

THE REGATTA.

The wharves and vessels in the harbor yesterday were crowded with people at an early hour, all looking forward to a day of pleasure. The weather was everything that could be desired, and the gay bunting with which every vessel was dressed streamed in the fine breeze sweeping down from the hills.

Promptly at 9 o'clock, the bugle sounded from the starter's boat, and in a few seconds the sports of the day were inaugurated by the two sloop-yachts Healani and Pauline gliding swiftly from the starting point.

1-First-Class Yacht Race.

First prize $50; second prize $25. Entrance fee —. Open to all. Where four or more boats enter, first and second boats take prizes; third boat saves entrance.

Course: From Can Buoy, passing out the channel, keeping between the buoys, leaving Spar and Bell Buoys on port side, thence to and around Flag Boat off Waikiki, keeping it on the port side in rounding, to a Flag Boat off Quarantine Grounds, keeping it on the starboard side in rounding, thence to Spar Buoy, keeping it on the starboard side, keeping between the buoys in the channel, back to Judges' stand.

- 1. Healani (sloop) 10 tons; red, white and blue.
2. Pauline (sloop), 3 tons; red.
Time 1:53-56 1/4.

The Pauline passed the judges' barge at 9:15, the Healani at 9:1-53, the former being allowed seven minutes handicap of the latter. The Healani came in at 10:55-59 1/4, leaving the Pauline still outside the channel.

Healani, Captain W. L. Wilson. Pauline, Captain Hamner.

2-Two-Oared Boats.

Stationary seats. First prize, $20. Course, from Can Buoy and around a buoy anchored off Marine Railway and to starting point.

- Shoo Fly, pink and blue. Eclipse B. C.
1. Alvina, white and green. Kapiolani B. C.
Time, 11:31 1/4.

The boats started at 9:27-38, the Alvina simply playing with its opponent, the race ending in a walk over. The two boats were not fairly matched, the Shoo Fly being heavy and broad, while the Alvina is a beautifully built boat, fine at the bows and having but narrow beams.

Alvina, G. Cavanagh, stroke; T. Downey, T. Bee, coxswain.

Shoo Fly, C. Baldwin, stroke; J. Maguire, Lucas, coxswain.

3-Six-Paddle Canoe Races.

Open to all. Entrance free. Prize $10. Course, same as No. 2 race.

- 1. Kala.
2. Puakauwaka.
Time, 8:11 1/4.

This race caused a great amusement, both crews dashing the water on all sides. The winning canoe came in three lengths ahead of the other.

4-Whaleboat Race.

Five oars. First prize, $40; second boat saves entrance. Course: From Can Buoy, out to and around Spar Buoy, keeping it on the port side, and back to place of starting point.

- 1. Kekua, white and red—H. M.'s Chamberlain.
2. Talula, blue—F. H. Hayselden.
Time, 19:34.

This race caused a good deal of speculation, both crews being in splendid condition. The Kekua chose the land side at starting, and keeping the lead all the way, won easily by ten lengths. Some amusement was caused during this race by the upsetting of a canoe, precipitating three natives into the water. The canoe was soon righted, the men escaping with a ducking.

5-Four-Oared Race.

First prize, $40; second prize, $15; third boat saves entrance. Course: Same as No. 4.

The Kapuwa, white and red—H. M.'s Chamberlain—being the only boat entered, the race was scratched.

6-Swimming Race.

- 1. Kim, aged 18.
2. H, aged 22.
3. Tom, aged 18.
Time, 2:42 1/4.

Great fun was caused by this race, and everyone cheering loudly. H and Tom did not go to the wharf, but waited half-way for Kimo's return, who, going there and back, won the race in above time.

7-Single Sculls (Shells).

Prize, $10. Entrance free. Course: From starting point, out and around Knuckle (third) Boy in the channel, returning to starting point. No entries were made for the above race.

8-Six-Oared Race.

Open to all. First prize, $75; second prize, $25; third boat saves entrance. Course: From Can Buoy, out the channel, leaving Spar Buoy on port side, thence to and around Bell Buoy, keeping it on the port side in rounding, and back to starting point, keeping Spar Buoy on starboard side.

In addition to the first prize in the above race, Mr. J. Williams will present the winning boat with a large 14 by 17 picture of the crew appropriately framed.
1. Stranger, white and scarlet—M. B. C.

2. No Name, blue, white diagonal—H. Y. B. C.

3. Pomaikelani, white and blue—H. M.'s Chamberlain.

4. Kapuwa, white and red—H. M.'s Chamberlain.

5. Kapiolani, white and green—Kapiolani B. C.

This race was by far the best race of the day, both the crews of the Stranger and No Name being in splendid condition. The Stranger, upon winning the toss, took the shore side; next came Kapuwa, Kapiolani, No Name, and Pomaikelani. Upon the signal being given, the crews got away well together; but, after a few hundred feet, the Stranger led, followed closely by No Name. The Myrtles kept a lead of nearly two lengths the whole of the course, but their plucky opponents in blue and white, never for one moment ceased to do their utmost to regain the lost ground. The winning crew started off at 45 strokes to the minute, the Honolulu rowing 48.

CREW OF THE STRANGER.—Oscar Branch, stroke; H. Robertson, No. 2; F. Wundenburg, No. 3; C. Purdy, No. 4; A. Lyle, No. 5; J. Savidge, bow; J. Torbert, coxswain. CREW OF THE NO NAME.—W. Moss, stroke; G. Markham, No. 2; H. Wodehouse, No. 3; J. Holt, No. 4; J. Dowsett, No. 5; H. Whitney, bow; J. Oat, coxswain.

At this point the proceedings came to a temporary stoppage to allow the judges time for refreshments.

PART 2.

9-Yacht Race.

Second Class—First prize, $40; second prize, $20; third boat saves entrance.

Course—From Can Buoy, out the channel, to Spar Buoy, keeping it on the starboard side in rounding, to boat off Quarantine Grounds; tack around the same, and return to starting point; in passing Spar Buoy leave it on the port side.

- 1. Lena (sloop) 1/2 ton. Capt. J. Oat.
2. Pauline (sloop) 3 tons. Capt. Haumea.
3. Addie (sloop) 1 1/2 tons.
Time, 58:51.

Only the two first boats started, the Addie not being able to come to the starting point. The Lena took the lead and kept it all the way, winning easily.

10-Single Sculls.

Stationary seats. Prize, 10; second boat saves entrance.

Course—From starting point, out to and around Knuckle (3rd) Buoy in the channel, returning to starting point. No entries.

11-Four Oared Race.

Stationary seats—First prize, $40; second prize, $15. Course—Same as No. 4 race.

- 1. Lillian, white and scarlet; Myrtle B. C.
2. Alvina, pink and white, Eclipse B. C.
Time, 18:41.

The Lillian having won the toss, chose the land side, and went away with a few feet advantage, rowing 42 strokes to the minute. They soon lengthened the distance between themselves and the other boat, being about three lengths ahead when level with the lighthouse, and keeping a long lead the whole way, won easily by 150 yards.

Alvina: B Baldwin, stroke; H Lyle, two; A Young, three; C Baldwin, bow; W Baldwin, coxswain. Lillian: A Brown, stroke; W Monsarrat, two; F Whitney, three; A Robertson, bow; W Love, coxswain.

12-Canoe Sailing Race.

Free to all; 1 prize, $10. Course same as No. 21 race.

- 0. Puaka, white, Naeka.
1. Kala, white, Naeka.
Time, 25:42 1/4.

The Puaka, wahi turned completely round at the start, thereby allowing its adversary to gain a few yards' advantage. One of the crew created no small amusement by pretending to create more wind for his sail by waving his hat against it.

13-Diving Contest.

- Prize $6.
1. Poi, 34 years of age.
2. Moses, 32 years of age.
Time, 40 1/2 seconds.

Both men took the water together, going in feet first. Poi remained under the water 40 1/2 seconds, Moses coming up about 7 seconds before him.

14-Tub Race.

Free to all. Paddles only to be used, no sculling allowed. Prize, $5.

- 1. H.
0. Poi.
Time, 2:24 1/4.

The competitors paddled to the wharf and back, no small amusement being caused by their exertions to propel the unwieldy tubs. Poi had hardly completed half the distance when his tub overturned; he appeared to relish the joke, as he kept on upsetting himself at intervals for the amusement of the general public.

15-Six-Oared Boats.

Stationary seats. First prize $60; second prize $20; third boat saves entrance. Course, same as No. 8 race.

Melia, white and blue. His Majesty. Kanoelani, white. H. C. Ulukou. Kapiolani, blue. F. Godfrey. Puasa, red. Kaloi. Lillian, white and scarlet. Myrtle B. C.

A dispute arose about the Myrtle's boat Lillian, three of the other boats refusing to row against it, as it would be an unfair match, the Lillian being so much lighter than her opponents. The judges therefore scratched the race.

16-Barge Race.

Free to all barges. Prize $50. Course same as No. 8 race.

Hanakeeki, red and white. R. H. Baker. Pioloilehua, blue. J. A. Cummins. Time, 29:29 1/4.

The Pioloilehua took the lead at a good, even stroke, and rowing steadily all the way, won by 250 yards.

As soon as the barge race was finished, the Myrtles brought their boat, the Lillian, round to the judges' barge, requesting that their decision in reference to race No. 15 might be changed, and telling them that the Kapiolani was ready to contest the race with them. The judges, however, refused to alter their decision, and some very bitter things were said about those who had been elected on the committee for the management of the races. The judges having quitted the barge, and the crews of the boats Lillian and Kapiolani still wishing to go over the course, elected Mr. Dowsett, Taylor and Gulline as judges. The race was rowed, the Lillian coming in first, in 29 m. 45 secs. We understand that the crew of the Lillian mean to claim a prize in this race, in spite of the opposition shown them. They have our best wishes for their success.

The foot-race between Sims and King came off at noon, and ended in a victory for Sims, winning easily to all appearances. Distance, 200 yards. Time, 26 seconds.

Notwithstanding the crowd on the wharves and vessels, there were no accidents or fights to mar the pleasures of the day. A detachment of police were on duty during the day, but they had little or nothing to do but look on and keep the small boys from falling into the water.

The sailing canoe-race, as seen from the deck of one of the vessels, was an amusing affair. At the start, it seemed as though the one with the largest sail had it all its own; but owing to the amount of leeway all canoes make, and the time lost in getting around at each tack, the two canoes, after fouling with several other crafts, and wandering all about the harbor, came back to the starting point with not much to spare between them.

The many guests of the Honolulu Yacht and Boat Club, who were gathered on the Planter, were enthusiastic in their cheers for the No Name, and flashed bright blue ribbons, streamers and wreaths on hats, parasols, coats, and dresses. But alas for their hopes. Their favorites made a gallant struggle; but the Myrtles kept up the really remarkable stroke with which they commenced, and led No Name to the finish, with plenty of water between.

The race late in the day between the barges was well contested. From the shore it could be seen that the boat steered by the Hon. John Cummins was pulled in better form than the other, though both did well.

Police Court.

BEFORE POLICE-JUSTICE BICKERTON. SATURDAY, NOV. 15.

Kaneauano, charged with drunkenness, forfeited bail of $6.

Napolina and James Macarty, both charged with drunkenness, were each fined $5 and costs.

Kahalawai, charged with having opium in his possession, was fined $50, and sentenced to imprisonment for one month with hard labor.

Hiram Alfred Bridges, charged with manslaughter in the first degree, was committed as follows: In that the said Hiram Bridges in the town of Honolulu, Island of Oahu, Hawaiian Islands, on the 12th day of November, A. D. 1884, with a certain deadly weapon, to-wit, a pistol, assaulted, and then and there shot and killed one L. R. Patten, without authority, justification or explanation of law. W. B. Castle appeared for the defendant. Defendant was committed for trial on the above charge in the Supreme Court at the January term, 1885.

Killed by a Quail.

Two young men chopping wood together in Virginia espied a rattlesnake. With a forked stick one of them held its head close to the ground, keeping its body constrained with his foot, while his comrade took from his own mouth a quid of tobacco, which he forced into that of the snake. The reptile was then released, and had not crawled a couple of yards before it was convulsed, swelling and dying within a short time.

Gordon's Remarkable Beliefs.

[Chicago Journal.] "Chinese" Gordon is said to entertain remarkable religious beliefs. One is that Adam and Eve were actually poisoned by the forbidden fruit, and the only antidote for the continuing effects of the poison is the sacrament of the altar. Another is that he believes the center of the kingdom of satan to be "close to Bass isle, south of Otaheite, not far from Pitcairn's isle."

"Gath:" The most hideous picture in life is a man who never had any back-sets, but died undeplored because he was so perfect.

PROFITS OF ALLIGATOR HUNTING.

A "Look-em-Up," a "Kill-em-Sure" and a "Dynamite." [Cot. New York Sun.]

A few nights ago I had my slumbers broken several times by the discharge of guns. On repairing to the bank of the river, the next morning, to ascertain the cause of the noises I found two young men occupying a hastily constructed palmetto fan camp. Six dead alligators were lying around the camp, varying in length from four to eight feet. The hunters had killed them the previous night. One of the young men was busy skinning the alligators, while the other, with the aid of a single cooking utensil, which answered the purpose of a baking oven and coffee pot, was preparing a frugal morning meal. The skin is removed from the belly, the under part of the jaws, and the inside of the legs. The skin on the back is worthless. As soon as the skins are removed they are salted and packed in barrels, and shipped to a New York firm. The hunters receive $1 a piece for all hides four feet long and upward.

After the skins are removed the hunters cut off the heads and place them on the edge of the river, where they remain for about a week. At the end of that time the teeth become so loose that they can readily be pulled out with the fingers. The teeth from half a dozen large alligators weigh about a pound and are worth $4.

The two young men killed fifty alligators in the week that they hunted in this neighborhood. They begin hunting as soon as it becomes thoroughly dark. Their hunting outfit consists of a bull's-eye lantern, in camp language called "look-em-up," a double-barreled shot-gun, or "kill-em-sure," and a hatchet, with which they split the alligator's skull, and to which they have given the very expressive name of "dynamite." The man who is to do the shooting for the night fastens the lantern to his forehead and takes his place in the bow of a small boat. His partner paddles the boat cautiously along the stream, while the man in the bow keeps a sharp lookout for alligators' eyes, which under favorable circumstances he can "shine" with his lantern at a distance of 200 yards. As soon as they discover a pair of eyes they paddle cautiously up to within a couple of feet of the alligator's head and discharge a load of buckshot into it. As soon as the shot is fired the paddler catches the alligator by the jaws, which he holds together with one hand while he cleaves the skull open with his hatchet.

Sometimes the alligators retain considerable power of action. When such is the case it is rather exciting work getting them into the boat. Sometimes very large alligators turn the boat over. If an alligator is not handled at once after being wounded he sinks to the bottom and is lost.

A Cool "Ad."

A Paris paper contains the following cool advertisement: "Found, Sunday last, a lace mitten embroidered with pearls. If the person who lost it will be kind enough to leave the other one at the office of this paper, she will greatly oblige the person who found the first!"

Cheap Telegraphy.

"Gath" in Philadelphia Times.] Telegraphy, it seems to me, must cease some of these days to make so many men rich. I understand that at the last national convention some of the new companies did the newspaper work for 1 cent a word over 1,000 miles of country. This only makes something like 2 cents a line, or $5 a column, for telegraphic transmission. I can remember when I was a boy in Philadelphia that any plain, ordinary burgher would as well go into a store and buy a marble statue as drop into a telegraph office and send a message. In those days the honest Philadelphians borrowed the newspapers from each other. One enterprising person would take a paper, paying 1 cent a day for it, and the two neighbors on either hand would borrow it. Now we have so grown in grace that our sons at the ages of 7 and 8 will walk into a telegraph office and send a message to their aunt in the Mississippi valley.

All this forwardness, I think, is due to smoking cigarettes, for I can see no other reason for such confidence. The heads of the boys seem no bigger than formerly. The cigarette, no doubt, brings the nervous system forward.

A Pompeian Venus.

[Chicago Tribune.] A curious discovery has just been made at Pompeii in the course of the excavations carried on there. A fine statuette of a crouching Venus was brought to light in a sculptor's workshop just cleared. The sculptor must have been engaged in repairing the statuette when overtaken by the awful catastrophe of the year 79. The head of the figure had evidently just been remodeled anew, as it is far inferior in style to the remaining portions of the body; the two arms were also new, and had been fastened to the trunk by metal pins. The body of the artist himself was also discovered in the shop, lying prostrate on the ground, and with a large cingulum still grasped in his hand. A cast of the man was effected by the usual process of running plaster of paris into the cavity formed by the body in the solid dust.

GREAT SALE

- O F -

Imported Blood Horses,

By order of MILES BROS.

On Monday, Nov. 24th,

At 12 o'clock, noon, at my salesroom, I will sell

Nine Head of Fine Horses,

Direct from the world-renowned Palo Alto breeding establishment of Gov. Stanford.

AND ONE IMPORTED

KENTUCKY JACK,

Warranted Proof.

The List comprises the following animals:

"CLEMANTINE,"

Public record, 2:21. Brown mare, 15 1/4 hands, by Addison, Jr., he by Addison, son of Old Vermont and Black Hawk.

This is one of the most noted as well as one of the fastest mares that ever appeared on the American turf. She was campaigned two seasons by Budd Doble, the trainer and driver of Goldsmith Maid, during which time she won over 50 races and $35,000, in stakes and purses, retiring with a public record of 2:21, which mark she was then, and is still capable of lowering. She is perfectly sound, and as fast as she ever was.

"ALABAMA."

Bay mare, sired by Robt. E. Lee; he by old St. J. Clair, dam Melinche, dam of Fred Crocker, 2-year old, record 2:25 1/4. This mare is fast, but has no public record. She is a prize beauty and kind enough for ladies' use.

"MENLO."

Blood bay gelding, 5 years old. By Mohawk Chief, he by Rysdyks Hambletonian, dam Mater Occidentis (dam of Occident 2:16 1/4). This is one of the handsomest colts on the place, and from his breeding ought to prove a winner in any class. Is well broken and said to be very promising. Gov. Stanford paid $20,000 each for Mohawk Chief and Gen. Benton.

"BENTON BOY."

Sorrel gelding, 6 years old, by Gen. Benton. Dam, the first trotting mare Aurora, public record 2:27, she by John Nelson, son of imported Trustee. Handsome, stylish, kind, very speedy and fine size.

"CORNET."

Bay gelding, foaled May 1st, 1878, sired by Contractor, he by Ajax; son of Rysdyks Hambletonian; 1st dam, Bona, by Blackwood, he by Alexander Norman; 2nd dam by Lost Cause; 3rd dam by Mambrino Chief.

This horse is a trotter, and any young fellow that has a nice girl should secure him at once. He is said to have shown flights of speed way down.

ONE MATCHED SPAN OF BLACK MARES

No white; 15 hands high, 4 and 5 years, full sisters, sound, kind and well broken, single and double, very gentle, will stand without hitching.

Thoroughbreds.

"BELL BOYD."

Blood bay mare, black points, 5 years old, by Springbok, he by imported Australian, dam Hester, by Lexington. 1st dam, Boydana, by Imp. Knight of St. George son of Irish Birdcatcher; 2nd dam Sally Wallace, by Star Davis; 3rd dam, Evelyn, by American Eclipse; 4th dam, Hannah Mare, by Gohana; 5th dam, Sally Mare, by Imp. Hambletonian; 6th dam, by Imp. Jack Andrew; 7th dam, by Imp. Driver; 8th dam, by Imp. Fearnaught; 9th dam, by Imp. Ariel, son of Morton's Imp. Traveler; 10th dam, by Gaine's Careless, son of Imp. Obscurity; 11th dam, by Imp. Janus.

This mare is a beauty. Although strictly thoroughbred, she has never been raced, but has been kept by the Governor as a private family saddle animal for ladies' use exclusively. She is very gentle. Her sire, Springbok, has the best record ever made at 2 miles and a quarter, in a dead heat with Preakness for the "Saratoga Cup," July 29th, 1875; time, 3:56 1/4, which still stands at the head of the list at the distance.

BAY FILLY, foaled January 24th, 1882, by Shannon, full brother to Molly McCarthy, Shannon by Monday; dam, Hennie Farrow, by Imp. Shamrock; 2nd dam, Ida, by Belshazzar; dam, Boydana, (dam of Bell Boyd).

This filly is very large for her age, handsome as a picture. She is in appearance and breeding superior to the two sensational Shannon colts—Freda and Shenandoah—who both last year in their two-year old form made a record of 1:42 1/4. She has never been mounted, and her dam was one of the highest-priced and most valued mares that was ever brought from the East to Palo Alto.

The above animals will all be guaranteed sound, as represented.

A credit of 60 days will be given on approved paper.

Auctioneer.
