SECOND LAND DRAWING MORE LOTS THAN APPLICANTS

The drawing for the second land division covering North and South Kona took place this morning in the throne room. Maxton Campbell opened the applications in the order in which they were drawn from a box, and Governor Frear was an interested spectator. Fifty-two lots of land have been made available, but only thirty-eight applications were received. Of this number one, that of Henry A. Wright of 1260 Fort street, Honolulu, was rejected, because it was imperfectly executed. Through an error he marked the envelope "Second land District," while his application was for land in the seventh division. This, of course, disqualified him, and thus only left thirty-seven applicants for the land. The selection of these lots will be made on November 28 next at nine a. m. at the Circuit Court house, Kailua, Kona, Hawaii. The third drawing will take place tomorrow morning.

The following is a list of the applicants in the order in which they will be permitted to make their selections: 1 Henry P. Hoolulu, 2 Philip Kalua, 3 Edward Johnson, 4 John J. Jarvis, 5 Kazuo Kakekahi, 6 John Kalua, 7 Naali, Sr., 8 Henry Koo, 9 Mathew H. Kane, 10 John Kaneo, 11 James Aaron Oshale, 12 John Grace, 13 Kaolalo Kapela, 14 John G. Henriques, 15 Herode A. Newton, 31 Keiki Koko, 32 Kaloku Jr., 33 Louis Deniz, 34 Henry J. Pinchon, Jr., 35 Moses Moku, 36 Samuel Maloaloko, and 37 Miss Lydia Henriques.

ARMED FILIPINOS RIOT ON HAWAII

HILO, October 25.—Mendiola, a Filipino laborer, was last Saturday shot twice in the leg by J. A. McLeod, Board of Health inspector and special police officer at Papeaia. Following this disturbance, twelve Filipinos were arrested for carrying concealed weapons.

McLeod states that last Saturday afternoon, at about 2 o'clock, he was on his way to inspect the Kapehu camp, when he was stopped by a Korean contractor, who told him that he had discharged four Filipino workmen, and wanted McLeod to help him get rid of them. McLeod went to the camp and arrested Mendiola, who had been loafing for some time past, on a charge of vagrancy. The Filipino was allowed to go into his room to get his belongings, and McLeod followed him, as well as the Korean.

The Filipino became belligerent, and McLeod tried to handcuff him. The Filipino resisted, and there was a tussle. When they broke, Mendiola got a baseball bat and swung it at McLeod. McLeod drew his revolver and warned Mendiola that he would use it if he continued to be obstreperous. The Filipino, however, still threatened to attack, and McLeod fired at him twice, it being his intention to disable, but not to kill him. Both bullets took effect in the leg a bit above the knee, and the wounds are not dangerous.

When McLeod stepped outside, he was confronted by a mob of angry Filipinos. One had an axe and all had a grouch. McLeod covered them with his gun, and managed to mount his horse and get away without being molested. He reported the matter to Dr. Irwin and gave himself up to the police.

Mendiola explained to Deputy Sheriff Fetter and Deputy County Attorney Heen, who went to the scene on Sunday that McLeod and the Korean had attacked him as he was lying on his bed, and that they had tried to choke him. He had managed to break away and had almost gained the door, when he was shot. He then picked up the bat and was shot the second time.

A short time after this affair, the Koreans came to the authorities and complained that several hundred Filipinos had come from various camps and had taken charge of their camp, it being their intention to get after the Korean contractor. They were armed with clubs and other weapons, and the Koreans fled. On Sunday morning the police dispersed the Filipinos, but in the afternoon they began to gather again.

In the mean time Heen and Fetter were on their way back to Hilo. On their way they met four Filipinos, one of whom was carrying a home-made sword. They explained that they were on their way to Papeaia to see the wounded man, but that they did not intend to make any trouble. They were made to give up the sword and were allowed to go.

At Waikamalo twelve Filipinos were met. They told the same story, but when they were searched, three loaded revolvers, two hundred rounds of ammunition, one dagger and two clubs were found concealed on their persons, and the entire bunch was arrested and brought to Hilo.

McLeod is out on bail. He was arrested, but no charge has been placed against him as yet.

DECEIVED RUSSIAN GIRL.

(Wireless to The Star.) HILO, October 28.—Raphael Lopez, Porto Rican, has been arrested on a charge of bigamy. His second "wife" is a Russian girl 21 years of age. He will be turned over to the federal authorities for prosecution.

NOBODY FIRED FOR POLITICS

"The Rapid Transit Company has never tried to control the political opinions of any of its employees," said C. G. Ballentyne, the company's manager, yesterday in the course of an emphatic denial of a statement published in the Democrat to the effect that a motorman had been worried out of his job on account of being a Democrat.

"The directors of the company hold their own political views, but as a corporation they do not engage in politics," Mr. Ballentyne concluded.

With regard to the Democratic fly-sheet's story, Mr. Ballentyne was aware of no case having occurred which would give a shadow of cause for the allegation that things had been made so uncomfortable for a certain motorman who had betrayed Democratic sentiments that he resigned his job.

HILO CHALLENGE

Hilo, Hawaii, October 24, 1910. Mr. Harry Irwin, Democratic Candidate for County Attorney, Hilo, Hawaii.

Dear Sir: Mr. G. F. Afonso and Mr. George C. Hewitt tell me that on Sunday, October 23rd, you stated to them that Governor Frear had written a letter to some gentleman in Hilo in which Governor Frear stated that Afonso must be defeated in the coming election. For the benefit of electors of the First Representative District I now publicly ask you to produce that letter so that the same may be published in the public press. If the letter, to which you refer, is beyond your control, I shall ask you to give the name of the person who received it and the contents of the letter as nearly as it can be reproduced. A failure to answer this communication or to comply with this request will be taken as an admission that no such letter was ever written.

Very truly yours, CARL S. SMITH, Campaign Manager.

BERT BOWER ARRESTED TODAY

As a result of the activity of the federal authorities Lee Kwak-kup and Bert Bower have been arrested, both of whom, it is alleged, have been assisting in the smuggling ashore of opium. With these arrests, it is expected, the illegal trafficking will practically cease, for the time being at all events, but, of course, a very diligent search will be made of all boats on which it is thought that there is a likelihood of opium being concealed.

Bert Bower had not been arrested at a late hour last evening, but he came to Honolulu on the Mauna Kea this morning, and E. J. Lord accompanied him to the marshal's office in order that the warrant might be executed. After the formalities had been arranged, Mr. Lord acted as bondsman.

MCCANDLESS BACK.

L. L. McCandless returned this morning from his tour of Maui and Hawaii, and is now prepared to resume campaigning here. McCandless had done some very strenuous campaigning, and he went home for a sleep before tackling the local situation. He was down town before noon, however, and was at once besieged by politicians.
