Moore declined to stand. Messrs. Ingham, Peters, Young, McClellan and Vida came forward to take the pledge of fidelity to the action of the convention. The other nominees being absent were ruled by the chair not eligible to be balloted for. Most of the absentees came in later in time to run.

T. R. Lucas wanted to know why the candidates from the Fourth and the Fifth could not be voted for at one time.

C. J. McCarthy stated that any candidate must have a majority of the votes of the convention, so the Fourth must vote for Fifth candidates and vice versa. Therefore the reason for having separate ballots was to prevent either district voting for more than the number allotted to that district.

Mr. Fern advocated the placing of all the names on a blackboard.

Chairman Rhodes suggested that Mr. Fern provide the blackboard.

Mr. Watson advocated a selection by the Fourth of its four and by the Fifth of its three, and let the convention ratify the selections. This would meet the objection of Col. McCarthy.

A blackboard was brought in, also two inches of chalk.

Nominations were called for by the chair from the Fifth District. This was after a long wrangle and a motion as to procedure which carried.

Jos. Kuhia, J. K. Paele, J. J. Dias, H. N. Crabbe and George Holt were nominated, also Frank R. Harvey whose name was treated a joke in view of his previous statement.

The vote stood: Paele, 81; Kuhia, 76; Crabbe, 65; Holt, 19; Dias, 12.

C. J. McCarthy, Isaac Kokua and Kalalawa were appointed tellers for the Fourth and the balloting proceeded. The vote resulted thus: Ingham, 81; Silva, 65; McClellan, 63; Gandall, 60; Peters, 60; Vida, 60; Ululhi, 45; Young 12.

To settle the tie between Gandall, Peters and Vida for fourth place a recount of ballots as to them was ordered, which resulted thus: Peters, 61; Gandall, 60; Vida 59.

The vote in the Fifth elected Crabbe, Kuhia and Paele, leaving Dias and Holt out.

Wm. Paul Jarrett was nominated for Sheriff by E. M. Watson, who said he would make the best sheriff Honolulu ever had as he had made the best deputy sheriff. He was elected by acclamation. Mr. Jarrett made a short speech of thanks.

George K. Lowe was nominated for Clerk by Mr. Ingham, and R. W. Cathcart by a native delegate, who later objected to receiving Lowe's written pledge in his absence. Mr. Vida backed up the objection, which the chair overruled. Lowe was elected by over 100 majority, on a standing vote taken under suspension of the rules.

At 5:30 a recess was taken until 7:30.

EVENING SESSION.

John F. Colburn rose to a question of privilege. He said the platform took up the question of purchasing the private fisheries. On that account and for something that happened since the afternoon session he wished to withdraw his name as a candidate for Senator. With thanks for promises of support he declared himself still a Democrat.

A native delegate nominated R. H. Trent for Treasurer, who was elected by acclamation and, as an afterthought asked to take the candidate's pledge.

Mr. Trent in complying said it was almost a joke for him to take a pledge to the Democrats. He thanked them very much for the nomination.

Mr. Ingham nominated Judge Edings for City and County Attorney, who was elected by acclamation.

Judge Edings said: "I thank you for

Here Is Some Advice--

Honolulu more than any other city in the World, is a place where the Evening Paper gets the news first. The clock here is over two hours behind the clock at San Francisco, four hours behind Chicago, five hours behind New York and ten to eleven hours behind the clocks in the European capitals.

This means that when The Star is going to press THE DAY IS CLOSED in Washington, Chicago, New York and Europe and almost over in San Francisco. The news of the day is here for The Star.

Under modern conditions it takes practically no time to prepare and transmit news and THE STAR gets every evening the cable dispatches giving

The News Of All the World

For the Day Just Ended--

Here are some of the features that go to make the evening paper the predominating factor in an advertising campaign:

It is delivered at the home each night when the whole family has plenty of time to read it.

It is carried home by the business man when his day's work is done and it stays there. A morning paper is usually carried down town by the head of the family and hurriedly read.

The evening paper is not read hurriedly, but thoroughly, so that all the advertisements receive their share of attention.

It presents the store news a little ahead, giving the prospective purchaser time to plan a shopping tour for the next morning.

The evening paper presents the news the day it happens. The morning paper the day after.

The evening paper presents the news first. The morning paper merely elaborates it.

The evening paper prints daylight news. The morning paper takes what is left.
