

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is a pretty good traveling companion. Better take a bottle with you when you go away from home. It may save you a long illness. And if you are not going away, keep it with you, always, in the house.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

is the best family medicine you can have. A thorough course of treatment with it makes good red blood, brings the old color back to the lips, fills out the cheeks, and gives the glow of perfect health.

Perhaps you suffer from the enfeebling effect of a prolonged spell of warm weather. If so, Ayer's Sarsaparilla will vitalize your blood and give you renewed force, vim, and energy.

As now made, Ayer's Sarsaparilla contains no alcohol.

There are many imitation Sarsaparillas.

Be sure you get "AYER'S."

SOCIAL EVENTS OF THE WEEK

The delay in the arrival of the Pacific Fleet has certainly caused a terrific upset in the many plans which had been made to ensure the officers and men of the armored cruiser squadron that they stand close to the hearts of Honolulu society people. It was expected that on last Wednesday would start the festive times and that for a full ten days they would keep up without a lapse, but instead of this there is rather a shadow of gloom over the city. The many dinners, receptions and dances which have been arranged for have either been called off or have been set ahead for dates which are sure to conflict, for it is generally understood that the fleet will sail for the Coast on the seventeenth regardless of when they arrive in this city.

The members of the entertainment committee are the worst off of all. Complete arrangement had been made for the dance to be given in honor of the officers, under the official auspices of the committee. It was to be held on Monday night at the Young, but what is going to be done about it? A list of invitations was most carefully made out, a special committee for this work, consisting of Mrs. E. A. Mott-Smith, Mrs. E. D. Tenney and Mrs. Fred Macfarlane, having charge of this work. The envelopes are all addressed, and the invitations ready, but the question comes about whether it is best to send them out or not. So far they have been withheld, and local people are still on the anxious seat, wondering whether they are among the lucky ones, for with but $150 to handle the affair with it cannot be too large in size. From the present indication it is doubtful if there will be any such dance on Monday. It may take place later in the week but when is uncertain till the fleet itself arrives.

The fleet is due to come in at any time, but it seems that the sailors will have a very much better chance for an official dance than the officers. The men are to be entertained at the Seaside on Thursday night, and surely the big warships will have arrived by that time, so they will have no change in date and all will run smoothly.

One of the largest receptions and dances which was to have been given during the past week was that of Justice and Mrs. Ballou, at their beautiful home on Judd street. It was scheduled to come off last night and all the elite of the city received their daintily engraved cards of invitation some time ago, but when the vessels had not even been heard of by wireless yesterday morning it was announced that a postponement must take place. The new date has not yet been announced, for so important a function should not conflict with any of the official parts of the program and until the fleet arrives local society will be kept in the dark.

Mrs. Upham, the wife of Lieut. Comdr. F. B. Upham of the cruiser South Dakota, who has been spending the past week with Mrs. C. B. Cooper, has returned to her apartments at the Pleasanton Hotel.

The D. P. Isenbergs are spending a few weeks at their Waiakoa Home, though they will probably be in town most of the time during the stay of the Pacific fleet.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Dillingham entertained Admiral and Mrs. Hollyday and Major and Mrs. McKinstry at their Panahou home at dinner on Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Wilder, who were to have given a dinner to which a number of local people had been invited to meet officers of the fleet, postponed the event till next week.

Miss Nellie Alexander gave a very pleasant card party and supper in honor of Mrs. Admiral and Mrs. Hollyday on Tuesday evening. Among those present besides the guests of honor were: Captain and Mrs. Fuller, Mrs. Phillip Andrews, Miss Margaret Walker, Miss Cordelia Walker, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Wilder, Frank Armstrong, J. D. McInerney, Will H. McInerney, and Frank E. Thompson.

Major and Mrs. McKinstry gave a delightful dinner at the Country Club last night, entertaining many of the friends in this city whom they have known of old or met while here on their present trip.

The sale of tickets for the concert to be given by R. J. Buckley at the Bishop Hall on October 27 will commence at Wall, Nichols on Oct. 17. For two days before this the holders of exchange tickets may get reserved ticket by presenting them. With Mr. Buckley's violin solos which Mrs. L. Tenney Peck has kindly consented to accompany on the piano, and the vocal solos of Mrs. Bruce McV. McKail, a most pleasurable and profitable evening should be spent by those who attend. It will be one of the musical treats of the season.

One of the pleasantest events of the

MISS CLEMENTINE HOZIER ENGAGED TO WINSTON CHURCHILL.

Miss Clementine Hozier is reported in recent cables from London as engaged to Winston Churchill, a member of the present ministry as president of the British Board of Trade. She is a noted London beauty, who is related to both Baron Newlands and Lord Lamington. She is only fairly well to do in worldly goods, as brides for statesmen are considered nowadays, but her family connections would be very valuable, indeed, to an ambitious young politician in English circles. She is also very beautiful and accomplished, probably most important in the eyes of the prospective bridegroom.

General Scott Shipp, for very many years the commandant of the Virginia Military Institute and the leader of the cadets from that institution at the battle of New Market when the youngsters put up so brave a fight against the Federal veterans.

The announcement is made that there will be no dances at the Young or Moana Hotels till the arrival of the fleet. This seems to be a great pity. Mrs. E. S. Church, who has charge of the social matters at the two big hotels, has been working very hard and to have all this good work go for nothing seems a shame. It is certain, however, that when the fleet does arrive, her efforts will be rewarded. Those who visited the Moana when the armored cruisers were here a month ago were enthusiastic over the way in which the dances were managed.

Dr. and Mrs. Phillip Frear were among the passengers to sail for the Coast on the Matson steamer Lurline this morning. This big new boat is becoming more and more popular all the time, as is shown by her taking out such a good passenger list, when leaving only the day before the Siberia.

Captain and Mrs. Matson, who have been at the Moana for the past three or four weeks, returned to San Francisco on the Lurline.

Judge H. E. Cooper is among the passengers booked to sail for the Coast on the Siberia tomorrow. He expects to spend about two months in Washington, D. C., on a business trip.

Dr. and Mrs. B. F. Roller return to Seattle via San Francisco on the Siberia, leaving tomorrow. Dr. Roller, besides being one of the best wrestlers in the United States, is also considered one of the finest surgeons in Seattle. There is a possibility that he may return to Hawaii to make a permanent home. His wife is a charming little woman and has made very many friends in this city.

Mrs. Victor Norgaard has given up her home in Makiki and taken a cottage at the Seaside for a few weeks. The Norgaard residence will be occupied by R. W. Shingle and T. H. Petrie as bachelors' quarters.

Our naval officers accompanying our circumnavigating fleet, will find a wife in every port; but contrary to proverbial sailor usage, each wife will be legitimate. Perhaps that is why the wives are tagging after the fleet. In the circumscribed environment of the home port, it is comparatively easy to keep an eye on these sailors; but when they wander away from their boarding-house fireplaces on the "station," temptation lurks in every harbor, for the world is wide and women are beautiful. Even Ulysses, hastening home to patient, long-waiting Penelope, had to order himself tied to the mast while passing the country of the sirens; and the officers of our fleet are just as human as was the King of Ithica. Therefore it has been decreed by the petitioners of the armada that the wardrobe toast shall be reversed—Wives and sweethearts, with emphasis on the better half of the naval official contingent.—S. F. News-Letter.
