HAWAIIAN ELKS TO STIR LOS ANGELES

sands of eyes in the parade of all nations in the midsummer floral and allegorical festival, July 16 which promises to be one of the most gorgeous spectacles ever produced. Among the features of this procession, as advertised extensively on the mainland, are wild-west riders, the Hawaiian section, and floats of many nations of Orient and Occident.

Hawaiian souvenirs will take the form of the ever-popular "lei," bearing the happy word "aloha." Thousands upon thousands of these will be distributed. There will be a hundred thousand Elks in Los Angeles, besides hosts of other visitors, and Honolulu will naturally come in for a huge share of favorable notice.

"Sunny Jim" McCandless has done much to prepare the way for the going of the Honolulu Elks. In Los Angeles there will be a handsome suite of apartments for visitors from Honolulu and all Honolulu friends and friends of Honolulu who may wish to have a headquarters for gathering. These rooms are at the Hotel Lanter-shine, luxurious and elegant.

One point in particular in which the Honolulu Elks are interested is the first prize to be awarded for the greatest aggregate mileage. Coming from Honolulu, over two thousand miles away, the Honolulu B. P. O. E. will stand a good chance.

All lodges throughout the United States are spreading themselves in the matter of circulation literature and all are contesting for varied honors in the big show. It is safe to say that, with the energy and push and originality which characterize Hawaiian Elksdom, there will be something large and handsome doing from Honolulu.

Oh, you Best People on Earth everywhere, tumble to the clarion truth that Honolulu is the best spot on earth and that there are men here, going to Los Angeles, who intend to prove that fact.

Honolulu Elks at Los Angeles will round up as the best bit of promotion exhibition ever pulled off on the mainland and their doings there will doubtless result in the coming of hundreds of folks to Hawaii.

VIERRA DIES AT EIGHTY-ONE YEARS

Henry Vierra, Sr., died in this city last night, eighty-one years of age. He was a native of Pico, Azores, born June 16, 1828, and came here in 1852, leaving here on a whaling cruise and returning to Honolulu a few years later.

He married Marguerite Candida in this city and eleven children came of their union, as follows: Mrs. J. P. Rodriguez, Mrs. M. A. Gonsalves, Mrs. A. G. Silva, Mrs. W. E. Bellina, Mrs. J. W. Chapman, Mrs. L. E. Arnold, Henry, Caesar, A. K. W. A., and J. O. Vierra.

The funeral occurs at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

BORN.

HANNA—In Honolulu, May 20, 1909, to Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Hanna, a daughter.

"NO FISHIN' HERE."

Boarder—I've fished in your old pond for three days and haven't had a bite. What does that sign, "No Fishin' Here," mean, anyway?

Hiram—Just what it says, sir—"No Fish-in Here."

brought a suit for $25,000 damages against the company owing the cafe.

The American-Hawaiian steamer Pleiades, which was to sail from San Francisco for this city on June 4, will leave two days earlier, according to the new schedule issued by the local agent, C. P. Morse.

Captain Lorenzen, the local pilot, still continues to be in ill health and has not returned to duty as was expected. The vacancy is being filled by Captain Lane, formerly of the tug Intrepid. It is understood that Captain Lorenzen is planning a trip to the Coast for his health.

Secretary H. P. Wood of the Hawaii Promotion Committee, on reading of Mrs. Taf's breakdown, called to Dr. L. E. Cofer asking him to use his influence to induce the President's wife to come to Hawaii for recuperation. At its meeting yesterday the committee approved of the secretary's action.

Thirty-seven cars designed especially for the carrying of fresh pineapples are under construction at the carshops of the Oahu Railway & Land Company. John A. Hughes superintending the work. These cars will be of the finest type in existence. As soon as these are completed, Mr. Hughes expects to start work on the construction of seven or eight new passenger cars, to be equipped with all the latest appliances. Mr. Hughes has also the superintendency of the construction of the clam-shell dredge for the Hawaiian Dredging Co., which is to be used clearing the channel at Pearl Harbor.

TONIGHT 'THE TOWN CONSTABLE

The Elford Company present for the last two nights of their engagement at the Orpheum commencing tonight the performance of "The Town Constable." It is a modern story with a strong dramatic plot, lots of clever comedy characters and a beautiful scenic setting. It is in four strong acts and all of the favorites of the company have congenial parts.

CAPTAIN CHAPMAN FOR SHIP DIRIGO

Captain Chapman, late of the ship Susquehanna, left San Francisco in the steamer Korea today, on his way hither to take command of the ship Dirigo, now at this port, relieving Captain Goodwin. This news was received by Joseph A. Gilman this morning.

THE MELODRAMA OF ENOCH ARDEN

For such a poem as Enoch Arden to be called a melodrama seems incongruous unless we know that modern composers use the term as a synonym for "musical reading." And Richard Strauss' arrangement of Tennyson's poem not only detracts nothing, but adds sweetness and charm to the old familiar story of love and unselfishness.

Miss Margaret Clarke and Mrs. F. T. P. Waterhouse have studied it with sympathetic appreciation, and their presentation of it on next Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McCandless is looked forward to with much pleasure.
