A very delightful concert was given at Bishop Hall, Punahoa College on Thursday evening for the benefit of the Industrial School girls, at which a number of prominent society people were present, and the program included besides the masterpiece of Liza Lehmann's "The Persian Garden," some exquisite solo work by some of our local talent.

The hall was well filled and the reception of each number greeted with warm appreciation, and the evening in all was a success in every detail, the only regret being that owing to an oversight the concert was to a certain extent deterred by the band concert at the Pleasanton hotel on the same evening.

One of the novel and exceedingly delightful features was the first public appearance of Miss Ray Bell, a Honolulu girl who has come home with honors after a year's study abroad and from whom some day we will hear more.

The program well managed and enjoyable was as follows:

- PART I.
- Piano solo.....
  - Mrs. S. M. Ballou
  - Recitation—"Sombre".....
  - Miss Ray Bell
  - Solos—a, "Mother of Mine"..... F. Tours
  - b, "For All in All"..... P. C. Hall
  - Mr. Phillip Hall
  - Accompanied by Mrs. Henry Bicknell.
  - Recitation—"Sweet Girl Graduate".....
  - Miss Ray Bell
  - Piano solo.....
  - Mrs. S. M. Ballou

PART II.

"The Persian Garden".....
Mrs. Allan White, Mrs. Stephen Norton Bobo, Mr. Arthur Wall, Mr. G. A. Brown.
Accompanist, Mrs. S. M. Ballou.

The proceeds from this concert will be contributed toward buying a piano for the Girls' Industrial School.

The society musical comedy "Shopping" which has been postponed to take place during the coming winter at one of the leading San Francisco theaters is to contain an all star cast so far as society's dramatic talent is concerned.

And among those to whom principal roles are assigned appears the name of Miss Kathleen de Young, well known in Honolulu since her visit here last winter, who has just returned from a sojourn in Europe.

Mrs. Overend entertained at bridge on Wednesday afternoon at her Hawaiian Hotel cottage on Richards street, for a number of her friends.

The cozy little cottage was enclosed in a bower of hanging baskets, palms and fuchsia ferns and the gracious hospitality of the hostess made the afternoon in every way delightful.

Heavy or elaborate dressing has been dispensed with for the summer months, and all the guests and the hostess wore fine lingerie frocks which though simple were appropriate and becoming.

Three tables of bridge devotees were entertained on this occasion, and the first prize, a hammered brass teapot was awarded to Miss Stella Peck.

The consolation prize, in the form of a very handsome cluney lace luncheon set of doilies was won by Mrs. Samuel Peck.

During the afternoon delicious refreshments of sandwiches, fruit punch and cream were served, and those present to partake of Mrs. Overend's hospitality were: Mrs. Samuel Peck, Miss Stella Peck, Mrs. M. E. Grossman, Mrs. Philip Peck, Mrs. James Dougherty, Mrs. Ormond Wall, Mrs. Theodore F. Lansing, Mrs. Paik, Mrs. Schmidt, Mrs. Cogswell, Mrs. Reidford, and Mrs. Bush.

Miss Bernice Dwight entertained on Wednesday evening at a very beautiful fully appointed and elaborately designed pot supper, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Dratmond of California who are guests at the Moana hotel.

Miss Dwight's home on Makiki street was the scene of the evening's festivities, and the home with its myriads of shaded lights and greens and fragrant flowers, was a revelation.

A long faintly bedecked table occupied part of the large dining room and it was clad with mountain maids, delicate maidenhair and a huge black cutlery tray of large red carnations, with long leis of the same at each cover, attached to place cards in the water color scenes of Hawaii.

The overhanging chandelier was draped with streamers of matie and maidenhair which fell as ribbons to each place, and the globes were encased in soft silk rose designed shades with candelabra of the same around the centerpiece.

At this typically Hawaiian feast every delicacy was displayed, neatly wrapped in cooked "hi" and banana leaves and the fragrance of baked fish and fowl and rich coconut cream mingled most temptingly with the blossoms.

During supper the soft singing and playing of a Hawaiian quintette club from a bower of ferns and palms, were most entrancing, and afterwards the evening was spent in dancing on the spacious lanais brilliantly lighted and draped in Chinese lanterns and entirely enclosed by graceful young bamboo.

Those present at this delightful affair to enjoy Miss Dwight's hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. Brainard, in whose honor it was given, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Chillingworth, Mr. and Mrs. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Waller, Miss Case, Miss Ellen Dwight, Mrs. Bernice Dwight, Mr. Harry Simpson, Mr. David Sherwood and Mr. Sam Walker.

Mr. and Mrs. Holmes and Mr. and Mrs. Fenimore of San Francisco, entertained at a handsomely appointed dinner on Thursday evening at the Moana Hotel, for a few of their friends of whom they have many in Honolulu.

The round table was abloom with a profusion of pale pink single oleanders as a centerpiece heaped up in grace-

LIKE RHINE WINES.

Alton B. Parker, in the smoking room of the Hotel, rejoiced in the fact that there are so many German-Americans in the United States.

"These well intelligent, industrious, and honest men," he said, "are a great asset to our country. There are a lot of them, but I wish there were more."

"At the same time there are a lot of them," he said, "but I wish there were more."

On the boat going over my neighbor in the dining saloon picked up a card the first day out, and, glancing down it, said to the steward:

"Steward, my wife and I will have a bottle of Seltzer, a half bottle of Niersteiner and a half bottle of Opener."

"Beg pardon," said the steward; "but isn't the wine card, sir; that's the passenger list."

THOUGHTS SATURDAY

Gen'ly 4m
THINK THEY'RE FUNNY.

Our idea of him humorists includes those besotted "fads" who imagine they are doing something clever and original when they show their displeasure at the amuse by yelling "strike!" every time a perceptibly bad ball is pitched, and "safe" every time a visiting player is thrown out by a city block. These jokers are on a par with the theatergoers who invariably applaud the boy who sweeps up the pig man and carries out the preceding performers "props." This sort of humor may become exceedingly monotonous and flat to unpriced and stage hands.—Detroit Free Press.
