

MEN OF THE HOUR.

WATSON C. SQUIRE.

Governor of Washington Territory.

Probably Washington Territory is not as well known to the average American as several countries in Europe. Still thinly peopled, its great resources are scarcely considered in the vast aggregate of American wealth as yet developed.

The executive of the Territory consists of a Governor and Secretary, the former appointed by the President once in four years, and the latter by the Governor once in two years.

Watson C. Squire, Governor of Washington Territory, has been resident there about five years. He was born at Cape Vincent, New York, in 1838.

What is this Disease that is Coming Upon Us?

Like a thief in the night, it steals in upon us unawares. Many persons have pains about the chest and sides, and sometimes in the back. They feel dull and sleepy; the mouth has a bad taste, especially in the morning.

with a sweetish taste; this is frequently attended with palpitation of the heart; the vision becomes impaired with spots before the eyes; there is a feeling of great prostration and weakness.

John Archer, Harthill, near Sheffield: I can confidently recommend it to all who may be suffering from liver or stomach complaints, having the testimony of my customers, who have derived great benefit from the Syrup and Pills.

George A. Webb, 141 York Street, Belfast:—I have sold a large quantity, and the parties have testified to its being what you represent it.

J. S. Metcalf, 55 Highgate, Kendal:—I have always taken great pleasure in recommending the Curative Syrup, for I have never known a case in which it has not relieved or cured, and I have sold many grosses.

Robt. Gould, 27 High Street, Andover: I have always taken a great interest in your medicines and I have recommended them, as I have found numerous cases of cure for their use.

Thomas Chapman, West Auckland:—I find that the trade steadily increases. I sell more of your medicines than any other kind.

N. Darroll, Clun, Salop:—All who buy it are pleased, and recommend it.

Jos. Balkwill, A. P. S., Kingsbridge:—The public seem to appreciate their great value.

A. Armstead, Market Street, Dalton-in-Furness:—It is needless for me to say that your valuable medicines have great sales in this district—greater than any other I know of, giving great satisfaction.

Robt. Laine, Melksham:—I can well recommend the Curative Syrup from having proved its efficacy for indigestion myself.

Frickheim, Arbroath, Forfarshire, September 23, 1882.—Dear Sir: Last year, I sent you a letter recommending Mother Seigel's Syrup. I have very much pleasure in still bearing testimony to the very satisfactory results of the famed Syrup and Pills.

A certain minister in my neighborhood says it is the only thing which has benefited him, and restored him to his normal condition of health after being unable to preach for a considerable length of time. I do mention also a great many other cases, but space would not allow.

Yours very truly, (Signed) WILLIAM S. GLASS, A. J. White, Esq. Chemist.

Dear Sir,—I write to tell you that Mr. Henry Hillier, of Yatesbury, Wilts, informs me that he suffered from a severe form of indigestion for upwards of four years, and took no end of doctor's medicine without the slightest benefit.

Yours truly, (Signed) N. WEBB, Mr. White, Chemist, Carme.

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING. EPPS'S COCOA.

BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctor's bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—See article in the Civil Service Gazette.
