Kawaihau ..., G. B. Palohau Honolulu Library and Reading Rooms.

The number of members now belonging to the Honolulu Library is two hundred and ten, and the number of volumes on its shelves is two thousand six hundred and eighty-five, one thousand of which are novels. In the Mercantile Library Association of California, sixty-five per cent of the books are classed under the name of romance, so that the Honolulu institution has, in proportion, a higher standard of literature than the California one. The local institution is not used or patronized so freely as it should be, for, except after the arrival of the foreign mails, and occasionally in the evenings, very few people may be seen there. The reason for this cannot be in the amount of the subscription, which is only half a dollar per month, but is probably due to the usual apathy that exists in the community with reference to most associations after the novelty has worn off. Subscribers have the privilege of taking volumes to their homes for a period of three weeks when they must be returned, works of reference however, cannot be removed from the building. Most of the leading magazines of the world may be found there as well as scientific, religious, his terical and other standard works. Some of the magazines are bound in parts, others are given to the hospitals after they have been on the tables for a certain time. As the funds at the disposal of as much is done in this way as possible, and many of the subscribers make donations occasionally to the institution. Among the new books recently purchased or donated are The Times of Gustaf Adolf, History of Ancient Art, Life of Voltaire, His Majesty Myself, The Georgians, Shaudon Bells, Hon, Miss Ferrard, Queen Titania, Numa Roumestan. Life and Times of Thomas Jefferson, The Disowned, Henry Harson, Dr. Howell's Family, Life of Henry Clay, Two on a Tower, Events at the National Capital and Campaign of 1876, Records of Prevailing Prayer, The Major, Life and Works of J. A. Garfield, Beginnings of History according to the Bible and traditions of Oriental People, and many others.

Persons who wish to write letters can do their correspondence in the reading room where the necessary requisites are provided. Everything is kept in a perfect state of order and cleanliness and strangers visiting Honolulu are always welcome, As there is such an excellent institution in our midst, it is a matter of regret that it is not more freely made use of.

Glass Shingles.

We perceive an item going the rounds of the press to the effect that glass shifigles are being manufactured at Pittsburg, Pa. This is an item of interest to boys who have strong-minded and strong-armed mothers, who believe in good, oldfashioned customs in bringing up, or rather, taking down precocious children. To spank a child with a glass shingle, particularly if sufficient force were used to splinter the shingle, would be a very painful proceeding. In fact, it The regular summer vacation of seren weeks of might almost be called, if we were so depraved all public schools throughout the Kingdom, will as to attempt such a pun, a very shingular affair, extend from Friday, the 27th of July inst. to Mon- Referring to the glass shingle as an implement day the 17th of September next, on which date a of family discipline, we are reminded of what the inquisitive boy said to his mother:

" Mother what does transatlantic mean?" " It means across the Atlantic," "Yes, I thought that was what it meant. Now, ma, if transatlantic means across the Atlantic, I suppose that transparent means across the parent's knee, in which case I suppose that I might call myself a transparent boy." The mother heaved a sigh. She saw through the transparent joke. Now when the glass shingle comes into family use the unities will be admirably preserved by the application of the transparent shingle to the transparent boy. The opaque shingle is a thing of the past. - Texas Siftings.

A Marine Catastrophe.

London, June 24,-The passenger vessels Hurunuri and Waitara of the New Zealand Shipping Company were in collision off Portland on Friday night. The Waitara sunk in two minutes and twenty-five persons were drowned. The Hurinuri immediately launched her boats and rescued sixteen persons who were struggling in the water. Among these was a saloon passenger -a lady-to whom a sailor, also saved, had given his life-belt, Two other saloon passengers were also saved. All the second-class and steerage passengers were lost. The Captain of the Waitara was dragged aboard the Hurinuri with the aid of ropes. The two vessels left London together on Friday. The Hurinuri struck the Waitara end on, just in front of the saloon, on the starboard side. The survivors state that no crash was heard, but the side of the Waitara gave way like cardboard. More passengers might have been saved had a bark and steamer, which were seen near by, heeded the Waitara's signals of distress. The Waitara was an iron ship of 833 tons burden, built in 1863. The Hurinuri was also an iron ship.

A Horrible Accident.

Portland, June 26,-Advices to-night bring full particulars of the collision on the Northern Pacific at Heron station. A gravel train of fifteen flat-cars, carrying a working force of Chinamen, was backing round a curve, when another construction train, running on "time orders," ran into it head first. Both trains were going at the rate of fifteen miles an hour. The locomotive of the down train struck the flat-cars, piling them up, one on top of the other, and then threw them over in a heap of human beings, iron and timbers. Gus Pike, the engineer, was instantly killed. In the wreck were found, mangled and dismembered, the bodies of twenty-three dead and fifteen badly wounded Chinamen. The accident was the result of gross carelessness and disobedience of plain orders.

Fashion Notes.

Gay hosiery is no longer in favor. Embroidered ecru batiste robes will be much Printed mull muslin dresses are novelties ately brought out. White glace or Surah silk is the correct living for printed mull muslin dresses, Pleated blouse waists and long apron overskirts bid fair to remain in high favor. White Escurial lace parasol covers are sold for carriage parasols of bright or black silk ..

The favorite color for the dots and scalloped edges of Swiss embroidery bands is read. The newest Spanish lace is the Escurial, with its figures outlined with heavy cord or braid. The stalks of flowers must be as visible in all flower garnitures as the flowers and leaves. The latest freak in linen collars is to have a narrow rolled-over edge at the top of the high band, and this edge is finely embroidered.

Ladies at a Lynching.

Jefferson (Tex.), June 26 .- Lacey, one of the negroes guilty of outraging Mrs. Rogers near Lasater, a few days ago, was lynched on a bridge this morning. He fully confessed. A buggy was driven from under him, producing the fall, Five hundred people were present of both races and sexes. No secret was made of the intended hanging. Notice of the exact hour was at first denied him, as was done in the previous case in the institution are not very large it is not possible | the same vicinity a short time ago, but it being to add as many new books as could be wished, yet | recollected that the law provides hanging as a penalty for outrage, it was finally determined to follow that course. Of the three negroes concerned, Lacey and Sullivan were captured by citizens. Sullivan is thought to be innocent, and will probably be released. Douglas, who was arrested by officers, is still in jail, but may be lynched to-night.
