TO SAVE EXPENSES

ENA ESTATE HEIRS REPOSE CONFIDENCE IN JOHN C. LANE AND HERNY SMITH.

The heirs of the late John Ena, numbering nine, have filed the following request:

"We hereby respectfully request that there be no annual accounts filed in this estate, in this court. It is our desire that there be no costs or legal expenses incurred, as we will be satisfied if the proposed accounts are rendered to us through Messrs. John C. Lane and Henry Smith, both of Honolulu. Should they fail to endorse approval of the same, then and only then will it become necessary for the Court to settle any matter in dispute concerning the accounts or any individual items of the same.

"Dated at Long Beach, Cal., January 11th, 1909."

Mary A. Downey has brought a bill in equity to remove cloud from title to lands in Kaneohe against Emalia Silva Sr., Thomas Silva, John Silva, George Silva, Sarah Silva, Rosie O'Hara, Mary Ann Horner, Hattie Doak, Joseph Silva and Emalia Silva Jr.

Fanny Love, administratrix of the estate of Robert Love, petitions for an order of distribution.

Judge Weaver of the Court of Land Registration has granted a registered title to John Walker for a lot containing 1746 square feet on the northwest side of Nuuanu avenue.

Judge De Bolt has resumed, after Chinese New Year's suspension, the jury trial of seven Chinese for assaulting Chick Wa, a play actor, with dangerous weapons.

BURNS NIGHT

Honolulu Scottish Thistle Club celebrated the anniversary of Robert Burns with a smoking concert in Waverley hall Saturday evening. The place was fairly well filled, Scotchmen of course being in the majority. Tables extended down the hall, liberally provided with sandwiches, cheese and crackers, together with liquid beverages to suit all palates. At the head of the hall the Scottish standard with its rampant lion was hung, a framed portrait of the national poet occupying the middle top section and the Stars and Stripes and the Union Jack on either side.

Chief J. R. M. MacLean called the gathering to order at 8:30 and in choice language made a short opening speech. Other speakers of the evening were Judge W. L. Stanley on "The Immortal Memory of Robert Burns," District Attorney R. W. Breckons, on "The President of the United States," Robert Catton on "The Land of Burns," H. B. M. Consul Ralph G. E. Forster, on "The King and Queen," Deputy Attorney General W. L. Whitney, on "The Land We Live In," and Deputy District Attorney W. T. Rawlins, on "The Bar."

Most of the addresses were of great length, although redeemed from tediousness by oases of humor. Mr. Whitney's was the most notable among the few exceptions, being short and witty pointed.

So much time was taken in the reading of orations that several musical numbers were omitted. There was less of Scottish song than usual on such occasions, but what there was touched a responsive chord. T. Scott's rendering of beloved old airs of the land of Burns on the violin produced wild enthusiasm. "There was a lad was born in Kyle," beautifully sung by John Lyall brought out a rousing chorus. F. J. Swadling, besides accompanying the other vocalists on the piano, made a great hit with "Hana-pepe," a Chinese ditty of his own composition and gave "The Costermonger's Lullaby" for an encore. C. O. Osborne gave "The Stein Song" in a fine bass, getting a good chorus from the audience. Robert Anderson gave the indispensable recitation, "Tam o' Shanter," in a manner as telling as ever has been heard here.

The singing of "God Save the Queen" by the entire assembly, in connection with the British loyal toast, was very impressive.

"Auld Lang Syne" came not until after "the last car."

FERN IS LISTENER

FRESNO MAYOR COMPARES TWO CITIES—HOPES TO LIVE HERE. LATER ON.

Ex-Mayor W. Parker Lyon of Fresno, Cal., gave a seance in Mayor Fern's outer office this morning, those attending being Honolulu Mayor Fern, Secretary Rhodes and representatives of the press.

Lyon has been percolating Honolulu like a near-earth comet since his arrival and he let loose a whole lot of valuable information in the Mayor's office, telling much of California methods and showing large holes in Honolulu affairs, though, at the same time, he revealed the fact that Honolulu is way ahead of Fresno and some other California places, in many ways.

For example, Fresno, with 30,000 population, has 50 saloons, while Honolulu with 50 per centum more population, has not nearly as many saloons.

Lyon showed Fresno to be superior in electric lighting, in taxation affairs and a few other things, but he gladly admits that Honolulu has got better roads, as a general thing, than has any town he has seen in the Golden State.

Mayor Fern practiced silence throughout the one-sided interview, his secretary occasionally enlightening the distinguished visitor on local conditions.

Lyon has just returned from the Volcano, with his family, and is delighted with all that he saw. He has been around this island in an auto and is much impressed. He hopes to visit here again soon and, says that in a few years, he expects to return to Honolulu to live permanently.

JUDGE B. DOLE GOING HAWAII

United States District Judge Dole will sail by the Mauna Kea tomorrow for Hilo. His schedule calls for the opening of the term there this week, but, as it turns out, there will be absolutely no business to come before him. In view of this fact, no juries have been summoned. After formally calling and adjourning court Judge Dole will proceed to make the best of his respite from official duty among his Hawaii friends. It is very probable that he will remain over one steamer on the big island.

It is one thing to enclose a check to headquarters for any worthy object, but it is more than that to give everyone a chance to laugh hard and join you in swelling the amount of the check.

The object for which the Dramatic Circle of the Art League is organized was tested when the call for help came. Now that is is over certain obligations must be met, new plays purchased, properties procured and more earthquake funds helped.

At the league building, tomorrow evening there will be given a jolly little entertainment to begin with the entire fare of "Mrs. Oakley's Telephone," to be followed by dancing for those who dance and puzzling for those who puzzle and a buffet supper.

Admission will be by tickets now on sale at the Art League office each day between 9 and 5 p. m. Entertainment of Tuesday January 26, at 8 a. m.

MAGISTRATE IS REVERSED

In the case of Luelo Ferreira vs. Kama, Paauhau Sugar Plantation Co., garnishee, in appeal from the Hamakua District Magistrate, the Supreme Court in a unanimous opinion written by Justice Ballou decides:

"The appeal is sustained and the case remanded for further proceedings in accordance with this opinion."

LAW OF ALIMONY

In a unanimous opinion by Justice Wilder, on a reserved question from a First Circuit Judge in the divorce case of Mary E. R. Correa vs. Joaquin R. Correa, the Supreme Court answers in the affirmative the question of "whether in a divorce suit on the ground of failure to provide, which was proved, the libelles may be ordered to pay to the libellant permanent alimony or, in the words of the statute, a suitable allowance." The syllabus reads:

"Under the divorce statutes failure to provide is an offense amounting to adultery, and alimony may be allowed in such a case under R. L. Sec. 2237."

Vice Presidents W. H. Bancroft and E. E. Calvin, respectively of the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific railways, were highly satisfied with the Volcano. They predict a boom in tourist travel.

Judge Dole sentenced Joshi Kuwano, a Japanese woman, to imprisonment for three years on each of three counts, the terms to run concurrently so that the whole period will be three years, for importing, harboring and assisting immoral women. She was also fined $1 on each count. The woman had a baby in her arms.

Knife Jab In The Jugular

A Korean, with a knife jab in the throat was taken to the Queen's hospital by the police about 9 o'clock last evening, and a Romeo of his own life is at the station house, suspected of the crime. The injured man will probably recover. His supposed assailant, Choy Kee Soon, has had trouble with the police before. Of the cutting Deputy Sheriff Rose says:

"Some days ago the injured man came to the station house and complained that his wife had run away with another man, Choy Kee Soon, and asked that the police locate and return her to him. Yesterday he came again and reported that he had found her at a house in Paojo valley. In the evening a Korean officer was sent to the house. Just before reaching there he found Choy Kee Soon lying on the road with his throat cut, as stated.

"The wounded man stated that he was cut from behind and did not see his assailant. I am inclined to doubt this, however, as the jab is straight from the front. At the house they apparently knew nothing of the matter."

At 1:30 this morning Mr. Green, bookkeeper for M. Phillips & Company, was aroused out of bed by two policemen who inquired after the suspected Korean. He knew nothing about the man and felt duly annoyed at being disturbed at such an hour. In respect to this the Deputy Sheriff states that the officers were looking for a Korean house, known to be near Mr. Green's residence, in which the refugee was believed to be in hiding. As a matter of fact, the man was found in the tenement shortly after 2 a. m.

John Hapa tried a good trick on Judge Andrade this morning, but the court still held a high trump. John is charged with having run a gambling game Saturday night. The police nabbed the game, together with Hapa and six Japanese players. Hapa went out on $25 bail. This morning the Japs were fined $6 each and court costs, but Hapa failed to appear. Prosecutor Brown said some things about Hapa that were not complimentary, and the court insisted that he be brought into court tomorrow morning. A second warrant was issued, charging the veteran sport with "maintaining and assisting" a gambling game.

George E. Steele was again sent to the reef for vagrancy, this time for a period of three months. He conducted his own defense and took the stand in his own behalf. Steele seemed, in court, to be a rather smart fellow who had fallen into the brambles.

Twelve Chinamen, who had thought to enliven New Year's celebration by gambling, were fined $9 each and

JUMPED FROM MOVING CAR

"Come to her death a fracture of the skull causing injuries to the brain and hemorrhage, said injuries being caused by deceased carelessly stepping from Car No. 41 of the H. R. T. and L. Co. while said car was in motion, on King street between Nuuanu and Smith streets in Honolulu, city and county, T. of H." That was the verdict of the coroner's jury yesterday afternoon in the case of the Chinese woman who jumped from a moving car Friday evening.

THE MORNING AFTER

"Oh, why so glum this morning, And why that swollen head? An old friend asked an old friend, Whereon the latter said: 'I'm strictly up against it, For rest my being yearns, For I was celebrating The birth of Robbie Burns.'"

"Where have you been, my husband? An irate wife exclaimed, 'Two days and nights you've been away, Pray, who is to be blamed?' 'I started home at midnight But got mixed at the turns, I couldn't find my home till now—' (He)—'birthday—Bobby Burns.'"

"Your coat you're wearing inside out, Your breath betokens gin, If you persist in 'Scots Wha Hae,' I'll have to run you in." So spake a policeman to a wight Who laughed and cried by turns; The latter kissed the cop and sang: "God Save Our Gracious Burns."

Oh, what a night it must have been; The whole town seems be-Scotched, And in the score of Burns' days Another year is notched; Well, it was worth it, so let be, And when the date returns, We'll once more clink our glasses to The "Star of Robbie Burns."

—H. M. AYRES.

GETTING TOWARD THE SEASON.

While the snow is blowing into the fence corners on the mainland the people of Honolulu and those who sojourn here for a time are contemplating a trip to that glorious resort, Haleiwa. This is on the line of the Oahu Railway and the ride to the place is along the sea coast for a part of the distance. No pleasanter hour or two can be spent than on the ride down for there is so much to attract the attention of the stranger. Manager Biggood at the hotel is a model host and he puts his ability to the best use of the guests.

COLLEGE RUGBY PLAYERS COMING

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Jan. 14—

The Stanford varsity Rugby fifteen will probably spend the summer in Australia. Negotiations are now well under way for the trip and it looks as if they will be brought to a successful conclusion. Australia wants an American Rugby aggregation to take part in her summer season and first of all extended an invitation to Vancouver to make the trip, all expenses paid! But "Reggie" Woodman replied that the Vancouver players were all business men and could not absent themselves from their work so long. He also suggested that Stanford make the trip and the fact that Stanford defeated Vancouver in three straight games has added much weight to his suggestion. The Australians appear anxious for the Cardinal to make the try and it is now practically up to the varsity boys to decide. If some of them make the Australian trip they will be unable to return to college next fall, as they are in the habit of making sufficient money in the summer to meet their fall expenses. This appears to be the only objection to the trip, but this objection will probably be overruled. Captain Crawford will call the men together in the next few days and thresh the whole matter over.
