Times of the tide are taken from the U. S. Coast and Geodetic Survey tables. The tides at Kahului and Hilo occur about one hour earlier than at Honolulu. Honolulu standard time is 10 hours 39 minutes slower than Greenwich time, being that of the meridian of 157 degrees 30 minutes. The time whistle blows at 1:30 p. m., which is the same as Greenwich 6 hours 9 minutes. The sun and moon are for local time for the whole group.

The Mauna Kea experienced stormy weather both going and coming and was unable to land mail either way. Outbound passengers and freight were landed in Hilo.
The steamer Kauai is reported as being in Hilo when the Mauna Kea was there.
Homebound bound the Inter-Island ferry passed the steamship Mexican off Kihui and the steamship Honolulu off Kamalo Point.
The U. S. S. Maryland arrived in Hilo on Wednesday afternoon.

Fukumen, a well-known Kukulua hotel proprietor, was arrested Sunday for selling liquor without license. He put up a $100 bail. Lumchee, a Kukulua storekeeper, was also arrested for the same offense as the Japanese.

The performance of Pinafore was a great success.
Paauhau—Mrs. Wm. Wilson continues to make satisfactory progress after her illness, but it will be some time before she is out of quarantine.
Mrs. Robert Smith is also getting better, and the company of her mother, Mrs. Alameda, who has come to take care of her, will no doubt cheer her up and hasten her complete recovery.

During Mrs. Robert Smith's absence, Mrs. W. Payne, of Honokaa, is taking her classes at the school.
Messrs. Gibson of the board of education, and J. A. Marciel, supervising principal, were in Paauhau on Friday, inspecting the school and conferring with parents on school matters.

The finishing touches are being put to the important alterations and additions to the mill that have been in hand since grinding stopped. It is expected that a start will be made to the 1912 harvest, about the middle of December.

Thanksgiving Day was held as a holiday on the plantation here. Two days in the beginning of November and one day at the end, and then in December, Christmas Day, with New Year's Day immediately after—five days in two months, and then not a single day off till the 4th of July, is not a good division. It is to be hoped that the next Emperor of Japan will arrange to be born sometime about March or April, which would spread our holidays more over the year than they are at present.

Papaia—Miss Adelaide Murray is being under the weather for the past week but has improved since the 25th.

Roads between Weloka and Kapehu are being repaired by the railroad company.
Joseph E. Swain is now employed at the Laupahoehoe Sugar Company. Some good heavy showings fell during the latter part of last week.

It is a very interesting sight at night to see the railroad camps all along the line from Pohakupuka right down to Laupahoehoe, brightly illuminated. It reminds one of the expositions which one had the fortune to attend at night.

Pahala—Miss Annie Chalmers of Drumsok, Aberdeenshire, is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Ogg.
Mrs. W. Bartels of Pahala, will spend Christmas with her father in Honolulu.

Several Kona cars have passed through lately, and we hear of the once good Kau roads being badly gutted in places, and all for lack of a little proverbial "stitch in time."
Mr. Chong, the enterprising merchant and hotel man, is remodeling and renovating his hostelry. He is putting in a new brick range, and arranging for a haole dining room with entrance on the street. A new stair from the front leads to the sleeping rooms above. Now the chance visitor to Pahala can no longer blame fumes for the black eyes or skinned noses for which the old circuitous route upstairs was said to be responsible.

Waiohina—Mr. and Mrs. Perry Gibb left Waiohina via Mauna Loa. Mr. Gibb expects to fill a good position in the Philippines.
We are sorry that Mr. and Mrs. L. Rogers are both sick with "break-bone."
Rainy and cold—too chilly to think of getting up at 4 a. m. to see a comet. Moving picture shows keep moving here.

Pohakupuka—On the eve of November 20 Ikeda's store at Waikamalo was robbed. The burglar escaped with the nice sum of $225.60 as his booty. He got in through a back window. A Japanese is suspected, as he was here in the evening heard Ikeda's wife tell the storekeeper where the money was. The police decline to act, saying the robbery was not soon enough reported.

Maui Branch Library.
WAILUKU, December 8.—The gift of Andrew Carnegie for the Territorial library has interested Maui people in securing the advantage of this library for our island. Friends of the project have secured the services of Mrs. A. J. Gossin as librarian, who will give her full attention to the work.

The Alexander House Settlement of Wailuku have vacated the two front rooms of their building from now on for the exclusive use of the library.

Many of the Maui citizens who are interested in the possibility of a Maui Library Association have signed a call for a public meeting to be held at the library rooms at Wailuku, Tuesday evening, December 12.

Correspondence with Governor Frear and Judge Whitney is published, the former having referred the folks to the latter. Judge Whitney among other things says:
"In reference to the books from the Library of Hawaii, I would say that although the plans are not fully made for the distribution of the books, the following is the present plan. The books will be boxed in uniform boxes of fifty or one hundred books and shipped from Honolulu by the library to the point of distribution. The distributing point will then be asked to see that the books are put into circulation in that neighborhood. The books will, of course, remain the property of the Library of Hawaii. When the books are no longer needed for distribution at that point, they will be returned in the same packing case to the Library at Honolulu, and other books will be forwarded to the point. The library will be governed in the sending of books, as far as possible, by the requests coming from that point."

Wedding at Puunene.
A very pretty wedding took place last Saturday, December 2 at seven in the evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. von Seggern, their daughter Mary being united in holy matrimony to Mr. C. W. Gerner, of the Maui Agricultural Co., Paia. The Rev. H. P. Judd of Kahului tied the bonds of Hymen. Miss Ida Carley was bridesmaid, and Mr. T. Cook, of Paia, best man. A reception was held at eight o'clock. The bride looked lovely in her white, shimmering dress of crepe de chine. The rooms were beautifully and profusely decorated with flowers and evergreens. Later in the evening the floor were cleared and dancing indulged in until a late hour. Excellent music was furnished by the Machado septet. The refreshments served were dainty and delightful. The guests present numbered about eighty. The young couple will make their home in Paia.

New Road to Paia.
Arrangements are being made to repair and improve the old Paia road. It is somewhat devious at present and a poor illustration of the geometrical fact, that the straight line is the shortest way between two given points. However, the intention is to have a run in as straight a line as possible right from Kahului and past the Puunene Hospital to Paia, thus shortening the distance considerably. Surveys have already been made and work on the road will begin early in January. One hundred men are to be employed. It will be a macadamized, oiled road, as good as any in the Territory, and a joy forever to all auto drivers.

Practical Joke.
A prominent young man of Paia played a joke on a number of his friends last Thanksgiving Day. He invited a number of his friends to dine with him, telling them that he had prepared a fine fat turkey weighing at least twenty pounds. When the guests arrived, in full dress suits, mine host politely informed them that he had sent the turkey to a friend of his in Honolulu as a Christmas present, but was willing to make good, and invited them to join him in a still hunt for a good meal. Having tramped about for a mile or so they eventually caught up with a mysterious looking bird-nest soup in a Chinese fly den. When they had grown tired of the soup they went out and paraded the streets, singing, "Oh, you lucky Turk."

Kahului Notes.
A. F. Gomes has resigned his position as shipping clerk of the Claudine wharf, owing to ill-health, and will shortly move his family to Honolulu. His place as shipping clerk has been taken by Mr. Mitchell. Several of the young men of the town gave a farewell dinner to Mr. Gomes last Saturday evening. About thirty guests sat down at the table to enjoy the good things.

Tuberculosis Campaign.

The board of Supervisors has gone on record as advocating a campaign of education against tuberculosis, and pamphlets to that end will be distributed in the near future, printed in different languages to suit the necessities of the different nationalities.

Court Goes to Kula.

A civil suit was up before Judge Kingsbury this week on an appeal from the district court at Makayao. The defendant had drained his land, and by so doing had caused the water to overflow on the land of his neighbor. The evidence of the contending parties was of such a conflicting nature that the court decided to go over to Kula and view the property in order to satisfy himself as to the justice of the claims of the contending parties. We understand that the decision of this case is important in that it establishes a precedent for other farmers in the district.

Hans Gittel of Hoffschlaeger Co., Ltd., Honolulu, is visiting Maui for the last time as drummer for the above firm. Mr. Gittel is hereafter to remain in Honolulu as assistant manager of the firm. For years Mr. Gittel has come to Maui on his regular, periodical visits, and he will be missed by his many friends.

Miss Etta Sandry, who has been teaching in the Wailuku school since the beginning of the term, has accepted a position as head stenographer at the von Hamm-Young Co., Honolulu. Her resignation is in the hands of the department of public instruction, and will take effect January 1.

Personal Mention.

John Goodell arrived on Maui Saturday morning, and is intending to locate here. Mr. Goodell is a civil engineer, and is at present looking into the rubber prospects at Nahiku and vicinity.
Sam Taylor of Hamakua is at his old stand again after a long sojourn in bed, following a fall from a runaway horse.

M. Nunez, the assistant engineer at Paia mill, is very sick with inflammatory rheumatism.
Various Items.
T. Burtlem has sold a piece of land near his Maui Station to Joe Costa for the sum of $700. The piece of land sold measures only 40x50 feet, and is 100 feet long. The price of Wailuku real estate is certainly soaring.

Wm. Seabury, superintendent of the Puunene Mill, is having two beach cottages built between Paia and Kahului, where he has acquired five acres of land. He will occupy one of the cottages while the other one will be rented by W. W. Wescott of Puunene. The heavy stone buttresses on the Kahuaba Church, Pukoo, Molokai, have been completed by Wm. Keo and his gang of men, who have been working under the supervision of H. R. Hitchcock.

A death from typhoid fever of a student at Lahainaluna Seminary, Lahaina, occurred Thursday.
The scarlet fever epidemic at Lahaina seems to have been checked, and is now in hand. No new cases have been reported the past few days. The child of H. McCubbin, which contracted the disease is slightly improved, though it is not yet out of danger.
