A Cremation Elegy.
If mortal not even haue,
"Where is thy grave, my love? I want to weep."
The chimney stack through which my love has flown
I cannot now with any certainty know.
Her ashes, strowed in this hollow air,
Are all that's left of dear love's fond desire.
How oft, when wandering o'er this hallowed spot,
And thinking of the days that are no more,
My yearning eyes still seek you chimney-top,
Through which sweet love's ashes did pour.
Sweet carbon, loved ammonia, water fire,
HO, CO, NH, of diastant mold,
Are all the same. Ah! wherefore then repine,
Since not for aye the chemist forces hold.
Ye powers that hold above the silent dead,
You vesting splendour watch and ward,
That trace the footstep of the dead, and lead,
That meet the golden bow, the silver chord.
To you, ye virtuous spirits of the air,
Cohesion, chemical affinity,
Straight have I yielded up my Eden fair,
To find you here, and not in any other place.
And you, my brothers, when my days are ended,
I pray you this leave for me to take.
Ah! lay my body there, whence she ascended,
To fly up through the floor up which she flew.

VARIETY.
How?—The Siamese twins were Baptists.
"But," says the Presbyterian, "suppose one had been a deist, how could the other have been immersed?" But another says they were not Baptists—they were United Brethren.
Disputed.—A Brooklyn sea-captain, just returned from a tour of the Holy Land, expressed himself disgusted with Jerusalem. "It is the most unclean place I ever saw," he said, "it is not a drop of liquor in the old town fit to drink."
World Call.—Young Innocent—"I wish I was grown up like 'oo, Miss Estwell." Miss E.—"You do, my darling." Young Innocent—"Cos I'd call on all my friends, every morning, and have such lots of wine and biscuits."
Added Three Years.—A North Carolina Judge added three years to a man's sentence because the fellow hit him on the hand with a quill pen and called him "old horse." It does seem as if the word "freedom" had no business in that country.
Threatened.—In a Western city it was proposed to assist the temperance cause by publishing the names of those persons who frequented the saloons. This was done, and the proprietors of the local distillery threatened to apply for an injunction to restrain the temperance committee from infringing their copyright.

A fellow who was before a justice at Rutland, Vt., the other day, on charge of theft, pleaded that he was drunk when he committed the crime, and that he was not in the habit of drinking, but was fined for intoxication, while the man who sold him the liquor was hauled up and forced to testify to the contrary.
BETTER.—A lady in New York is the mother of a large family of children, and as they all rather diminish in size, a few die after the birth of the youngest, not long since, a little niece of the lady called to see the baby. After looking at the tiny specimen for a few minutes, the little girl said: "Aunt Maria, don't you think it would be better to have less of 'em and have 'em bigger?"

SERVED HIS DUES.—A young fellow (s.) youth paid his attentions to two young ladies and proposed marriage to both. They found out about it, invited him to the house of one of them, and asked him to take a seat between them, which he did, sitting down in a tub of water over which a covering had been nicely spread. Then they politely requested him not to be in a hurry to go, but he went.

REMARKABLE.—A country minister of "limited capacity" recently married for a second wife a widow of some property. Being an ardent servant of his monarch, he found it necessary to inform her he did not do well by the second marriage. "O, yes, indeed," he said, with animation; "and then as an expression of reverent awe stole into his face, he added, "and what is very remarkable, the clothes of my wife's first husband just fit me!"

CHICAGO COURTESY.—There was a young man in Chicago, And he said, "May I to your pa go, And ask you for a loan, And your house and land?"
There was a young girl in Chicago, Who said, "If you don't let my pa go, You 'gins I will advise you, And with a 'nake my wive advise you."

SET TO MUSIC.—Some one has got hold of the newspaper bore and set him 's music as follows:
He drops into my easy chair,
And asks about the news,
He peers into my manuscript,
And gives his candid views,
He tells me where he likes to live,
And where he's bound to go,
He tells me where he likes to live,
But never takes his leave."

VENUS LOGIC.—This is what Punch calls venus logic: "Respectable Pawnbroker (roused from his slumbers at three a. m. by repeated knocking at his door)—"Well, what is it?" "Broussard—"What's the time?" "Respectable Pawnbroker—"What do you mean to say you've got me out of bed at this time of 'nigh to ask such a foolish question as that?" "Police officer—"Sir, you've got me out of bed at this time of 'nigh to ask such a foolish question as that?" "Well, hang it, governor—(hic)—you've got my watch!"
NO EXCUSE.—A fine distinction was that the preacher of the Richmond First Baptist Church made: "My brudders," said he, "when you were all slaves dar might ha' been sense for cuttin' a slice off the yam or bacon, or hookin' a handful of cornmeal, or robbin' 'em hookey; for you all work hard den, my brudders, and you earn it, my brudders and sisters. But now is all free men dar an' whate'er, your's all on yer own responsibility."
SO NAXX OY.—In the town of Waterloo, Seneca county, New York, lives a Mr. G., who is noted for his fondness of good books; he liked good liquor better. An agent called one day and asked if the house was supplied with the Bible. "Ah, yes," he said, "I have it, and it is a fine one. It was a little ridiculous, and requested to see it. Whereupon, Mr. G.—searched the house and found a few stray leaves, saying, "he had no idea that they were so near out of Bible."
ACKNOWLEDGED THE CORN.—A distinguished member of the Legislature is reported in the Louisville Commercial as having candidly acknowledged the corn. Re-appearing, after an absence from his seat of three days he said he had been sick. "What was the matter with you?" he was asked. "Well, some folks call it nervous shingles; others pronounce it an affection of the heart; but to be candid about it, I call it a plain case of old-fashioned drunk."
