RUSHING ROADWAYS

TO PERFECT CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL APPROACH AND SETTLE WATERTOWN THOROUGHFARES.

The road committee of the Board of Supervisors has a busy day today.

This afternoon, accompanied by the Mayor and the Mayor's secretary, the members of the committee, Quinn, Aylett and Kane, will visit the Children's Hospital on Kuakial street to decide on the perfection of the roadway approach there.

The hospital is to be opened on Thanksgiving day and it is designed to have the road in perfect condition by that time, for there will probably be a great crowd turning out to attend the opening ceremonies.

After a visit to the Children's Hospital, the party in Quinn's auto, goes to Watertown, Pearl Harbor, to settle matters relative to the road improvement request by the Commandant of the Naval Station and planned by the City and County.

REDUCING CAB RATES

PUBLIC MEETING TONIGHT TO CONSIDER PROPOSED CITY ORDINANCE FOR VEHICLES.

The public is invited to attend a meeting in the City Hall at 7:30 this evening for discussion relative to the proposed ordinance regulating the charges of hacks and automobiles, of all vehicles which are exposed for hire.

The Supervisors will be there, including the author of the proposed ordinance, Jim Quinn, chairman of the road committee.

A uniform rate to cover hacks and autos is designed, and with a view to reducing charges. Some of the present charges are considered exorbitant in view of Honolulu's increasing tourist business and the general advancement of the city.

Owners of hacks and automobiles are expected to present themselves and join in the discussion, and the general public is given the opportunity to make known its wants.

There will, however, probably be more hackmen and automobile drivers present than others. This is anticipated.

Quinn believes that the rates charged should be uniform and both charges for automobile and hack hire should be less than prevailing rates.
