GREAT BARGAIN SALE IN PIANOS

The Thayer Piano Co. is conducting a large Piano Sale at its place of business on Hotel street across from Young Hotel.

Some of the biggest bargains in the piano line that has ever taken place in Honolulu can be seen there.

Mr. Thayer is receiving a large shipment of New Pianos and wishes to make room for them.

Mr. Thayer has been in the business a long time and has had great success in Honolulu. He states that he expects to sell everyone of his great bargains so that when his new stock comes he can have plenty of room for it.

No one should miss seeing his great bargains in Pianos as each Piano is as perfect trim having been fixed up by Mr. Glesecke.

There were seventy arrivals at the Alexander Young Hotel yesterday.

UNDER THE COCONUT TREE

Oh, 'tis pleasant to loaf when there's The ragged blue mountains loom mystic work to be done, Under the coconut tree.

To lie back and dream in the afternoon sun, Under the coconut tree.

Enjoying the peace that alone comes A rainbow is spreading its wealth at my feet, Under the coconut tree.

The air is like wine, there's a lilt in the breeze Oh, the hours are golden, the hours are hours, Under the coconut tree.

As it ruffles the fronds of the coconut trees, Falls the twilight, the night bird flies out to the west, Under the coconut tree.

Which wondrously blends with the hum of the bees, Great moths, of the star-flowers' nectar in quest, Under the coconut tree.

Far away is the town with its chatter and din, Filt fairylike through my dear garden of rest, Under the coconut tree.

Forgotten life's littleness, rancor and sin; Under the coconut tree.

fixed by law to be voted for the purpose of vouching to the Auditor. The Committee on Ways and Means having recommended new insurance to take the place of that which just expires, for $3,000, on City and County office furniture, it was voted that the insurance be placed with the Phoenix of Hartford, Conn., H. Hackfeld & Co., agents.

Supervisor Logan reported that the Kaimuki Improvement Club was complaining of Japanese carting sand off the roads and the matter was referred to the Road Committee.

The Mayor handed in three vetoes, one disapproving the ordinance abolishing various boards and committees and offices, the Mayor saying that it was an attempt to repeal wholesale and without consideration of consequences the legislation of two boards of Supervisors extending over three and a half years, and a direct attempt to thwart the legislative will of the people, and that the ordinance was destructive. Ordinance No. 2 he vetoed for the reason that it looked to him like trying to have a government by committee, contending that by this ordinance three standing committees are given almost absolute control of public service and expenditure. He also vetoed the resolution which seeks to legalize all the actions of the Board, thinking it impossible to make valid what he deems invalid.

Major Dunning, committee man of Lincoln Day celebration, asked that the fire department be allowed to join the parade. Chief Thurston was authorized to parade his department with the understanding that a proper reserve be kept on duty for emergencies.

Adjournment was taken until Tuesday evening next.

CITY IN SESSION

There was only one meeting of the Board of Supervisors yesterday afternoon and only one Board of Supervisors met, although there might be an impression to the contrary since there have been published reports of things done which were not done.

Salary and payroll demands were passed, although there was a reversion in the January pay of the Supervisors themselves, a reduction of between six and seven dollars per head which the expert bookkeepers had reckoned, estimated and calculated as covering three days of this year before the present Board took office, and this, notwithstanding the notorious fact that the three days for which the Supervisors are docked included only half a business day, for two days of the three were legal holidays, New Year's Day and Sunday, and Saturday, between the glad New Year's and the Day of Rest, is always considered a half-holiday.

Since the matter did not affect the welfare of the public at large, only having to do with the Supervisors themselves and the Mayor, the mayor and the Supervisors did not consider it an issue of immense importance to anybody but the bookkeepers and let it go at that in order to save trouble to the bookkeepers and Auditor.

His Honor, the Mayor, declined to put a motion to adopt the committee report, stating as his reason that he thought it was not necessary to vote the payment of salaries fixed by law, but since the majority wished to pass the demands as a whole the motion was put by a Supervisor and passed, the appropriation requiring salaries

It is so very seldom that such an accomplished band of musicians comes to Honolulu, that the people of our city should make a point of turning out in a body to hear the Filipinos.

This band is an organization of music-loving men who are of a race of natural musicians. They think of nothing but their music and its expression through their instruments. That is one reason, and a good one, why they were selected as the finest band in the world at the St. Louis Exposition.

A portion of this same band played here some years ago at the Alexander Young Building and made such an impression on the music-lovers of Honolulu. Since then, the band has been

TEST ON TRENT

With City and County Treasurer Trent's refusal to pay out cash on warrants in favor of public employes over whose appointments there is dispute, comes a glimpse of light on the heretofore dark situation of the content between the Mayor and the Board of Supervisors in the matter of appointments.

Tommy Cummins, road overseer, and the men under him, and others whose pay is refused because their employment is contested, are inclined to welcome the attitude of the Treasurer a vindictive of a quick settlement in court of what is to be the correct procedure and as to whose appointees are to win out, the Mayor's or those of the Supervisors. Trent is considered to have acted impartially and well.

The City Attorneys and other lawyers are today engaged in formulating a course of court procedure, and on Monday there will be asked to be issued effective orders to take Treasurer Trent into court to show by what authority he holds back the pay of the road overseer and others.

MONGOLIA AND MEXICAN IN

The Pacific Mail Steamship Mongolia, from Yokohama and Hongkong, was sighted at an early hour this morning and berthed at the Backfield wharf shortly before 9 o'clock. She was 9 1/2 days from Yokohama, and, strange to say, had a very agreeable passage, the storms of the past week or two not having struck her. The Mongolia will resume her voyage at 5 o'clock this afternoon for San Francisco.

The center of interest, from the shore standpoint, as the vessel neared the wharf, was Mike Fisher's crack baseball team, stopping off here to show the All Hawaii's how to play the game.

Outside of the team there were no first-class passengers for Honolulu and the through list was exceptionally light for the Mongolia.

The American-Hawaiian's steamer Mexican, Captain Tappley, reached her dock shortly before the Mongolia. She also had a rough trip of it, meeting with heavy winds most of the way. Captain Tappley states that he is not late, as has been supposed, as he is on his freight schedule. Three days' mail came by the Mexican, she having sailed ahead of the Manchuria, thus catching it. No passengers were brought. The vessel has a mixed cargo for Honolulu and her other ports of call in the islands. She will depart about next Wednesday for Kananakali, Kaula and Hilo.

Both the Mongolia and Mexican call for bands of stevedores, so that there was a big rush of laborers up on the Backfield wharves this morning. The workmen will make a good week end of it.

J. V. L. Stevenson, who comes from a luna's position at Oahu and was formerly clerk at the Hawaiian Hotel, arrived in the S. S. Mauna Kea this morning to take a position on the Bulletin staff as sport and police reporter.
