The Bondage of Drink

You think I love it? If this nervous hand could gain immortality from the very source, I'd crush the bottle...

VARIETY.

MADE UP.—"I have lost flesh," said a toper to his companion. "No great loss," replied the other, "since you have made it up in spirits."

ROMANTIC WESTERN LOVE DRAMA.

"Kiss me, Stephen." And when "Kiss me, Stephen," said the other, "you've been chewing cardamom seeds."

USEFUL INVENTION.—Mrs. Carrie Jessup, of New Haven, Conn., has invented a compartment pot, in which corned beef, fresh codfish, potatoes and plum pudding can all be boiled at the same time.

ANCIENT SERVANT.—Honorable mention is made of a Maine servant girl who is now serving her ninety-second Winter under the same roof.

TOUR.—Fair dandy, putting on new gloves—"Too tight! Oh, no, auntie, not at all. Besides, I like them a little tight!"

HARD SLEDGING.—A good brother in a Baptist church of Miami county, while giving his experience...

NEED TO GO.—A family passing through Detroit lost their tom-cat.

PRECOGNITION.—The latest precocious saying is by an infant on the Pacific coast.

SANK TO REST.—A Liberatorian orator was describing the horrors of a certain battle in the late Franco-Prussian war.

NOT DISTURBED.—There is a Danbury legend to the effect that a party desiring to transact some private business with a man in a neighboring town...

AN ENTERPRISING COUNTRY EDITOR.—He was once out on a jaunt in picking to every farmer until he got his name and money, and it so happened that he came to a house where death had called a few hours before.

NOT A WORD.—Just went right to sleep like "I didn't know," continued the editor, a sad look on his face.
