It was in 1860, if I remember rightly, when th

frank, etc., and it is truly wonderful how the "statistics" since then show a falling off in the indications for such offences! No man with his eyes open and who has any regard for truth but must acknowledge that to conclude from these "statistics" that the evils spoken of were really decreasing, would be an utterly false conclusion. The very contrary is the case, as all know, and I am only astonished that any one could write, and an editor could be found willing to print, such a mess of nonsense as that of Mr. . . . Its one redeeming feature is, that it reprints some paragraphs of your perfectly sound article which it attempts to review, and thus amu-

As to your remark that "Political degradation invariably results in moral debasement"—I take it that that is an undeniable aphorism, which neither the Gazette or its correspondent can upset. We see the proofs of it about us every day. I have written more than I intended at the outset, and will wind up asking, in the words of the immortal *— "What are you going to do with the article and the column?"

The Stephens branch of the Fenian Brotherhood have made overtures for union to the Roberts faction, but the Senate of the latter are too busy making plans for an advance on Canada to consider them.

The heaviest gale known for years past occurred March upon the Atlantic coast.

The New York firm of Robinson & Ogden, dealers in Government securities, have failed for two millions of dollars.

A secret association of coal miners in the Schuylkill District, Pennsylvania, are said to be conspiring to strike the Pennsylvania coal fields.

It is announced from Paris that Napoleon favors an alliance of France, Holland, Belgium and Switzerland against Prussia. If this announcement is official, it may outline another bloody war upon the continent.

IRELAND.—It is difficult to get a correct idea of the situation in Ireland from the dispatches received. There seems to be a studied confusion and incomprehensibility in the accounts, which all come through English sources. One thing is evident—a "rising" has taken place.

COLORED SUFFRAGE.—Both Houses of the Kansas legislature agreed to submit to the people the question of altering the constitution to allow negroes to vote by itself; and also a separate proposition to amend the Senate receded from the constitutional test.

CENSUS OF ALABAMA.—The new State census of Alabama shows a total population of 945,741. Of its number 412,445—about one half—are negroes. The total decrease since 1860 is 18,957.

THE TEMPERANCE CAUSE IN SAN FRANCISCO.—The annual report of F. E. R. Whitney, Commander-in-Chief of the Temperance Legion, shows that during the past year 708 persons signed the muster roll, 18 ladies signed the Ladies' Roll of Honor, 85 is joined the Cadets, and over 700 became members of the Lincoln Temperance Legion.

The Massachusetts Supreme Court has decided at a request, to aid in securing the right of voting to the common people of England, that it has decreed at $5,000 left by Francis Jackson for that purpose shall be divided among his heirs. It is said that the Prince of Wales, the Duke of Edinburgh, the Duke of Cambridge, Lord Stanley, and all the members of the English Commis-

First Time.—The cars of the Union Pacific Railroad are now running to a point 105 miles west of Fort Kearney, or 384 miles east of Denver. When the stages and trains have what is called "good track," the trip from this city to Omaha can be made in seven days—just about half the time it took the first stage coach one year ago. This is an exhilarating space with considerable vigor, considering the obstacles that have to be overcome. —[Salt Lake Telegraph.]

From Irish troops according to orders from the police, the members of the society proceeding in a procession too slow, made a serious attack on him. The police endeavored to protect the truckman, when the Irish attacked them, driving them off. Being reinforced, the police endeavored to make arrests, when they were attacked by a large force of Irish, who seriously wounded fifteen officers. The target rifle and the assault weapons were used by the assailants withdrew. Later in the day several riders were taken from the procession at the station house. All sorts of weapons were used by the Irish, including bludgeons, clubs, rods, pistols and muskets.

(C) last evening's special says one of the most remarkable meetings ever held in South Carolina took place today, the occasion being the opening of the session of the General Assembly by the negroes of the passage of the bill enfranchising the blacks. By invitation, General Daniel Hampton, ex-United States Senator Desauvage, Edward Arthur, Hon. W. J. Talley and James Gibbs addressed the meeting; also the Rev. Walter Pickett and Rev. J. M. McLeod, two colored ministers. The negroes were expressed highly honorable and patriotic. The negroes are gratified with the spirit and political affiliation with which they are meeting met, and citizens are equally pleased to find colored people identified with the true interests

NEW YORK, March 22.—The Times says private miners represent the coal miners of Schuylkill county, Pennsylvania, as committing the most serious outrages. The outrages are mainly Irishmen, known as the Molly Maguires, who formed a secret organization for the purpose of controlling mines, and resort to murder and robbery. It is possible to punish them, as when arrested and tried juries are packed with their competers, and ment was influenced with the hope of securing money for the support of the family. The men fought against other superintendents, and all live mentally in fear of violence. Governor Geary has been applied to for protection.
