ROOSEVELT IN GAME

OYSTER BAY, New York, July 6.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt broke his silence on political affairs yesterday by jumping into the dispute in Washington over the selection of a United States senator to succeed Samuel H. Piles, who has announced that he will not ask for re-election.

Colonel Roosevelt issued a statement saying that he favored the election of Representative Miles Poindexter, of Spokane. The situation is acute and the Poindexter element is strongly in favor of the Roosevelt-Pinchot conservation policy.

In taking a stand in this political fight Colonel Roosevelt places himself squarely in opposition to Secretary of the Interior Ballinger and the policies pursued by the administration in regard to this question.

While Poindexter has not been an active insurgent like Norris of Nebraska and Murdock of Kansas or like Senator Cummins of Iowa and La Follette, he is openly opposed to the conservative wing of the Republican party in the Northwest and is in sympathy with the work and the policies of Gifford Pinchot and the other radical conservationists.

Colonel Roosevelt's action is regarded as the most significant incident in American politics for some time. Owing to his exalted position in the estimation of the people generally, his personal influence will be a great factor in determining many issues, and for that reason his action yesterday has caused no end of speculation as to what his next step will be.

Poindexter is a native of Tennessee and was born in 1868. He is a graduate of the literary and law departments of Washington and Lee University. In 1891 he located in Walla Walla, and in 1892 was elected prosecuting attorney of Walla Walla County, which position he held until 1897, when he moved to Spokane. There he became assistant prosecuting attorney. In 1904 he was elected judge of the superior court. Four years later he was elected to congress by a majority of 15,000 over the Democratic candidate.

Files will quit the senate because, he claims, he can only pay expenses with the salary, whereas in the practice of law in Seattle his income is $100,000 a year.

PUGS AND PROMOTER GET BIG MONEY

RENO, July 6.—Tex Rickard, promoter and general manager of the big pugilistic contest, made his official report last night which showed that 15,760 persons witnessed the bout, and that the receipts amounted to $270,275 exclusive of the moving picture receipts.

The press received 800,000 words from Reno on the fight, and all previous records were broken by the news services.

PROHIBIT SHOWING OF PRIZEFIGHT PICTURES.

LOS ANGELES, California, July 6.—The board of trustees of this city have decided not to permit the exhibition of the Jeffries-Johnson prizefight pictures in the moving picture theaters here. The reason given for the action of the authorities is that the pictures would have a depraving influence upon young children.

GOVERNOR SANDERS WILL BE SENT TO THE SENATE.

BATON ROUGE, Louisiana, July 5.—Governor Sanders was today named by the legislature as United States senator to succeed Senator McEnery, who died recently.

BILL TO MODIFY CORONATION OATH

LONDON, June 28.—Premier Asquith introduced in the House of Commons today the promised bill altering the form of the religious declaration requested of the sovereign upon his coronation. The paragraph is thus made to read:

"I do solemnly and sincerely, in the presence of God, profess, testify and declare, that I am a faithful member of the Protestant Church, as by law established in England, and I shall, according to the true intent of the enactments which secured Protestant succession to the throne of my realm, uphold and maintain the said enactments to the best of my power and according to law." The declaration measure passed its first reading by a vote of 383 to 42.

The feature film for tonight will be, "The Christian Martyr," a beautiful Selig film, showing scenes, and costumes during the Roman days, when the Christians and the Pagans were at war. There will be a matinee every Wednesday and Saturday.

ROOSEVELT SUED FOR A MILLION

NEW YORK, (N. Y.), June 28.—Mrs. Ida von Claussen, a remarkable handsome young woman, who came here recently from Europe, created a sensation in the County Clerk's office today when she filed a complaint in a suit for $1,000,000 against Theodore Roosevelt, Robert Bacon, United States Ambassador to France, Charles Graves, Minister to Sweden, and the latter's wife.

The suit is for defamation of character. In her complaint she sets forth that she was on the eve of becoming the bride of Prince Eugene of Sweden when the alleged interference of the defendants in her suit brought the match to an end. Mrs. von Claussen's troubles began when she failed to secure an introduction at the royal court in Sweden.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—After having failed to be presented at the court of the King of Sweden, Mrs. Von Claussen came to Washington in April 1907, to lay the matter before President Roosevelt. She tried to arrange an interview with the President, but found the official bars too tightly closed to permit of her entrance to the President's presence.

She also attempted to get the State Department to take her case but in this she failed. Since 1907 she has visited the national capital a number of times.

On the occasion of her visit here several months ago she declared she was the object of conspiracy on the part of great men in this country and abroad, which had as its object the prevention of the publication of a book she had written exposing diplomatic intrigues. She said her life had been attempted six times by her persecutors.

RELIGIOUS DUPE LOSES MONEY

LONG BEACH, Cal., June 28.—The family of Peter Martens, a wealthy resident of this city, who started for Palestine recently to prepare for the second coming of Christ, received a telegram from him today asking for funds with which to get home. Martens wired that the clergyman who induced him to sell valuable property and take the money to the Holy Land had fleeced him of several thousand dollars and left him stranded in Alexandria, Egypt.

Martens says he reached New York today through the charity of a tourist to whom he told his story in Cairo. According to his message, instead of devoting the money to evangelical purposes the minister induced him to buy mining stock and now Martens is waiting for funds to buy passage across the continent.

SOMETHING WRONG.

The lad timidly entered the office of the old broker.

"Well, my boy," said the broker, wheeling in his chair, "I suppose you have come to apply for a position as office boy?"

"Yes, sir," replied the lad, twining his hat nervously.

"How many grandmothers have you?"

"None, sir. Both are dead."

"Well, how often do you get the mumps in the baseball season?"

"Never, sir, I only have the mumps in the winter."

"Strange. Then what excuse do you make up when you wish to take an afternoon off to see a ball game?"

"None at all, sir. I don't like baseball, and I have never been to a game in my life."

The old broker gave a low whistle.

"My lad," he exclaimed, "any American boy who doesn't like baseball must be a freak. You'd better go with a circus!"

RAILROAD AND JAPANESE BOATS

By the terms of a traffic agreement which is said to have been arranged by the Western Pacific Railroad and the Toyo Kisen Kaisha, it is believed in railroad circles that the Gould transportation lines propose to make a powerful bid for a share of the trade with the Orient that has been largely absorbed by the Harriman navigation companies from San Francisco on the one hand and the Hill steamships from Puget sound on the other and other companies.—S.
