LEGISLATIVE WORK TO-DAY

THE SENATE.

This morning there was no wasted time, or unnecessary discussion in the senate. The session was not characterized by any important bills or measures of any kind. It was simply a question of cleaning-up house and senate bills.

Judd introduced a petition asking that a four-inch water main be placed in Houghtalling Road.

The Judiciary Committee reported on the following bills:

H. B. No. 20. Findings. This bill seeks to repeal that part of the Municipal Act of the City and County of Honolulu which provides for a set of election officers different from those appointed by the Governor for Legislative elections. The committee recommended the passage of the bill. The bill passed its second reading.

H. B. No. 13. Findings: This bill was in substance recommended by the Governor in his first message (page 38) to the Legislature. It is calculated by it to perfect the statute of 1909, regarding intermediate imprisonment, by removing one ambiguity, and by deleting one clause found to be impracticable, and by placing on the warden, a paid official, the burden of a large amount of detail work, which is now upon the Board of Prison Inspectors who serve without pay. The committee urged the passage of the bill.

The bill passed its second reading. S. B. No. 6. "To prohibit any Government officer from being interested in any contract or agreement to which the Government is a party."

The committee said that this was a wise measure. It passed second reading.

THE HOUSE.

This morning the House passed its concurrent resolution to reserve the hall of the House of Representatives, being the old throne room, and the Senate chamber, being the former royal banquet hall, for the exclusive purposes of the Legislature, amended to permit the use of the places by the Governor for the reception of distinguished visitors, also by the courts while the Judiciary building is undergoing repairs. A fight was made in vain to allow the use of the sacred apartments by public boards. The minority consisted of Castle, Cooke, MacCallisto, Tavares, Towse, Watkins, and Williamson.

Cockett's bill to amend the County Act so as to raise the salaries of supervisors and certain elective officers, the latter in the county of Maui, had the part relating to supervisors struck out on recommendation of the public expenditures committee. Nine bills were introduced, bringing the total up to 94. Among the new ones is the old bill of claims for business license fees unlawfully collected, the total amount being nearly twenty thousand dollars.

At eleven o'clock the Senate adjourned until 10:30 tomorrow morning.

House Joint resolution No. 1 with regard to the appointment of a committee to consider the question of sending an Hawaiian exhibit to the exposition to be held in San Francisco in 1915, was adopted.

At eleven o'clock the Senate adjourned until 10:30 tomorrow morning.

NOTES FROM THE OTHER ISLANDS

GENERAL NOTES.

The Rev. Crompton Sawerbutts, rector of St. Mary the Virgin's Church, San Francisco, will arrive shortly on Kaula, to open an Episcopal mission for the benefit of the church members on this island.

Rev. Sawerbutts has made a splendid record in California as a worker and preacher, and will no doubt be warmly welcomed to his new field by those who are communicants of the Episcopal Church.

It is understood that for the present, Rev. Sawerbutts will hold most of his services at Lihue.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Mahlum, Waiman, Kaula, was the scene of a very charming dinner party last Sunday evening. The decorations were very tastefully arranged and brought forth much admiration. Plates were laid for seven. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Hofgaard, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Coburn, Mr. L. A. Hart and Mr. and Mrs. Mahlum.

A law which permits any old thing as a "safe" gas outfit, is sadly in need of an amendment. The explosion which took place in Kealia the other night should be a lesson to those in whose power such privilege lies. That no one was seriously hurt was no fault of the ignorant operator no more than it was to his "good luck" which he arrogantly boasts of possessing. It strikes us that here is an opportunity for our Supervisors to get busy on a law that would make it impossible for impositions of this nature to continue.

Born: To Mrs. Gaylord P. Wilcox, of Koloa, Sunday Feb. 12, a son.

Herbert S. Simpson, vice-principal of the Kapa-Kaia school, received a cable word from California that he was again a happy father, a little girl having found her way to the Simpson home last Thursday.

In addition to its being the day of their marriage it was also the natal day of Mrs. Spalding. The young couple received the best wishes of all their friends, a number of beautiful and costly presents also finding their way to the house which was tastefully decorated for the occasion. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. John Neal and Dr. and Mrs. Hoffman.

The McBryde Pedro Club held its monthly meeting Saturday evening at the residence of W. J. De Zries. The following were present: Mr. W. J. De Zries, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Moler, Mr. H. Moler, Mr. F. W. Mangle, Mr. W. Miller, Mr. Chas. Hannah, Mr. W. Elliot, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Brodie, Miss Arms, M. V. Fernandez, Mr. P. Fitzgibbons, Misses Hastie, Mr. J. H. Hoie. GETTING BACK TO EARTH.

There was plenty done in the homes of Honolulu society ladies before Saturday, and it will be but fair for the husbands of those who did so much to make recent charitable events successful to send their tired wives to Haleiwa for a few days rest. It is a delightful place, and one where the expense of living is not great. The train will take you to the door. Ten dollars will take passengers to Haleiwa and around through the pineapple plantations, occupying two days and cost ten dollars, everything paid.

THE SITUATION AS TO CHOLERA

So far there have been five deaths from cholera; six cases have been reported, and there is one death that is from unknown causes. An inquiry is being held into this, but the result of it will not be known until tomorrow morning.

The death reported yesterday was the father of a little girl who is also suffering from cholera. The girl has not reached the crisis yet, but it is hoped that the doctors will be able to save her life. The latest death is that of the husband of the woman who died on Friday last. Should this be diagnosed as cholera, there will be six deaths out of seven cases. There was another death reported this morning, but the diagnosis of this has not been concluded yet, so the authorities prefer to say nothing concerning the cause of death.

The board of health does not consider that there is much cause for alarm, as so far all the deaths have been among contacts. But great vigilance is being kept up, especially around the waterfront, and every pre-
