ROOSEVELT'S LETTER ON TAFT RELIGION

CATHOLIC, PROTESTANT AND JEW SIT TOGETHER IN HIS CABINET, SAYS THE PRESIDENT—RELIGIOUS CONVICTIONS NOT A PROPER MATTER FOR POLITICAL DISCUSSION—PLAIN TALK ON RELIGIOUS FREEDOM.

WASHINGTON, November 8.—"Secretary Taft's religious faith is purely his own private concern and not a matter for general discussion and political discrimination," says President Roosevelt in a letter he made public tonight, in which he answers numerous correspondents. The President says he deferred the publication of the letter until now to avoid any agitation likely to influence the election. The letter follows:

"November 6, 1908.—My Dear Sir: I have received your letter running in part as follows: 'While it is claimed almost universally that religion should not enter into politics, yet there is no denying that it does, and the mass of the voters that are not Catholics will not support a man for any office, especially the President of the United States, who is a Roman Catholic.
Since Taft has been nominated for President by the Republican party, it is being circulated and is constantly urged as a reason for not voting for Taft that he is an infidel (Unitarian) and his wife and brother Roman Catholics.' * * * If his feelings are in sympathy with the Roman Catholic church on account of his wife and brother being Catholics, that would be objectionable to a sufficient number of voters to defeat him. On the other hand, if he is an infidel, that would be sure to mean defeat. I am writing this letter for the sole purpose of giving Mr. Taft an opportunity to let the world know what his religious belief is."

REFLECTION ON THE VOTERS.

"Now for your objections to him because you think his wife and brother are Roman Catholics. As it happens, they are not; but if they were, or if he were a Roman Catholic hereafter, it ought not to affect in the slightest degree any man's supporting him for the position of President. You say that 'the mass of voters that are not Catholics will not support a man for any office, especially for President of the United States, who is a Roman Catholic.' I believe that when you say this you foully slander your fellow countrymen. I do not for one moment believe that the mass of our fellow citizens, or that any considerable number of our fellow citizens, can be influenced by such narrow bigotry as to refuse to vote for any thoroughly upright and fit man because he happens to have a particular religious creed.
Such a consideration should never be treated as a reason for either supporting or opposing a candidate for political office. Are you aware that there are several states in this Union where the majority of the people are now Catholics? I should reprobate in the severest terms the Catholics in those states, or in any other states, who refused to vote for the most fit man because he happened to be a Protestant; and my condemnation would be exactly as severe for Protestants who, under reversed circumstances, refused to vote for a Catholic."

JEW MAY BE PRESIDENT.

"I like public life. I am happy to say that I have known many men who were elected and constantly re-elected to office in districts where the great majority of the constituents were of a different religious belief. I know Catholics who have for many years represented constituencies mainly Protestant, and Protestants who have, for many years represented constituencies mainly Catholic; and among the Congressmen whom I know particularly well was one man of Jewish faith, who represented a district in which there were hardly any Jews at all. All of these men, by their very existence in political life, refute the slander you have uttered against your fellow Americans. I believe this Republic will endure for many centuries, and if so, there will be doubtless among its Presidents Protestants and Catholics, and very probably at some time Jews. I have constantly tried while President to act in relation to my fellow-Americans of Catholic faith as I hope that any future President who happens to be a Catholic will act toward his fellow-Americans of Protestant faith.

Had I followed any other course I should have felt that I was unfit to represent the American people.

ALL CREEDS IN CABINET.

"In my Cabinet at the present moment there sit side by side Catholic and Protestant, Christian and Jew, each man chosen because in my belief he is particularly fit to exercise on behalf of all the people the duties of the office to which I have appointed him.
In no case does the man's religious belief in any way affect the discharge of his duties, save as it makes him more eager to act justly and upright-ly in his relations to all men. The same principles that have obtained in the appointing of the members of my Cabinet, the highest officials under me, the officials to whom is trusted the work of carrying out all the important policies of my administration, are the principles upon which all good Americans should act in choosing, whether by election or by appointment, the men to fill any office, from the highest to the lowest in the land.
Yours truly,

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT,
"J. C. Martin, Dayton, Ohio."

YOU WANT The News First.

You Want Your Ads Read

Here Is Some Advice--

Honolulu more than any other city in the World, is a place where the Evening Paper gets the news first. The clock here is over two hours behind the clock at San Francisco, four hours behind Chicago, five hours behind New York and ten to eleven hours behind the clocks in the Europe an capitals.

This means that when The Star is going to press THE DAY IS CLOSED in Washington, Chicago, New York and Europe and almost over in San Francisco, The news of the day is here for The Star.

Under modern conditions it takes practically no time to prepare and transmit news and THE STAR gets every evening the cable dispatches giving

The News Of All the World

For the Day Just Ended--

Here are some of the features that go to make the evening paper the predominating factor in an advertising campaign:

It is delivered at the home each night when the whole family has plenty of time to read it.

It is carried home by the business man when his day's work is done and it stays there. A morning paper is usually carried down town by the head of the family and hurriedly read.

The evening paper is not read hurriedly, but thoroughly, so that all the advertisements receive their share of attention.

It presents the store news a little ahead, giving the prospective purchaser time to plan a shopping tour for the next morning.

The evening paper presents the news the day it happens. The morning paper the day after.

The evening paper presents the news first. The morning paper merely elaborates it.

The evening paper prints daylight news. The morning paper takes what is left.
