THE PACIFIC Commercial Advertiser.

The Landing of the Pilgrim Fathers, Dec. 22, 1660.

BY MRS. HEMANS, OF ENGLAND.

The breaking waves dash'd high,
On a stern and rock-bound coast,
And the woods around a stormy sky,
Their giant branches toss'd.

And the heavy night hung dark
The hills and waters o'er,
When a Band of Exiles moor'd their bark
On the wild New England shore.

Not as the Conqueror comes,
They, the true-hearted, came;
Not with the roll of stirring drums,
And the tramp that slings of Fame:

Not as the flying come,
In silence and in haste—
They seek the depths of the desert's gloom,
With their hymns of lofty cheer!

Amidst the storm they sang:
And the stars heard, and the sea!
And the sounding aisles of the dim woods rang
To the Anthem of the Free!

The ocean Eagle soar'd
From his nest by the white waves' foam,
And the rocking pines of the forest roar'd—
This was their welcome home!

There were men with hoary hair,
Amidst that Pilgrim band—
Why had they come to winter there,
Away from their childhood's land?

There was woman's fearless eye,
Lit by her deep love's truth;
There was manhood's brow severely high;
And the fiery heart of youth.

What sought they thus afar?
Bright jewels of the mine?
The wealth of seas, the spoils of war?—
They sought for Faith's pure shrine!

Aye! I call it holy ground,
The soil where first they trod!
They have left unstain'd what there they found,
Freedom to worship God!

VARIETY.

Time does not wear out the sin of a guilt.
What is not good for virtue is not good for knowledge.
He that sins against man, may fear discovery, but he who sins against God is sure of it.
Who is the most industrious of all ploughmen? Time, for he turns the most furrows.
The anger which flushes the face is not so deadly as that which makes it pale. The red heat is less intense than the white.
We pause sometimes in a path to scan our own footprints, but it is too late to remodel or to retrace them.
Ceremony was always the companion of weak minds; it is a plant that will never grow in strong soil.
Front bravely the object of your worst apprehension, and your stoutness will commonly make your fear groundless.
In the affairs of life, activity is to be preferred to dignity, and practical energy and dispatch is premeditated composure and reserve.
He who brings ridicule to bear against truth finds in his hand a blade without a hilt—one more likely to cut himself than anybody else.
The casting down of your spirits in true humility is like throwing a ball on the ground, which makes it rebound the higher to heaven.
The law of the pleasure in having done anything for another is, that the one almost immediately forgets having given, and the other remembers eternally having received.
A French naturalist has calculated that the number of birds' eggs and young birds destroyed in France every year by predatory urchins and lulls amounts to twenty millions.
It is not exactly correct to suppose that genuine wit is termed "attic salt" because the most gifted authors usually reside in attics and have no other kind of salt to put on their potatoes.
"Silence—silence—silence in the court!" exclaimed an irritated judge, at a country assize. "It is not monstrous that you will not keep silence? This very morning we have decided a dozen cases, and not heard one of them!"
An old lady was telling her grandchildren about some trouble in Scotland, in the course of which the chief of her clan was beheaded. "It was a great thing of a head, to be sure," said the good lady, "but it was a sad loss to him."
A new route to India is being projected by gentlemen who have dealings in the East. It is proposed to lay a tramway over Mont Cenis, so as to shorten the journey over that Pass. Arrived at Suze, the traveler will proceed by rail, via Turin, to Ancona, on the Adriatic. There, instead of Marseilles, he will embark for Alexandria, and save twenty-four hours by this alteration of route.
Some ingenious German, says a cotemporary, has invented a paper cup, which will completely hold a draught of the hottest liquid, and can be bought for a farthing. By means of this invention the good people of Berlin take up and drink at their ease, as they go along the railroad, the cups of coffee which comfort loving Englishmen find it impossible to swallow without scalding their throats.
MORNING DEFINITIONS.—Distant Relations: People who imagine they have a claim to rob you if you are rich, and insult you if you are poor.
Belle: A beautiful, but useless insect, without wings, whose colors fade from being removed from the sunshine.
Housewifery: An ancient art, said to have been fashionable among young girls and wives, but now entirely out of use, or practised only by the lower orders.
No bad man is ever brought to repentance by angry words—by bitter, scornful reproaches. He will fortify himself against reproof, and hard back foul charges in the face of his accuser. Yet, guilty and hardened as he may seem, he may be led to tears by a gentle voice. Whoso, therefore, can restrain his disposition to blame and find fault, and can bring himself down to a fallen brother, will soon find a way to better feelings within. Pity and patience are the two keys which unlock the human heart. They who have been most successful laborers among the poor and vicious, have been the most forbearing.
The following extract relates to the cost of provisions during the siege of Gibraltar by the French and Spanish in 1777.—"During the siege the most common necessities of life were exorbitantly dear. Bad ship-biscuit, full of worms, was sold at one shilling a pound; flour, in not much better condition, at the same price; old dried peas at one shilling, and fourpence half dirt—the sweeping of ships' bottoms and storerooms—at eightpence; old salt butter at two shillings and sixpence; and English farthing candles at sixpence a-piece. Fresh provisions commanded much higher prices. Turkeys sold at two pounds two shillings; and one pound one shilling was refused for a calf's pluck."
