SUPPLIES BIDS FOR THE PRISON

TENDERS FOR LARGE QUANTITIES OF SUPPLIES FOR COMING YEAR ARE OPENED.

Bids for the supplies for Oahu Prison for the coming year were opened in the Attorney-General's department yesterday. The awards have not yet been made and may take some little time, as in a number of cases the figures offered by the several firms are the same. For pol, T. H. Davies and Company and the Kailhi Poi Factory both offer the same price, three cents per pound. T. Ah Kong, who is an American citizen by the way, offers the poi for $2.45 per hundred-weight.

The Metropolitan Meat Company was the only firm to bid on the fresh meat contract, making an offer of eight cents per pound. Love's Bakery is a walkover for fresh bread, their price being three cents per pound loaf. May and Company cut under Love for the hard bread with an offer of four and one eighth cents per pound as against four cents and half which was offered by Love and Hackfeld. The salmon contract is for May, with the lowest price of six and one eighth cents per pound while Lewis and Hackfeld tie for the tea price at fourteen cents. May and Lewis are tied for the coffee bid at ten and a quarter cents. Lewis underbid the others on potatoes, offering them for $1.35 per hundred, and also had the lowest price on beans at $3.65 per sack. Hackfeld was lowest on No. 1 rice with a bid of $4.975 per hundred pound sack.

MISUNDERSTOOD.

Willie broke his sister's playthings, Smashed his brother with a broom It was wonderful the way things Were sent flying 'round the room. Willie loafed in inert languor, Howled with imprecations wild, Stamped his feet in tameless anger, Wasn't understood, poor child!

Willie disobeyed his mother, Robbed the children's penny banks, But his mama said, "Another Of poor Willie's harmless pranks." When he kicked and cuffed his father, And exclaimed, "I won't be good!" Mama said, "The child is rather Trying, but misunderstood."

Willie grew to manhood's stature And became a full fledged crook, Anything that he could snatch or Burgle, rob or steal he took. Twenty years the jury gave him When the judge the sentence passed, Nothing mama said could save him, He was understood at last.
