We understand that extensive preparations have been quietly but industriously going on for some time past to ensure a grand success, and we have no doubt it will prove so; for whenever the fair in this city take a Fair in hand, "there's no such word as fail "So be prepared, gentlemen, with plethoric purses, to at once buy some well-made article that you need, contribute by your money to a worthy object, and-win the smiles of the ladies.

TRAINING SCHOOL.—The training school for native ministers, under the care of the American and Hawaiian Boards, on Punchbowl street, has, we learn, the same number of pupils as last year,-ten Hawaiians and two Chinese. It is designed to make the institution self-supporting as far as possible, and with this view the students are ready to do any kind of manual labor. The mornings are spent in for the sugar interests and for the general business study and recitations ; but the afternoons and every of the country that shares and interests in planta-Saturday morning any of our citizens who may wish their services, will find the students ready to and ventured the opinion that if the values of cordo laundry work, yard work, or any such kind of labor. The wives of the students also reside at the ally known, many persons would be induced to labor. The wives of the students also reside at the Institute, and would be glad of any opportunity to tage to themselves. We are therefore glad to ob-

Islands by those who go in search of laborers. A laborer goes home from Fiji, he always takes a gun and ammunition. Like a boy with a pop gun and fire crackers, he is fond of the noise. They use the guns for saluting their friends at meetings. If anything serious really existed against this traffic in guns, we may be certain the British government would interfere, as their humanitarian views extend to the very utmost point of utilityor rather the ability to prevent evils."

CHINESE IN HAWAIL.-The S. F. Call of Oct. 19 has a lengthy letter from Honolulu over the signature of "Oabu" on the above subject, in which the writer combats the views of the Hawaiian 'alarmists, whose horoscopes of the future are gloomy enough to make the average citizen melan-He goes on to apologize for the large and increasing immigration of Chinese here, mainly on the ground of the necessity caused by the sudden and imperative demand for rude labor. He says : "The present aspect of the labor ques tion at the Islands and its future, are well stated is a communication to one of the Island newspapers, by a planter-son of an Ohio Congressman. He then goes on to copy very freely from the letter of Col. Z. S. Spalding, which appeared in our issue of Sept. 13 last. Can we guess who Oahu is ? Will he not also likely prove to be the son of some Congressman?

days to carry into effect the provisions of the Penal Code in respect to vagrants and disorderly persons. In the first place, how many among the younger portion of the native population could we find who, in the words of the statute, " without visible means of support, lives in idleness eating the food of others." And in this category might be found not a few foreign-born vagrants. Another offence which is becoming rife among the rising generation-especially those of foreign parentage -is the practice of profanity. These should be taught that not only is the practice a disgusting one to all persons of good sense, but that it is punishable by law. Section 3 of Chap. 34 Penal Code, reads thus: "Whoever, having arrived at the age of discretion, profanely curses or swears, shall be punished by a fine of from one to six dol-

THE RAINSTORM OF SUNDAY .- The first real oldfashioned rainstorm experienced here in some years commenced about midnight on Saturday last, and continued with but brief intervals until after dark on Sunday-about 19 hours. The wind was light and well to the Eastward, a metimes veering a little to South of East, and the rain fell with that continuous pour, hour after hour, that soaks into the ground and does more good than Honolulu many showers that come in torrents for a brief time. We have been very much favored the present year in the matter of rain, as it has been quite evenly distributed through the months since January, whereby the pastures have always been kept green. We ought, under these circumstances. to have good fat beef and mutton by Christmas

THE PLAGUE OF RATS .- Just now the rodents abound almost everywhere in this city. They are a peculiar animal, and like the seasons they come and go, but unlike the seasons they are not regplar in their migrations! Sometimes, after a whole year swarming about your house and every part of the premises, making night hideons, and sleep almost impossible; boring through the shingle roof, and delying ingeniously contrived traps, and passing by with apparent contempt the most cunningly concealed poison; all on a sudden without any apparent cause, they leave the premises entirely and are gone, sometimes for months and sometimes for whole years together. Then as suddenly they mysteriously appear again, and go through their nightly performances as before. As a general thing the breeds of cats in this country are a degenerate race, and won't catch anything, unless it is a small chicken or a duckling. In the city of handy machine for setting up and mending fence wire, some and destructive on plantations, infesting the THANKSGIVING .- We learn that Friday, the 28th instant, will be the American Thanksgiving Day this year, the official announcement of which will be received by next mail. We beg to inquire—has the Hawaiian nation nothing to be thankful for; and would it not be a good idea to make Independence Day,—which is also on the 28th—a Hawaiian Thanksgiving Day. an Thanksgiving Day ?

SENOR CELSO CASAR MORENO .- This gentleman, who arrived yesterday on the steamer from China in the capacity of agent for the China Merchants these columns as the energetic and persevering projector of a trans-Pacific telegraph cable. He was at Washington in 1876 when our Envoys were working for the Reciprocity Treaty, and as we understand aided them so far as he had opportunity; a service which was reciprocated in kind. The Treaty was passed on the 14th, and Senor Moreno's telegraph concession on the following day. He is a polished gentleman, a thorough man of the world, and an enthusiast on the subject of his favorite project—the trans-Pacific cable. We doubt not our government will afford him all the acilities and encouragement in its power.

STOCK BROKERS.—We beg to call attention to the advertisement of Messrs. W. O. Smith & Co., Stock Brokers, in another column. This is the first enterprise of the kind ever attempted at these Islands, and we are glad to see the initiative taken. In our Contraband Trade.—The Hawaiian Board of and knowing personally the reliable character of W. Immigration forbids the selling or trade in fire arms and ammunition to natives of the Pacific Islands by those who go in search of laborers. A correspondent says on this subject: "The most erroneous ideas exist here regarding the supplying a want much needed in the financial of Islanders with guns and ammunition. The fire arms. as they obtain them, are not anything understand that Messrs, W. O. Smith & Co. have like so dangerous to life as their own spears, clubs peculiar facilities for furthering the negotiations for and poisoned arrows. When the time-expired sale and purchase of property of the description to which we refer.

POSTAL FACILITIES .- In former times, and up to he present year, we at the Islands have been accustomed to receive from correspondents in the United States through the mails, seeds, cuttings, roots, bulbs, photographs, silver spoons, knives and forks, watches, clothing, sample packages, laces, &c. at the regular rates of postage. From the Dingee and Conard Co., Rose Growers," of West Grove, Pa., many bundreds of cuttings of choice roses have been thus received during past years, and are now growing in our gardens. Recently a gentleman of this city sent an order to the company for some roses, and received a reply of which the following is an extract: "The old saying, every day brings something new,' has been verified in our case. The Postal authorities have decided that roses cannot be sent by mail to your Islands, and have given notice to our P. O. not to mail such packages. That being from headquarters we have no redress, but submit, Now if you have some friend at San Francisco who will receive and forward the boxes, we will send them by mail there-that is the only way we know of." It is true that our Postal Convention with the United States, negotiated by Judge Allen in 1870, makes no provision for sending by mall anything beyond letters, papers and printed matter, but the courtesy or kindness of the De-HAWAHAN STATISTICAL AND COMMERCIAL DIREC-TORY AND TOURIST'S GUIDE.—We have received a printed circulur containing the Prospectus of a this sudden cutting off of those privileges?

At the conclusion of the cabinet seance Chevaller Thorn requested Mr. Douglass to come on the stage, which he having done, and a committee obtained, money deposited &c., everything was de-clared in readiness. Mr. Douglass produced his own rope from his own pocket and commenced to encircle the body of the Chevalier. The bitches were drawn taut with no gentle force, one especially around the waist of Mr. Thorn compressing his flesh so tightly that the ribs could be easily felt overhanging the rope. At this juncture at appeal for mercy was made to the audience but passed unnoticed, and Mr. Douglass naively remarked that he was interested $50 worth and did'nt intend to "let up an inch." The tying proceeded, and after 124 minutes had been expended by Mr Douglass in weaving apparently inexplicable complications, that gentleman declared Mr. Thorn tied. Mr. Thorn then commenced the attempt of undoing what had taken so long to do and this feat he accomplished in the short space of four minutes and ten seconds and amidst thunders of applause. The fact that Mr. Douglasse fastened the Chevalier entirely with bitches, proves his acquaintance with the necessary re-quisite, if not the necessary hitch, as by hitches and not knots are professionals rope-tyers confined. The performance this evening will con-sist of legerdemain and illusions, and seats should be secured early.
