

The Best Cough Drops Are Drops of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Sixty years ago physicians first used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and ever since then it has been the standard cough remedy all over the world.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral controls the spasmodic efforts of coughing, relieves the congestion in the throat, quiets the inflammation in the bronchial tubes, and prevents the lungs from becoming involved.

There are many substitutes and imitations. Be sure you get Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It contains no narcotic or poison of any kind. Put up in large and small bottles.

BANONICA TO BE SENT TO RACE AT THE COAST

In a letter to the Sporting Editor of the Star received this morning, John O'Rourke, the astute racing man in the Territory, says that he intends to ship his good mare Banonica to the Coast by the S. S. Enterprise for racing purposes.

Banonica, which is by Bannockburn, is one of the best race-horses that the islands have ever seen. She won the rich Merchants' Stakes at Hilo as well as a number of other events, with the greatest ease imaginable.

Charles David, who trained Banonica for her recent engagements, will in all probability take the mare to the Coast. She has only to keep right in order to win if properly placed.

There looks a chance to make a killing over Banonica the first rattle out of the box. The bookmakers will lay as good as eight to one at least against the "Hawaiian wonder" on her first appearance and if she be intelligently handled her connections should, with racing luck, win a pot over her.

Hawaiian turf-lovers will watch the Coast fortunes of the good mare with interest and if good wishes count for anything she will win whenever she faces the barrier.

Owner John O'Rourke knows what he is doing in sending Banonica to the Coast. His brother and he won the Burns' Handicap with the Fretter, which, by the way died in Hilo. He also imported Lazell from the Coast to win the first Merchants' Stakes, and how he succeeded in doing so is now a matter of local turf history.

J. J. Corbett is now forty-two years old. Since the night of August 14, 1903, when Jeffries knocked him out in ten rounds, Corbett has had on a boxing glove but once.

In the year drawing to a close death has reaped an unusually heavy harvest in the world of sport. Baseball, pugilism, aquatic sports, football, cycling, auto racing and the turf mourn the loss of many prominent leaders who lately were foremost in the ranks. What deep loss is there in the death of such well-known figures as George Siler, Henry Chadwick, Virgil Garvin, Riley Grannan, Pat Cavanaugh, Ike Weir, George Dixon, Edward Hanlan and Frank De Haas Robinson!

ARNST YOUNGEST ROWING CHAMPION

Richard Arnst, the young New Zealander, who won the world's sculling championship from William Webb, is twenty-seven years of age, just two years younger than Webb. His first important race was the Australian championship, which he won from Pearce this year on the Paramatta. Arnst was formerly prominent in track cycle racing, winning the Sydney thousand three years ago, since when he has taken to rowing. The last race was for three miles, the usual world's course, which has been sculled since 1831, with only two exceptions, when the distance was two miles and a half. The purse was £500, provided by Webb's backer, W. R. Tuck of Wanganui, New Zealand. Webb only held the championship a little over a year. He is twenty-nine years of age. He was born in Lyttleton, Christchurch, New Zealand, and made his first championship appearance on December 20, 1906, when he won the championship of New Zealand on the Wanganui river from J. Stanbury in 18 minutes 50 seconds. Less than a year later he won the championship of the world by defeating Charles Towns on the Paramatta river, Sydney, N. S. W., in 20 minutes 45 sec-

HILLO TO HAVE MATCH RACE WORTH WATCHING

Word was received by the steamer Claudine arriving this morning, that Hilo is to have an unusually interesting match race next Saturday afternoon.

The distance will be a mile and a quarter and the starters will be Adion, Little Joker and Major Collier.

The race will be for a purse and $100 a corner.

Adion is the horse which the Maui people imported and took to Hilo to win the Merchants' Stakes, which Banonica centered away with. The gelding is at present in the stable of W. H. C. Campbell.

the Coast recently. He took Little Joker to Hilo and sold him to a Japanese hui for $400. The horse has won on the California tracks but has been his best days.

Major Collier is a Hawaiian-bred and a good one. He is a sorrel gelding by Eastside and is probably the best Hawaiian-bred that the islands have ever produced. He has speed and endurance and runs best from behind.

Both Little Joker and Adion are likely to be more fancied in the betting than Major Collier but if the latter is beaten the one to do the trick will have to go better than well, the exact time doesn't matter, anyway.

'E 'ASN'T 'AD ENOUGH GOT DOLLAR FOR HIS FIRST FIGHT

(I should like to meet Johnson again. I think still that I am his master.—Statement by Tommy Burns.) When gallant Julius Caesar, after subjugating Gaul,

Became "in Dutch" with Brutus and was punctured with an awl, He wriggled round upon the ground, and, ere he passed away, The following mournful saying he did say:

CHORUS: "Yes, he gave it to me hard, But he caught me off my guard, Which accounts for my unfortunate disaster; Let me tell you, merry men, When I'm on my feet again, I will show this false alarm that I'm his master."

When stern Napoleon got too gay, as even great men do, And got an awful cleaning on the field of Waterloo, He pressed his throbbing forehead just before he got the gate, And this pathetic statement he did state:

CHORUS: "Yes, they've got me looking slouchy, But I place the blame on Grouchy; That is why my face is full of sticking plaster; Wellington has swelled his chest, But when I have had a rest I will show the world that I am still his master!"

DETROIT (Mich.), January 2.—When Tommy Burns departed from Detroit in a hurry one spring day in 1904 he left behind him a pack of debts. Today Burns is reported to be worth $200,000, not all of it made in the ring. Burns invested his money judiciously and is a wealthy man. Wise Tommy has made $159,851.25 in his ring battles, not including the money he bet himself, for the Detroiters believe in backing himself in all his fights. He also advises his friends to bet.

One night Burns appeared in a hall in the suburbs of Detroit where a fight was scheduled, but one of the fighters failed to appear, and one silver dollar was offered to the man who would take his place.

"Make it a plunk and cartare," shouted Burns. "You're on," shouted the referee, The fight started, and the man whose name appeared on the programme lasted about two rounds, when his second tossed up the sponge. It was Burns' first ring battle.

ROSE FOR THE LAW

SACRAMENTO, January 3.—Ralph Rose, the giant hammer thrower, arrived in town tonight and tomorrow morning will take the examination for admission to the bar. Presiding Judge Chipman of the Appellate Court and Judges Hart and Burnett are to sit in bank, and a long list of aspiring barristers will take the examinations.

Rose had decided that he has had enough of the athletic game, and the once hero of many at field meet has at last decided to forsake the white-washed circle for the less strenuous occupation of the law. Rose has been delving into Blackstone for nearly a year, and expects to have as easy a time in passing the examination as he did in breaking shot-put records.

NO RACE THIS YEAR

GLASGOW, January 2.—As there is no prospect for an America's Cup race in 1909, the time limit for entering a challenge having been passed, William Fife, Sir Thomas Lipton's yacht designer, has laid aside the plans for a yacht which had been well near completion.

Sir Thomas Lipton and William Fife are both desirous for another race for the America's Cup, but the restrictions of the New York Yacht Club make the chance of a challenge well-nigh impossible.

Here Is Some Advice—

Honolulu more than any other city in the World, is a place where the Evening Paper gets the news first. The clock here is over two hours behind the clock at San Francisco, four hours behind Chicago, five hours behind New York and ten to eleven hours behind the clocks in the Europe an capitals.

This means that when The Star is going to press THE DAY IS CLOSED in Washington, Chicago, New York and Europe and almost over in San Francisco. The news of the day is here for The Star.

Under modern conditions it takes practically no time to prepare and transmit news and THE STAR gets every evening the cable dispatches giving

The News Of All the World

For the Day Just Ended—

Here are some of the features that go to make the evening paper the predominating factor in an advertising campaign: It is delivered at the home each night when the whole family has plenty of time to read it.

It is carried home by the business man when his day's work is done and it stays there. A morning paper is usually carried down town by the head of the family and hurriedly read.

The evening paper is not read hurriedly, but thoroughly, so that all the advertisements receive their share of attention.

It presents the store news a little ahead, giving the prospective purchaser time to plan a shopping tour for the next morning.

The evening paper presents the news the day it happens. The morning paper the day after.

The evening paper presents the news first. The morning paper merely elaborates it.

The evening paper prints daylight news. The morning paper takes what is left.
