AT THE THEATERS

SEVERAL SAVOY NUMBERS

AMONG WEEK'S SUCCESSES
 The Doric Trio has the town. The recalls that they win nightly are more than you could count on your fingers. And the best of it is that they respond so good naturedly to the many demands made for mere numbers. The two cute kiddies, Dolliver and Rogers, who made such a hit at the ball game last Sunday make even a bigger hit at the Savoy every night with their song and dance act. Dainty Winnie Baldwin, so the critics say, can make her home here as long as she wants to. She has sung her way into the hearts of every theatergoer. Sonny Cunha's orchestra (from The Park) supply music to accompany some fine films, taking it all in all, The Savoy has a rattling good show.

MUSIC, DANCING AND FILMS AT THE EMPIRE

This comfortable house is receiving the patronage of the lovers of good, clean entertainment, both afternoons and evenings. The Musical Bentleys are one of the finest treats in the show business that have come to these islands. Harding and Wasson, the singing and dancing double, are hard to equal. George Stanley still warbles forth nightly and pleases the audience so much that he has to respond to several encores. The films presented are the very latest and approved by the censors of the moving picture shows.

THE BIJOU.

Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather during the past week, the Bijou has done a rattling good business. The attractions are Le Maree Brothers, the musicians who handle any old musical instrument with fine results; Burke and Burke, who are the chief mirth dispensers of Honolulu; Conchita Carranza, whose Spanish dances are a treat; Richard Kipling, a good strong baritone whose ballads are illustrated, and the man from the wilds of Sunny Africa, Hassan Ben Abdic, the strong man, whose rock crushing on his head would put the city steam roller to shame. Incidentally, mention should be made of the orchestra under the baton of Professor Hughes. If you happen to feel blue go and spend a half an hour and dispel that feeling by listening to the dulcet strains of the finest orchestra in the city.

ASK MINISTERS.

There appeared the other day a published objection by the Rev. Mr. Gulick, against the presentation of the hula dance at the coming Elks carnival and, incidentally, against the Kirmess exhibiting the geisha dance. Mr. Gulick said unpleasant things about the hula, things strenuously denied by representative Hawaiians and generally considered unkind. If Mr. Gulick has ever seen a hula such as is to be given by the Elks, he could not possibly have any objection, unless to the pure all things are rotten. If he has not seen such a hula, why, then he is most cordially invited to come to the Elks' great carnival, February 21 and 22, and see both hula and geisha.
 General Grant said: "War is hell." Rev. Gulick seems to think: "The hula is ditto," but let him come and see. He's welcome and the carnival will do him good.

LITTLE TOO MUCH.
 De Fate—Good morning, janitor. It's cold this morning.
 De Janitor—Yes, sir, but I hope you don't blame me for that.

COTTON AND RUBBER

A practical agriculturist, who has been some time in the Hawaiian Islands, has associated with a Japanese subject in the exploitation of a 2,000-acre cotton and rubber plantation. He informs an American consular officer that he would be glad to receive data regarding such machinery as may be useful to him in care of the American consulate at the point where the plantation is to be located.—Consular Reports.

JUST FOR A CHANGE.

Honolulu has been experiencing the annoying features of San Francisco weather for almost a month; it's unpleasant and inspires one to leave for a more agreeable climate. Haleiwa offers all the heart of a visitor to Hawaii can crave. The hotel is conveniently located near the trains with mountain or sea scape from every room. Splendid cuisine and service and the center of a locality rather famous for its beautiful drives.
